You may think that you do not know Stefani Germanotta. However, when I tell you her professional name, you will know her. It's Lady Gaga! She was born in New York City in 1986 to an Italian mother and father. Her parents were quite poor, but they paid for Stefani to have piano lessons from the age of four. When she was seventeen, she went to a music school in New York.

In 2005, she started recording songs with a band called SG Band. In 2008, she made her first solo* album called The Fame. It got to number one in the US and many other countries. By 2016 she had sold almost 30 million albums and 146 million singles. That makes her one of the best-selling singers in history.

She has also acted in the American Horror Story series. She plays the part of the owner of a hotel. She is now working on a new album.

solo* means on your own

1. Lady Gaga was born in 1996.

2. She learned to play the piano when she was very young.

3. She wrote her first solo album in 2005.

4. Her first solo album was not very successful.

5. She has sold more albums than most other singers.
