1 BE

PAGE 7

baby /'beɪbi/ Noun a baby is a very young child they have a new baby | what's the baby called? | a baby girl | my baby sister

big /bɪg/ Adjective
something that is big is very large

London is a very big city | we live in a big house | their car isn't very big boy /bɔɪ/ Noun a boy is a young male person. A boy becomes a man when he grows up two boys are playing in the garden | he's a nice boy | he's a boy in my class | the boys are making a lot of noise

bus /bʌs/ Noun
a bus is a machine like a very big car that can carry a lot of people from one place to another

I go to school by bus | the bus stops outside the cinema | the bus is full | does this bus go to the station? | buses in London are red drink /drɪŋk/ Noun drink is liquid that you take as a food we need to buy food and drink for our picnic | let's take our drinks into the garden | would you like another drink? | I need a drink of water

Verb: drink

do you want something to drink?

flat /flæt/ Noun
a flat is a group of rooms, usually on one floor of a building, where someone lives our flat in Bristol is very small | she lives in a flat in central London | a block of flats (a building which has only flats in it) | a flat on the top floor

food /fuːd/ Noun uncount food is things like bread, potatoes, meat and fish, that you eat in order to stay alive

is there any food? – I'm hungry | the food in the hotel is not very good | do you like Italian food (the sort of food people eat in Italy)? | let's have some food

fresh /freʃ/ Adjective
food that is fresh is good to eat because it is not very old these tomatoes are very fresh | I eat a lot of fresh fish | they sell fresh fruit and vegetables there | a fresh salad | a glass of fresh apple juice

have /hæv/ Verb
if you have a meal, you eat it we have lunch at 1 o'clock every day | what time do you have dinner? | we have breakfast in the kitchen husband /'hʌzbənd/ Noun your husband is the man you are married to her husband works in Berlin | this is my husband, Jeremy | her husband is in hospital | she and her husband live in Cricklewood juice /dʒuːs/ Noun uncount juice is the liquid you get by pressing a fruit such as an orange or an apple a glass of orange juice | would you like some apple juice? | add some lemon juice to the salad | a bottle of fruit juice

Adjective: juicy

a nice juicy orange

know /nəʊ/ Verb
if you know something, a fact or some information is in your head where does he live? – I don't know | do you know when the film starts? | nobody knows where they are | I know how to make bread | do you know the name of the president of France? | does anyone know the way to the restaurant?

lunch /lʌntʃ/ Noun
lunch is the meal that you eat in the middle of the day

Collocates: have lunch | have something for lunch | go out for lunch

what time do you have lunch? | lunch is at 12.30 | we're having eggs for lunch | don't be late for lunch | let's go out for lunch

milk /mɪlk/ Noun uncount milk is a white liquid produced by cows, which you can drink and use in cooking milk costs 99p a litre | put the milk in the fridge | we've run out of milk (we don't have any) | do you have milk in your tea? | I have milk on my breakfast cereal number /'nʌmbə(r)/ Noun a number is a word like three, six or nine, or a figure like 3, 6 or 9 a million is a big number | the lake is in the shape of the number seven | our house is number 21 | take the number 2 bus into Brighton

orange /'ɒrɪndʒ/ Noun an orange is a fruit with a sweet flavour and lots of juice a glass of orange juice | a bowl of oranges | a kilo of oranges | this orange tastes very sweet

right /raɪt/ Adjective
you say right to show that you think something is correct or true

I think he's a teacher. – That's right. He works in my school | The capital of Australia is Canberra, not Sydney. – Oh yes, that's right.

© 2024 Cengage Learning Inc.

sorry /ˈsɒri/ Adjective you say sorry after you do something wrong

Collocates: sorry for doing something

It's my fault. Sorry! | sorry I'm late | I'm sorry I can't come to your lesson tomorrow | I want to say sorry for breaking your pen tea /tiː/ Noun uncount tea is a drink you make by pouring hot water onto dry leaves from a tea plant tea with milk | a cup of tea | would you like milk in your tea? | do you prefer tea or coffee? | he's in the kitchen making some tea wife /waɪf/ Noun your wife is the woman you are married to he's got a wife and three children | his wife is a doctor | where is your wife? | his wife is a famous singer

Pages 8–9

best friend /best ˈfrend/ Noun your best friend is the friend you like the most out of all your friends my best friend lives in the same street as me | who's your best friend? | my best friend lives in Australia now brother /ˈbrʌðə(r)/ Noun your brother is a boy or man who has the same mother and father as you my brother is two years older than me | she has two brothers and one sister | the three brothers are still at school class /klɑːs/ Noun

a class is a group of students there are 30 people in my class | we are both in the same class at school | my best friend is in a different class | what class are you in?

daughter /ˈdɔːtə(r)/ Noun someone's daughter is their female (girl) child

Clare's my cousin – Aunt Stella's daughter | my daughter is at university now | we have two sons and a daughter | our daughter still lives at home with us | his daughter is six months old

doctor /ˈdɒktə(r)/ Noun

a doctor is someone whose job is to look at people who are ill and tell them what medicine they need

a hospital doctor | she's studying to be a doctor | both my parents are doctors | the doctor says I must do more exercise | is there a doctor on the plane?

friend /frend/ Noun

a friend is someone you know and like and who you spend time with Collocates: meet a friend | a close friend | a best friend | make friends

I have lots of friends at school | I'm going to meet some friends after work | Charles is a close friend of mine | I am very sad because my friends are not with me

meet /miːt/ Verb

when you meet someone, you see them and talk to them for the first time. If you meet someone you already know, you go to a place to see them

we always meet interesting people at her parties | I'm meeting Simon for lunch | I want to meet your brother – he sounds very interesting

name /neɪm/ Noun your name is the word people use when they talk about you what's your name? | my name is Fernando | her name is Margaret, but everyone calls her Meg | Mrs Merkel's first name is Angela

nice /naɪs/ Adjective

something that is nice is pleasant and enjoyable nice to meet you (what you say when you meet someone for the first time) | a nice house | a nice cup of tea | our neighbours are very nice people

same /seɪm/ Adjective

if two things are the same, there is no difference between them

Collocates: the same (something) as something or someone

he's in the same class as me at school | I've got the same jacket as you | his birthday is on the same day as mine | these two photos look the same | we are the same age

school /skuːl/ Noun

a school is a place where people go to learn things. Most people go to school until they are about 16 or 18 years old

