The Blue Train

The Blue Train started in 1939. The colour of the train really is blue. It travels from Pretoria to Cape Town in South Africa. The journey of 1,000 miles takes about 31 hours.

It's a five-star train because it's like a five-star hotel inside. All the rooms have attached bathrooms. The style inside the train is a 1940s style with lots of South African wood. It's very expensive to travel on the train. It costs at least one thousand pounds. The views from the train during the trip are amazing. Many kings, queens and presidents have travelled on the train. There is a library, bar, shop and a big screen television on the train. When men have dinner, they have to wear a suit and tie, and ladies have to wear a dress. The train always arrives and leaves on time. It is never late.

____ 46. The Blue Train is a new train.

____ 47. The train does a journey of 2,000 miles.

____ 48. The rooms inside of the train look like rooms from the 1940s.

____ 49. It costs five hundred pounds to travel on the train.

____ 50. Many well-known people have been on the train.

51. Write a short paragraph about a journey you took recently.
