Budapest is the capital city of Hungary and around two million people live there. It is a very popular tourist place all year because it has something for everyone. Many people like to visit in December for the Christmas markets. You can buy all kinds of strange and wonderful things. You can buy very small music boxes, hats, jewellery, bread and meat.

The people love cakes and you can see an amazing variety of cakes everywhere you go. One of the most famous cakes is called flodni. It is a plum* cake and is very nice!

There are also many old buildings and hot water springs. You can take a bath in the hot water and play chess while you sit on a bench in the water. The baths are over 2,000 years old.

You can find cheap hotels everywhere, but they are cheaper in Pest. Buda is on one side of the Danube river and Pest is on the other side. Buda is quieter than Pest, and if you want good restaurants and discos, you will need to stay in Pest.

*a plum is a kind of fruit

1. Tourists only visit Budapest in the winter.

2. People like to go to Budapest in December for the shopping.

3. Cakes are not very popular in Budapest.

4. In the baths, people play chess after taking a bath.