Collocates: go to school | be at school

Jack's not at home – he's at school | children in England start going to school at the age of 5 | there are 800 pupils in my school | a school teacher | he's 18 and he's still at school sister /ˈsɪstə(r)/ Noun your sister is a girl or woman who has the same mother and father as you my sister is two years older than me | she has two brothers and one sister | the three sisters want to go back to Moscow

son /sʌn/ Noun someone's son is their male (boy) child

Andrew's my cousin – Aunt Stella's son | my son is at university now | we have two sons and a daughter | our son still lives at home with us | his son is six years old teacher /ˈtiːtʃə(r)/ Noun a teacher is someone who works in a school and gives information to students my teacher is really nice | Miss Jenkins is a very popular teacher | an English teacher | you should show respect to your teacher

Verb: teach

she teaches science at the local school

© 2024 Cengage Learning Inc.

who /huː/ Pronoun

who is your favourite singer? | who is the president of France? | who can tell me where Cardiff is? | who is the man in the black jacket?

your /jɔː(r)/ /jə(r)/ Adjective is this your coat? | what's your name | your house is lovely | I think your phone is ringing

Pages 10–11

break /breɪk/ Noun

when you are at work, a break is a time when you stop working and relax for a short time before starting to work again

Collocates: a lunch/tea/coffee break | a short/long break | take/have a break | be on your break

I haven't got time to take a break | I usually have a break at about 11 | a coffee break (when you stop work to drink a cup of coffee) | a ten-minute break | he's on his break at the moment coffee /ˈkɒfi/ Noun uncount coffee is a drink made from the dark beans of a coffee plant a cup of coffee | I like coffee in the morning and tea in the afternoon | make a pot of coffee | white coffee (with milk in it) | black coffee (with no milk in it)

come /kʌm/ Verb

if someone comes somewhere, they move to the place where you are

I can't come to the class tomorrow | is Jenny coming to the party? | come to my house for lunch tomorrow | my aunt is coming to visit us next week

Friday /ˈfraɪdeɪ/ Noun

Friday is the day after Thursday and the day before Saturday there's a party this Friday | I always go shopping on Friday | can I come and visit you next Friday?

from /frɒm/ /frəm/ Preposition where are you from? | she's from Edinburgh | I'm from Germany | a group of students from Spain

have /hæv/ Verb

if you have something, it is yours

5.5 billion people have a mobile phone | I have two brothers and a sister | do you have a car? | they have a new house in Norwich invitation /ˌɪnvɪˈteɪʃ(ə)n/ Noun an invitation is when someone asks you if you would like to go to a social occasion that they are organising Collocates: an invitation to something an invitation to Alice's wedding | a party invitation | thank you for the invitation | a printed invitation

Verb: invite invite someone to something let's invite Paul and Elizabeth to dinner | we want to invite you to our party party /ˈpɑː(r)ti/ Noun

a party is an event where people enjoy themselves by doing things like drinking, eating, dancing and talking to each other

the party is on Saturday | a birthday party | an invitation to a party | are you coming to the party on Saturday? | the party starts at 8 o'clock

phone /fəʊn/ Noun

a phone is a thing that you use to be able to talk to people who are not with you

what's her phone number? | my daughter wants a new phone | my phone doesn't work here | can I borrow your phone?

Saturday /ˈsætə(r)deɪ/ Noun

Saturday is the day after Friday and the day before Sunday

I have to go to work this Saturday | I usually play football on Saturday | there's a good film on TV next Saturday

Sunday /ˈsʌndeɪ/ Noun

Sunday is the day after Saturday and the day before Monday

I get up late on Sunday | some people go to church on Sunday | it's my birthday next Sunday

Pages 12–13

anything /ˈeniˌθɪŋ/ Pronoun anything is used in negative questions and sentences instead of 'something' is there anything interesting on TV tonight? | I'd like a cup of tea, please. — Certainly, Sir. Anything else? — No. That's all, thank you. | passing your exam is more important than anything else

cake /keɪk/ Noun

cake is a sweet food made with flour, eggs and sugar and sometimes also with fruit or chocolate. You cook it by baking it in an oven

a slice of cake | chocolate cake | a birthday cake | the shop sells lovely cakes | would you like some cake?

cappuccino /ˌkæpəˈtʃiːnəʊ/ Noun a cappuccino is a cup of coffee with a lot of milk in it a cappuccino and a slice of cake, please | would you like a cappuccino? | two cappuccinos – that's £5.50 please chocolate /ˈtʃɒklət/ Noun chocolate is a sweet brown food made from cocoa a chocolate sauce | a bar of chocolate | chocolate cake | a box of chocolates everything /ˈevriˌθɪŋ/ Pronoun everything is all the things somewhere, or the whole of a situation you are in everything on the table looks nice | is everything all right? | everything she says is interesting | I want to buy everything in this shop!

© 2024 Cengage Learning Inc.

hot /hɒt/ Adjective if something is hot, its temperature is very high a cup of hot chocolate | it's hot in this room | are you hot? | I can't have a bath because there's no hot water
Opposite – Adjective: cold
it gets very cold here in winter | my tea is cold large /lɑː(r)dʒ/ Adjective something that is large is very big he lives in a large flat in Hampstead | I need a jumper, a large one | London is a very large city | two cappuccinos please – one medium, one large

like /laɪk/ Verb
if you would like something, you want it would you like a cup of tea? | I'd like a glass of water, please | I'm sure you would like another slice of cake medium /ˈmiːdiəm/ Adjective something that is medium is not large and not small but between the two in size what size coat do you want? Medium or large? | the shirts are available in medium or large size | two cappuccinos please – one medium, one large

problem /ˈprɒbləm/ Noun
a problem is a situation that you do not like and which is difficult to stop or change
crime is a problem in this area | you can talk to me about any problems you've got | there are traffic problems in the city centre | unemployment (when lots of people cannot get a job) is a big problem | what's the problem?

sandwich /ˈsæn(d)wɪdʒ/ Noun a sandwich is two pieces of bread with some other food in between them which you eat take some sandwiches for your lunch | a cheese sandwich | I'm making a sandwich | what's in your sandwich?

small /smɔːl/ Adjective something that is small is not very big Ledbury is quite a small town | these shoes are too small for me | a small café | a small dog | the hotel is nice but the rooms are rather small

thanks /θæŋks/ Exclamation you say thanks to someone to show that you are grateful for something they just gave you or told you about Here's your coffee. – Thanks. | Let me help you with your suitcase. – Thanks. | thanks for your help this morning water /ˈwɔːtə(r)/ Noun uncount water is the liquid that falls as rain and that makes up the sea and rivers and lakes. People, animals and plants need water in order to be able to live a glass of water | the water's too cold to swim in the sea today | a bottle of water | when it reaches 0° centigrade, water freezes and becomes ice

© 2024 Cengage Learning Inc.

