Noah: Hi Olivia. How are you?
Olivia: I am fine, thanks. How was your weekend?
Noah: It was great! The house was really quiet, so I finished the book I was reading.
Olivia: Why was the house quiet?
Noah: My younger brother stayed at a friend's house on Friday and Saturday night. My mum and dad were also out a lot of the time.
Olivia: Lucky you! What was the book about?
Noah: It was about a band and how they became famous.
Olivia: That sounds very interesting.
Noah: Yes, it was very good, and it gave me some ideas.
Olivia: What do you mean 'it gave you some ideas'?
Noah: Well, you know I play the guitar. I am thinking of joining a band!
Olivia: That's amazing! I know you are a good guitar player.
Noah: Thanks. I may even become famous one day!
Olivia: I read a book, too. I like art as you know and I read a book about a famous artist. It was about a painter who was born in Paris in the 1930s. Her family was very poor, and the story was similar as it was about how she became famous, too…
