Outcomes: Beginner—Review 2

Instructions: Choose the correct answer.

____ 1. She _____ to Paris today.
   a. travel
   b. is travelling
   c. is travel

____ 2. Her husband ____ well.
   a. not feels
   b. is not feel
   c. is not feeling

____ 3. What _____ at university?
   a. is he studying
   b. is he studies
   c. does he studying

____ 4. _____ now?
   a. Is it snowing
   b. Is it snows
   c. Is it snow

____ 5. What _____ on TV?
   a. are you watch
   b. are you watches
   c. are you watching

Instructions: Complete the sentence with the correct form of going and the verb in brackets.

6. _____ to the swimming pool this afternoon. (We / go)

7. _____ a football match tomorrow. (I / see)

8. _____ out now. (I / go)

9. _____ a coffee after class. (We / have)

Instructions: Complete the question with the correct past simple form of the verb in brackets.

10. What _____ for breakfast? (you / have)

11. What time _____ this morning? (he / get up)

12. How _____ the film? (be)

13. Where _____ last night? (you / go)

14. What _____ on Saturday? (she / do)

Instructions: Complete the sentence with the correct personal pronoun.

15. I can't find my phone. Maybe, I left _____ (her / it) in the cafe?

16. Mr Edwards is the best person. Talk to _____ (her / him).

17. A: I don't know where my old boots are.
B: Where did you leave _____ (it / them)?

18. When you come to the office, ask for _____ (me / him). I should be free.

19. It's difficult! Can I help _____ (you / them)?

Instructions: Complete the sentence with the best phrase from the word pool. Not all of the phrases are used.

change trains	go home	get off
the grey line	take the metro	wait

20. You must take _____ to Waterloo Station.

21. In the morning, I _____ about five minutes for the bus to work.

22. To get to the restaurant, _____ the train at Victoria Station.

23. You have to _____at Central Station. You then take another train.

24. In Beijing, many people _____ to work.

Instructions: Complete the sentence with the best phrase from the word pool. Not all of the phrases are used.

go shopping	reads something	watch football
cooks	listen to music	go on the internet

25. When I want some information, I _____ to find it.

26. She usually _____ before she goes to bed.

27. I always _____ when I run.

28. My mum and I _____ at our local market every Saturday morning.

29. My dad _____ the evening meal every Sunday.

Instructions: Correct the sentence using the correct verb, get, make, meet, take or travel in its correct form.

30. I am getting an important exam tomorrow.

31. Let’s take a cup of tea at that café.

32. We can get under the clock in the town square.

33. They want to study to Spain next month.

34. I’m going to meet a cake. Can you help me?

Instructions: Read the text and write T for true or F for false.

Unusual jobs

Professional sleeper

In Finland, some hotels pay someone to sleep in a different room every night. The person doesn’t pay! The person’s job is to say how comfortable the bed is and how well or badly they slept. This helps the hotel to know which beds are good to sleep in.

Tea taster

This person has to like tea. They have to know the names and flavours of every kind of tea and where a tea comes from. Many people don’t even know this job exists. It takes five years of training to be able to do the job. The job involves travelling all around the world tasting different types of tea. The person doesn’t drink the teas but only tastes them. The salary is very good!

Professional queuer

Do you ever get tired of waiting in a queue for something? Well, someone will do it for you if you don’t have the time or don’t want to queue. These people will queue for you. They can get up to £20 an hour!

____ 35. A professional sleeper works with doctors.

____ 36. A professional sleeper tests beds.

____ 37. A tea taster works in many countries.

____ 38. A tea taster has to drink a lot of tea every day.

____ 39. A professional queuer will stand in a queue for you.

____ 40. A professional queuer can get up to £30 an hour.

Instructions: Match the problem and the reason.

a. It’s late today.
b. The sign says ‘ring the bell’.
c. There’s a lot of noise outside.
d. I worked all weekend.

e. The bus is full.

____ 41. It’s difficult to sleep.

____ 42. Where’s the bus?

____ 43. There’s no-one at reception.

____ 44. There’s nowhere to sit.

____ 45. I’m really tired today.

Instructions: Listen to track 5.1 and write T for true or F for false. Correct the false statements.

____ 46. Jason doesn’t like the flat.

____ 47. There are two museums near the flat.

____ 48. There are many interesting shops near the flat.

____ 49. There’s a market in the old part of the town.

____ 50. The woman doesn’t like the café in the Old Town.

51. Write four or five short sentences about a friend and where they live.