2 LIVE, WORK, EAT

PAGE 15

a lot of /ə lɒt ɒv/ Adjective a lot of things or people are many of them or a large amount of them a lot of people live in London | I can see a lot of trees in the garden | she has a lot of clothes | we need a lot of chairs in the classroom | the cars are making a lot of noise outside

big /bɪg/ Adjective
something that is big is very large

London is a very big city | we live in a big house | their car isn't very big child /tʃaɪld/ Noun a child is a young person who is not an adult yet. the plural of child is children children are playing in the park | there are 30 children in my class at school | the children are making a lot of noise

city /'sɪti/ Noun
a city is a big town where a lot of people live and work

I don't like living in a city | London is the biggest city in England | Paris is a very old city | St Petersburg is a beautiful city | Beijing is the capital city of China (it is the most important city, where the government is) driver /'draɪvə(r)/ Noun a driver is someone who controls a car, train, bus, or other vehicle that is moving my uncle is a train driver | he's a bus driver | a taxi driver | she's a very good driver | a safe driver expensive /ɪk'spensɪv/ Adjective something that is expensive costs a lot of money

an expensive watch | I like expensive clothes | it's a good restaurant, but too expensive for us | an expensive meal

Opposite – Adjective: cheap

a cheap hotel | tickets for the concert are quite cheap | a shop selling cheap clothes | it's cheaper if you buy it on the internet

far /fɑː(r)/ Adverb
if something is far or far away, it is a long distance from you

she lives far away, in Scotland | is it far to your school? | we can walk there – it's not far

fresh /freʃ/ Adjective
food that is fresh is good to eat because it is not very old

these tomatoes are very fresh | I eat a lot of fresh fish | they sell fresh fruit and vegetables there | a fresh salad | a glass of fresh apple juice

fruit /fru't/ Noun uncount fruit are things like apples and oranges that you can eat and that taste sweet they eat lots of fruit in Italy | fresh fruit is good for you | is there any fruit in the fridge? | a piece of fruit

like /laɪk/ Verb
if you like someone or something, you think they are nice

Collocates: like doing something

I like my English teacher | do you like oranges? | I like tennis, but I don't like basketball | she likes playing football meat /miːt/ Noun uncount meat is the part of an animal or bird that is under the skin and that people eat as food is there any meat in this soup? | I don't eat meat | put the meat in the oven for an hour | a slice of cold meat

near /nɪə(r)/ Preposition
if something is near somewhere, it is only a short distance away

my grandparents live near us - in the next street | the hotel is near the beach | the restaurant is near the station | Ashford is quite near Canterbury | is there a bank near here?

nurse /nɜː(r)s/ Noun a nurse is someone whose job is to look after people who are ill, especially in a hospital

I want to be a nurse | he's a nurse at the local hospital | the nurse gives him his medicine | the nurse comes to take my temperature every two hours office /'ɒfɪs/ Noun an office is a building or a room where people work, usually sitting at desks an open-plan office (where there are lots of people working in the same big room) | my office is on the second floor | a big office block (a building full of offices) | I don't want to work in an office | come into my office, please park /pɑː(r)k/ Noun

a park is a big open space with trees and grass in a town or city where people can go and relax away from traffic and streets

let's go for a walk in the park | I take my sandwich and eat it in the park at lunchtime | the park closes at eight o'clock in the evening | London has several famous parks

small /smɔːl/ Adjective
something that is small is not very big

Ledbury is quite a small town | these shoes are too small for me | a small café | a small dog | the hotel is nice but the rooms are rather small

© 2024 Cengage Learning Inc.

taxi /ˈtæksi/ Noun a taxi is a car that takes a passenger somewhere. When you take a taxi you have to pay the driver

Collocates: take a taxi

it's raining – let's take a taxi | taxis in London are very expensive | your taxi is waiting outside | a taxi driver

village /ˈvɪlɪdʒ/ Noun
a village is a place with buildings where people live. A village is smaller than a town and much smaller than a city

they live in a small village near Bristol | a pretty village in the country | the village was very quiet | please drive slowly through the village | it was difficult moving from a village to a city

walk /wɔːk/ Verb
if you walk somewhere, you go there putting one foot in front of the other

I walk to work | it's too far to walk – let's get the bus | we can walk to the cinema | I walk three miles before breakfast every day

Noun: walk

let's go for a walk | a walk in the park | it's a nice day for a walk

work /wɜː(r)k/ Verb
if you work, you have a job and get money for doing it

his mother works in a bank | she works in New York | more than 20 people work in my office | where do you work? | he works in a restaurant every evening | do you have to work on Sundays? | he works hard at the factory all week

Noun: work

I finish work at 5 o'clock | she has to go to work on Saturday

Pages 16–17

area /ˈeəriə/ Noun an area is part of a country or place the Lake District is a beautiful area | it's a nice area to live in | there are lots of theatres in this area of the city | Chelsea is a famous area of London | I live in the same area as you

called /kɔːld/ Adjective if you are called something, that is your name. If something is called something, that is its name

my dog is called Felix | the town is called Bootle | what's your village called? | it's a place near Manchester, called Salford

Verb: call

I call my car Aggie

car /kɑː(r)/ Noun a car is a machine that has an engine and four wheels, and that can carry people on the roads my car is outside | you can park your car in my garage | I want to sell my car | a big black car | there's something wrong with the car | can you drive a car?

centre /ˈsentə(r)/ Noun the centre of a place is the middle of it

we live in the centre of the city | the city centre | Trafalgar Square is in the centre of London

dog /dɒg/ Noun
a dog is an animal with fur, four legs and a tail that people keep as a pet

I've got a dog called Fido | a dog is barking outside (making a noise with its voice) | a friendly dog | a fierce dog (that is ready to fight) | a tin of dog food (food for a dog to eat) | take the dog for a walk | a pet dog

flat /flæt/ Noun
a flat is a group of rooms, usually on one floor of a building, where someone lives

our flat in Leeds is very small | she lives in a flat in central London | a block of flats (a building which has only flats in it) | a flat on the top floor grammar /ˈgræmə(r)/ Noun uncount grammar is all the rules of the way a language works

English grammar is difficult to learn | a book about grammar | he is interested in Russian grammar

here /hɪə(r)/ Adverb
you use here to say where you are at the moment

the restaurant is near here | do you live here? | it's nice here

house /haʊs/ Noun a house is a building which a person or family lives in

we live in a big house | they're building two new houses at the end of the road | my house is near my school | a family house | come to my house after school | their house is over 100 years old | the party is at Jennifer's house

know /nəʊ/ Verb
if you know something, a fact or some information is in your head

how old is he? – I don't know | do you know when the film starts? | nobody knows where they are | I know how to make bread | do you know who the president of France is? | does anyone know the way to the restaurant?

live /lɪv/ Verb
the place where you live is the town or country where your home is and where you spend most of your time where do you live? | I live in Madrid | my parents still live in Manchester | she lives on her own | do you live in a house or a flat? | he lives close to the university minute /ˈmɪnɪt/ Noun a minute is a length of time. There are 60 seconds in a minute and 60 minutes in an hour a five-minute walk | cook the potatoes for 40 minutes | the journey to school takes 25 minutes

© 2024 Cengage Learning Inc.

north /nɔː(r)θ/ Noun the north is the direction towards the top of a map we live in the north of England | it's colder in the north than in the south | the A1 road goes to the north | they're building a new factory in the north road /rəʊd/ Noun a road is a way that goes from one place to another that you can drive a car on Collocates: by road the road to Wigan | does this road go to Stoke? | there's a lot of traffic on the road today | we're going to Edinburgh by road (driving a car, not going by train or plane)

south /saʊθ/ Noun the south is the direction towards the bottom of a map the city is in the south of the country | Brighton is in the south of England | I like living in the south | the weather is warmer in the south

take /teɪk/ Verb
if something takes a certain amount of time, that much time passes while it is happening it takes an hour to get there | it takes ages (a long time) to learn Russian | take your time (don't hurry) | it takes 30 minutes to cook the cake university /ˌjuːnɪˈvɜː(r)səti/ Noun a university is a place where people can study after they leave school, usually when they are between 18 and 21 years old Collocates: be at university | go to university a university student | I'm at university now (I'm a student there) | she wants to go to university next year

village /ˈvɪlɪdʒ/ Noun
a village is a place with buildings where people live. A village is smaller than a town and much smaller than a city
they live in a small village near Bristol | a pretty village in the country | the village was very quiet | please drive slowly through the village | it was difficult moving from a village to a city

Pages 18–19

do /duː/ Verb your job is what you do. If someone asks you what you do, they want to know what your job is I'm a waiter. What do you do? | I don't know what he does | tell us what you do good /gʊd/ Adjective if you think something is good, you like it quite a lot she has a good job in Manchester | Warwick is a good university | I know a good restaurant near here

great /greɪt/ Adjective if you say that something is great, you mean that you like it a lot and think that it is very good Birmingham is a great place to live | there are some great shops here | you look great in that jacket | Athens is a great city | I like my job, it's really great hour /ˈaʊə(r)/ Noun an hour is a length of time. There are 60 minutes in an hour, and 24 hours in a day it takes an hour by car to get to Liverpool | the film lasts three hours | a one-hour French lesson hours /ˈaʊə(r)z/ Noun plural your hours are the number of hours you have to spend at work every day or every week Collocates: work long hours workers want higher wages and shorter working hours | I'm working very long hours this week | my hours are 9 till 5

money /ˈmʌni/ Noun uncount money is what you give someone when you buy something, or what your boss pays you for doing your job how much money have you got with you? | have you got enough money for the train ticket? | I like my job but I don't get much money for it | it costs a lot of money to fly to Australia

mum /mʌm/ Noun a mum is a woman who has children. Children call their mother Mum it's hard work being a mum | a mum of three (she has three children) | ask your mum if you can come to my house | don't tell Mum about it now /naʊ/ Adverb

if something is happening now, it is happening in the present time my parents are French, but now we live in Germany | what's on TV now? | dinner is ready now

OK /ˌəʊˈkeɪ/ Adjective something that is OK is quite good, but not very good the film was OK | the food in the restaurant was OK | we had an OK evening at the cinema person /ˈpɜː(r)s(ə)n/ Noun a person is a man, woman, or child. The plural of person is people his dad's a really nice person | that person works in my company | are there many people in the shops today? | I always meet really interesting people in the library

photo /ˈfəʊtəʊ/ Noun
a photo is a picture from a camera Collocates: a photo of something | take a photo look at the photo | what a lovely photo | a photo of my brother | take a photo of your house and put it on Instagram

retired /rɪˈtaɪə(r)d/ Adjective someone who is retired does not work any more, usually because they are old my parents are retired | a retired teacher | the town is full of retired people | when you're retired you can spend more time playing golf | he's not a doctor any more because he's retired

© 2024 Cengage Learning Inc.

shop /ʃɒp/ Noun
a shop is a place where you go to buy things a clothes shop (that sells clothes) | the shop sells books and computer games | she works in a shop | shop workers | the shops close at 8 | what time do the shops open?

student /ˈstjuːd(ə)nt/ Noun a student is someone who is learning things at school or university I'm a student at Nottingham University | I live in a house with three other students | there are lots of students in this area | the city is very quiet when the students are on holiday

time /taɪm/ Noun uncount time is the number of days, hours, minutes, etc. that you can spend doing something I don't have enough time with my family | have you got time to look at my photos? | let's spend some time together

train /treɪn/ Noun
a train is a long vehicle that has wheels which run on rails (long thin metal things on the ground) and that carries passengers Collocates: by train | take a/the train
I go to school by train | take a train to Crewe | this train stops at Glasgow Central station | a high-speed train (that goes very fast) | you can get a train from London to Amsterdam waiter /ˈweɪtə(r)/ Noun a waiter is a person who works in a café or restaurant and brings the food and drinks to the customers I work as a waiter on Saturday and Sunday | the waiter is bringing our food | the waiter asks us what we want to eat | ask the waiter for the bill

work /wɜː(r)k/ Verb
if you work, you have a job and get money for doing it
his mother works in a bank | she works in New York | more than 20 people work in my office | where do you work? | he works in a restaurant every evening | do you have to work on Sundays? | he works hard at the factory all week
Noun: work
I finish work at 5 o'clock | she has to go to work on Saturday

Pages 20–21

bacon /ˈbeɪkən/ Noun uncount bacon is meat from a pig a bacon sandwich | a lovely smell of bacon | fry the bacon for two minutes bread /bred/ Noun uncount bread is a food made from flour and water and usually yeast (something that makes the bread rise when it is cooked) a slice of bread and butter | a loaf of bread | white bread | brown bread burger /ˈbɜː(r)gə(r)/ Noun a burger is a piece of food made from bits of meat that are pressed flat let's make some burgers | a burger and chips | this burger tastes great carrot /ˈkærət/ Noun a carrot is a vegetable that grows under the ground and is usually orange or yellow in colour do you like carrots? | carrot soup | a kilo of carrots | raw carrots (not cooked) chicken /ˈtʃɪkɪn/ Noun uncount chicken is the meat from a bird called a hen that you eat as food a chicken sandwich | roast chicken | a bowl of chicken soup | chicken with fried rice | a cold chicken salad

chip /tʃɪp/ Noun chips are long thin pieces of potato that you fry in deep, hot oil fish and chips is a typical English dish | a portion of chips (enough for one person) | do you want chips or rice with your chicken? | my chips are cold!

euro /ˈjʊərəʊ/ Noun euros are the units of money they use in a lot of countries in Europe the book costs eight euros | a five-euro note | one euro is worth 89 pence | they use the euro in France fish /fɪʃ/ Noun a fish is an animal that lives in water. You can eat fish as food I don't like eating fish | we're having fish for lunch | are there any fish in the river?

green /griːn/ Adjective something that is green is the colour of grass. A green salad has things like lettuce in it, and looks green
a green salad | green vegetables are good for you ice cream /ˈaɪs kriːm/ Noun ice cream is a cold, sweet food, usually made from milk and sometimes with fruit, chocolate, or nuts I had ice cream for dessert | all the children want an ice cream | how can you eat ice cream in the middle of winter? | chocolate ice cream

love /lʌv/ Verb
if you love something, you like it very much Collocates: love doing something I love my job | I just love walking by the sea | I love that film | he loves his kids | everyone loves Christmas menu /ˈmenjuː/ Noun in a restaurant, the menu is the list of all the different dishes that you can have ask the waiter for another menu | can you see anything you like on the menu? | it isn't a long menu, but everything looks delicious | I always choose the first dish on the menu

© 2024 Cengage Learning Inc.

order /ˈɔː(r)də(r)/ Verb when you order in a restaurant, you tell the waiter what you want to eat and drink are you ready to order? | I can't decide what to order | you can order a burger and chips if you want | I'd like to order the soup, please ready /ˈredi/ Adjective if you are ready to do something, you are prepared and able to do it immediately

Collocates: ready to do something | ready for something are you ready to order now? | aren't you ready yet? | she is getting ready for school | I'm 18 and I'm ready to leave home

rice /raɪs/ Noun uncount rice is a food that is the white or brown seeds that grow on a sort of grass do you want rice or chips? | a bowl of rice | brown rice salad /ˈsæləd/ Noun salad is a dish of raw, cold vegetables, sometimes with cold meat or fish a chicken salad | I usually have a salad for lunch | a salad of tomatoes, onions and lettuce | this salad is delicious

table /ˈteɪb(ə)l/ Noun
a table is a piece of furniture with a flat top that you can put things on. If you ask for a table in a restaurant, you are asking if you can have a meal there can we have a table for four, please? | I want to book a table for tomorrow evening tomato /təˈmɑːtəʊ/ Noun a tomato is a red fruit that you eat as a vegetable a tin of tomatoes | a tomato salad | tomato soup | cut the tomato into slices vegetable /ˈvedʒtəb(ə)l/ Noun vegetables are plants such as cabbages or carrots or potatoes that you eat it's important to eat fresh vegetables | a greengrocer's is a shop that sells vegetables | I grow vegetables in my garden | raw vegetables (not cooked)

© 2024 Cengage Learning Inc.

3 LOVE, WANT, NEED

PAGE 25

book /bʊk/ Noun
a book is a lot of pieces of paper with writing on them that are held together inside a cover so that you can read them, one page after another

Collocates: read a book

she's reading a book | I always take a book to read on the train | my school books | a book by Joël Dicker

buy /baɪ/ Verb
if you buy something, you give someone money in order to have it

we need to buy a new car | I've got enough money to buy a new shirt | go to the shop to buy a newspaper | you can buy clothes on the internet

clothes /kləʊðz/ Noun plural clothes are pieces of material such as shirts, jackets and trousers that people wear

I like buying new clothes | a clothes shop | I'm going shopping for clothes | his clothes are old and dirty | my wardrobe is full of clothes

holiday /'hɒlɪdeɪ/ Noun a holiday is a period of time when you do not have to work or go to school. If you go on holiday, you go and stay somewhere away from where you live in order to have a nice time

Collocates: go on holiday we usually go to Spain on holiday | where are you going on holiday? | I get three weeks holiday a year | a summer holiday | a lovely holiday in Wales

hot /hɒt/ Adjective
if it is hot, the temperature is very high, for example because the sun is very strong or because you have a heater on it's very hot outside | a hot summer morning | the weather in Qatar is very hot

Opposite – Adjective: cold

it's very cold here in winter | my tea is cold hotel /həʊ'tel/ Noun a hotel is a building where you can pay to sleep in a room, for example when you are on holiday

Collocates: stay in a hotel a hotel in the middle of Paris | we are staying in a hotel near the sea | we can see the mountains from our hotel window | the hotel is full | a comfortable hotel room married /'mærid/ Adjective if you are married, you have a husband or wife

Collocates: get married

I want to get married | he's married and has three children | are you married? | he's 35 and he's still not married | we're getting married next May

Verb: marry

will you marry me?

need /niːd/ Verb
if you need something, you want it for a particular purpose

I'm really hot – I need a drink | do you need a shower? | I need £5 for my train ticket not well /nɒt 'wel/ Adjective if you are not well, you are ill and have a problem with your health if you're not well, you should stay in bed | she's not at school today because she's not well

Opposite – Adjective: well

I'm feeling very well today old /əʊld/ Adjective

something that is old is not new

an old car | the castle is very old | an old pair of shoes

Opposite – Adjective: new

a new pair of shoes

read /riːd/ Verb
if you read something, you look at words on a page or a screen and understand them

read the instructions | I'm reading a book | can you read? | read it out loud (say the words at the same time as you look at them)

room /ruːm/ Noun a room is a space in a building which has walls and a door to keep it separate from the rest of the building a comfortable hotel room | our house has four rooms downstairs | this is a big room | the room has two windows | my room is upstairs

shoe /ʃuː/ Noun
shoes are what you wear on your feet

Collocates: a pair of shoes

a new pair of shoes | a pair of brown shoes | there's a hole in my shoe | his shoes are dirty | my new shoes are uncomfortable shower /'ʃaʊə(r)/ Noun

if you have a shower, you stand under running water to wash yourself. A shower is also the place where you do this

Collocates: have a shower

I always have a shower in the morning | do you want a shower? | we're building a new shower downstairs | do you feel better after your shower?

Verb: shower

I get up at six, shower, get dressed, then go downstairs for breakfast

© 2024 Cengage Learning Inc.

very /'veri/ Adverb very means a lot
it's very hot in here | that coat is very expensive | a very interesting book | a very exciting film weather /'weðə(r)/ Noun uncount the weather is the conditions outside – rain, sun, snow, cold, etc.

the weather is very hot in August | what's the weather like today? | the weather in Bergen is always wet | they have lovely weather in Italy

Pages 26–27

bad /bæd/ Adjective something that is bad is not good and you do not like it it's an interesting job, but the money's bad (the pay isn't a lot) | I think it is a really bad film | bad behaviour (doing things that you should not do) | I have some bad news | the food isn't bad here (it's quite good) Opposite – Adjective: good it's a really good film | that's a good idea | the food here is very good cold /kəʊld/ Adjective if you are cold, you are uncomfortable because the temperature is very low put another jumper on if you're cold | you look cold – let me put the heater on | it's cold outside | I get cold waiting for the bus Opposite – Adjective: hot I'm hot – can I open the window?

country /'kʌntri/ Noun a country is an area of land that has its own government, like France, China or Brazil Russia is the biggest country in the world | there are students from 23 countries at my university | we live in the north of the country | what country are you from?

difficult /'dɪfɪk(ə)lt/ Adjective something that is difficult is not easy to do or to understand Collocates: difficult to do something maths is a difficult subject | that's a difficult question | the exam is very difficult | it is difficult to get up at five in the morning Opposite – Adjective: easy Collocates: easy to do something that's an easy question | it's easy to find a job in London

expensive /ɪk'spensɪv/ Adjective
something that is expensive costs a lot of money
an expensive watch | I like expensive clothes | it's a good restaurant, but too expensive for us | an expensive meal

father /'fɑːðə(r)/ Noun your father is the man who is your parent his father is English | my father is 48 | her father is a photographer | his father works in a factory hungry /'hʌŋgri/ Adjective

if you are hungry, you want to eat something as soon as possible I'm always hungry after I go swimming | if you're hungry, have a biscuit | what time's lunch? I'm hungry | there are two hungry children waiting for breakfast here

new /njuː/ Adjective something that is new is not old at all she's got a brand new car (very new) | a new computer game | I need a new suit for work | the car needs two new tyres Opposite – Adjective: old an old pair of shoes

nice /naɪs/ Adjective
something that is nice is pleasant and enjoyable
nice to meet you (what you say when you meet someone for the first time) | a nice house | a nice cup of tea | our neighbours are very nice people

normally /'nɔː(r)m(ə)li/ Adverb if something normally happens, it usually happens and is not surprising it's normally very hot in summer | we normally have eggs for breakfast | normally, I visit my grandmother on Sundays

old /əʊld/ Adjective
something that is old is not new
an old car | the castle is very old | an old pair of shoes
Opposite – Adjective: new
a new pair of shoes

same /seɪm/ Adjective
if two things are the same, there is no difference between them
he's in the same class as me at school | I've got the same jacket as you | his birthday is on the same day as mine | these two photos look the same | we are the same age

small /smɔːl/ Adjective
something that is small is not very big Ledbury is quite a small town | these shoes are too small for me | a small café | a small dog | the hotel is nice but the rooms are rather small

tired /'taɪə(r)d/ Adjective if you are tired, you want to sleep because of doing a lot of activity you must be tired after playing football all afternoon | I'm so tired I need to go to bed | lie down here if you're tired | you look tired

Pages 28–29

add /æd/ Verb
if you add something, you put it somewhere where there are already other things John wants to add his opinion | add another adjective to the list | add some milk to your coffee

© 2024 Cengage Learning Inc.

adjective /ˈædʒɪktɪv/ Noun an adjective is a word like sad or big, that tells you about someone or something 'nice' is a very common adjective | is 'clear' an adjective or a noun?

doctor /ˈdɒktə(r)/ Noun
a doctor is someone whose job is to look at people who are ill and tell them what medicine they need
a hospital doctor | she's studying to be a doctor | both my parents are doctors | the doctor says I must do more exercise | is there a doctor on the plane?

family /ˈfæm(ə)li/ Noun a family is a group of people who live together, for example parents and their children we want to start a family (have children) | I come from a big family | the family who live next door are very nice free time /friː ˈtaɪm/ Noun uncount your free time is the time when you do not have to work at your job or do school work

I like to go to the gym in my free time | doctors don't get much free time | how do you spend your free time? | when I have free time, I like to watch TV

happy /ˈhæpi/ Adjective if you are happy, you are very pleased and feel good you look happy today | everyone is happy when the weather is nice | a happy child | the film has a happy ending | I hope you have a happy birthday

life /laɪf/ Noun
your life is all the time that you are alive, from when you are born until you die a long life | I want to live a happy life | I'm in Scotland for the first time in my life long time /lɒŋ ˈtaɪm/ Noun a long time is many hours, days, months etc., especially when you want something to finish earlier it takes a long time to drive to Edinburgh | so, after a long time we meet again!

mobile phone /ˈməʊbaɪl ˈfəʊn/ Noun a mobile phone is a telephone that you can carry around with you you can't take your mobile phone into the exam room | please turn your mobile phones to silent (so they will not make a noise) during the concert | I need a new mobile phone

more /mɔː(r)/
I've got £10 but I need £5 more | do you want some more coffee? | there are more rooms upstairs | she earns more money than me only /ˈəʊnli/ Adverb you use only to say that a number or amount is quite small I only work two days a week | she only had £3 in her purse | there's only another four days till Christmas

place /pleɪs/ Noun
a place is a town or city, or a particular area or building in a town or city Worthing is a really boring place | what sort of place is Cardiff? | this is a good place to build a hospital | Florence is a nice place for a holiday

shopping /ˈʃɒpɪŋ/ Noun uncount
if you go shopping, you go to the shops to buy things Collocates: go shopping
I'm going shopping this afternoon | I don't like shopping | can we go shopping for clothes tomorrow?

work /wɜː(r)k/ Noun uncount work is the place where you do your job
I take the bus to work | he's still at work | she goes to work in an office

write /raɪt/ Verb
if you write, you make marks on paper to form words, or you use a keyboard to put words onto a computer screen write your name at the top | I'm writing an email to my aunt | she's learning to read and write | write down my telephone number

Pages 30–31

bag /bæg/ Noun
a bag is something that you carry things in my bag is very heavy | a plastic bag | a school bag | a shopping bag | can you carry my bag for me?

brush /brʌʃ/ Noun a brush is an object with thin, stiff pieces of plastic, wire or hair which you use to clean things or make your hair tidy a hair brush | a clothes brush | sweep the floor with a brush Verb: brush
you should brush your teeth twice a day | it takes ages to brush my hair charger /ˈtʃɑː(r)dʒə(r)/ Noun a charger is something that puts electricity back into batteries, phones, cameras, etc., so that you can use them again

a phone charger | can I borrow your charger?

coat /kəʊt/ Noun
a coat is a piece of clothing that you wear when you are outdoors to keep warm take a coat – it's cold outside | a nice warm coat | hang your coat in the hall | put your coat on dictionary /ˈdɪkʃən(ə)ri/ Noun a dictionary is a book or website or app which tells you what words mean an online dictionary (that you can see on the internet) | look it up in your dictionary | a bilingual dictionary (that tells you what a word in one language means in another language) | it takes a long time to write a dictionary | you can't take a dictionary into the exam room

© 2024 Cengage Learning Inc.

food /fuːd/ Noun uncount
food is things like bread, potatoes, meat and fish, that you eat in order to stay alive
is there any food – I'm hungry | the food in the hotel is not very good | do you like Italian food (the sort of food people eat in Italy)? | let's have some food

home /həʊm/ Noun uncount
your home is where you live Liverpool is my home | I was a guest in their home | I work at home | my home is in Wales | I'm going to stay at home tonight | what's your home address?

local /ˈləʊk(ə)l/ Adjective something that is local happens or exists inside a small area close to where you are, rather than all over the world local government (the government of a town rather than a country) | our local football team is doing very well | you must try the local food when you are in Rome | both our kids go to the local school | the local shops are very good here map /mæp/ Noun

a map is a drawing of a place such as a town, city, country, etc. which shows the streets, rivers, mountains etc.
can you show me your street on the map? | a map of Berlin | a street map of London (giving the names of all the streets) | a tourist map | can you read a map? (understand what it shows?) | the map shows how high the hills are other /ˈʌðə(r)/ Adjective other people or things are different from the ones you are already talking about bring some other shoes with you | I don't like the band, but other people do | do you have any other drinks on the menu?

pen /pen/ Noun a pen is something that has ink in it and that you use to write with in pen write your answers with a pen | can I borrow your pen? | you can use a pen or a pencil | an expensive pen | write in pen, not in pencil

read /riːd/ Verb
if you read something, you look at words on a page or a screen and understand them
read the instructions | I'm reading a book | can you read? | read it out loud (say the words at the same time as you look at them)

shoe /ʃuː/ Noun
shoes are what you wear on your feet
Collocates: a pair of shoes
a new pair of shoes | a pair of brown shoes | there's a hole in my shoe | his shoes are dirty | my new shoes are uncomfortable

soap /səʊp/ Noun uncount soap is a solid or liquid that you use when you wash yourself a bar of soap | there's some soap in the cupboard | I've got soap in my eyes toothbrush /ˈtuːθˌbrʌʃ/ Noun a toothbrush is a brush that you use to clean your teeth where's my toothbrush? | I need a new toothbrush | don't forget to take a toothbrush when you go camping toothpaste /ˈtuːθˌpeɪst/ Noun uncount toothpaste is the soft stuff that you use with a brush to clean your teeth Collocates: a tube of toothpaste you can buy toothpaste at the chemist's | is there any toothpaste in the bathroom? | a tube of toothpaste | put some toothpaste on your toothbrush

towel /ˈtaʊəl/ Noun a towel is a piece of material that you use to dry your skin, for example after swimming or after a bath dry your hands on this towel | a bath towel (a large towel) | a hand towel (a small towel) | there's a clean towel in the bathroom | leave your towel on the floor when you finish | the towel's wet

© 2024 Cengage Learning Inc.

4 WHERE AND WHEN?

PAGE 33

beach /biːtʃ/ Noun a beach is the land at the edge of the sea

Collocates: play on a beach | sit on a beach the children are playing on the beach | they want to spend the day on the beach | there are some lovely beaches near here | let's go and sit on the beach

cash /kæʃ/ Noun uncount
cash is money, in the form of coins and notes

Collocates: pay (by) cash

I haven't got any cash with me | are you paying by cash or credit card? | a cash machine (a thing in a wall in the street that gives out bank notes) | I've got to go to a bank to get some cash church /tʃɜː(r)tʃ/ Noun a church is a building where Christians go to pray (speak) to God, especially on Sundays

Collocates: a church service | go to church we go to church every Sunday | there's a church at the end of our street | a church service (a regular event at a church, usually on a Sunday) | we want to get married in a church early /ˈɜː(r)li/ Adverb if you do something early, you do it before the time that is usual or expected

I get up early on Fridays | if we get there early we can have a cup of coffee before the film starts | Jenny always arrives for school early

Adjective: early

we have an early start tomorrow film /fɪlm/ Noun a film is a story that uses moving pictures. You can watch films on television, in a cinema, or over the Internet what time does the film start? | I like watching films on TV | my favourite film is Mad Max | it's a really boring film | we're making a film about the history of our school first /fɜː(r)st/ Adjective in a race, the person who wins is the person who gets to the end first, before everyone else

Collocates: come first

Usain Bolt always comes first | I hope to come first in the race tomorrow | the person who comes first wins a prize get up /get ʌp/ Phrasal verb when you get up, you get out of bed in the morning after sleeping at night what time do you get up? | he gets up at 7.30 | I get up late on Saturdays | 5 o'clock is too early to get up!

how many /haʊ ˈmeni/ Phrase you say how many? when you are asking about the number of people or things somewhere how many brothers and sisters have you got? | he wants to know how many people are coming to dinner | how many centimetres are there in a metre?

left /left/ Noun singular
the left is one of two directions. When you write in English, you start on the left of the page

the hotel is in the next street, on the left | I prefer the one on the left | John is sitting on my left | that's my uncle on the left of the picture | stay on the left at these traffic lights

Adverb: left | Adjective: left

go down this road, then turn left | keep left at these traffic lights | I write with my left hand | her left eye is green and her right eye is blue machine /məˈʃiːn/ Noun a machine is a piece of equipment that does a particular kind of work a ticket machine (that takes money and gives you a ticket) | a coffee machine (that makes coffee) | a cash machine (a thing in a wall in the street that gives out bank notes) | a washing machine next to /ˈnekst tʊ/ Preposition if you are next to someone or something, you are close to them, and closer than anyone or anything else the hospital is next to the park | she always sits next to her grandmother | please put the book next to the others on the shelf

night /naɪt/ Noun
night is the time when it is dark, between the afternoon and the morning

Collocates: at night

I sometimes wake up in the middle of the night | the airport is closed at night | there's a good film on TV on Saturday night | he works nights (during the night rather than during the day) open /ˈəʊpən/ Adjective if a shop is open, you can go in and buy things are the shops here open on Sunday? | they're not open at lunch time | if it's still open, we can buy some bread | they stay open until 10 o'clock on Fridays

Verb: open | Opposite – Adjective: closed | Verb: close the supermarket opens at 8 in the morning | I'm afraid you're too late – we're closed | the shops are closed on Sundays | they close at 6 o'clock

phone /fəʊn/ Noun
a phone is a thing that you use to be able to talk to people who are not with you

what's her phone number? | my daughter wants a new phone | my phone doesn't work here | can I borrow your phone?

© 2024 Cengage Learning Inc.

pool /puːl/ Noun a pool, or a swimming pool, is an area of water where people can swim

Collocates: an outdoor/indoor pool | a heated pool do you prefer swimming in a pool or in the sea? | it costs £2 to go into our local swimming pool | she has a pool in her garden | the leisure centre has an indoor pool as well as a heated outdoor pool | jump into the pool

right /raɪt/ Noun singular the right is one of two directions. When you write in English, you start on the left and your writing moves towards the right of the page

there's a museum on this road, on the right | I prefer the one on the right | Alan is sitting on my right | that's my aunt on the right of the picture | stay on the right at these traffic lights

Adverb: right | Adjective: right

go down this road, then turn right | keep right at these traffic lights | I write with my right hand | her left eye is green and her right eye is blue

second /ˈsekənd/ Adjective in a race, the person who arrives after the winner and before everyone else is the person who comes second

Collocates: come second coming second is a good result | who is in second place? | I always come second, never first see /siː/ Verb

if you see a play or a film, you watch it in a theatre, a cinema, or on television

I'm going to see a film tomorrow | let's see the news on TV | do you want to see a film with me at the weekend?

station /ˈsteɪʃ(ə)n/ Noun a station is a place where trains stop to let passengers get on and get off Collocates: train station

meet me outside the station | the station is very crowded | the huge train station in Milan | can we walk to the station from here?

third /θɜː(r)d/ Adjective in a race, the person who arrives after the first two is the person who comes third

Collocates: come third

if you come third in the Olympics, you get a bronze medal | she is unhappy because she is third | in third place is the English runner

train /treɪn/ Noun
a train is a long vehicle that has wheels which run on rails (long thin metal things on the ground) and that carries passengers

Collocates: by train | take a/the train | train station where is the train station? | I go to school by train | take a train to Crewe | this train stops at Glasgow Central station | a high-speed train (that goes very fast) | you can get a train from London to Amsterdam turn off /tɜː(r)n ˈɒf/ Phrasal verb if you turn off a piece of electrical equipment, you move a switch so that it will stop working turn your phones off before the lesson starts, please | turn the light off before you go | shall I turn the TV off? | he turns off the radio before starting his homework

walk /wɔːk/ Noun
if you go for a walk, you go somewhere by putting one foot in front of the other, usually for pleasure

let's go for a walk | a walk in the park | it's a nice day for a walk | a ten-kilometre walk in the country

Verb: walk

I walk to school every morning

Pages 34–35

bank /bæŋk/ Noun a bank is a building that keeps people's money, and where you can go to get some of your money when you need it there's a bank next to the supermarket | the bank opens at 9 in the morning | she works in a bank | is there a bank near here?

called /kɔːld/ Adjective
if you are called something, that is your name. If something is called something, that is its name

my dog is called Felix | the town is called Bootle | what's your village called? | it's a place near Manchester, called Salford

Verb: call

I call my car Aggie

car park /ˈkɑː(r) pɑː(r)k// Noun a car park is a place where you can leave your car for a while the car park is full | the shop has a car park behind it | the airport car park is very big | you have to pay to use the car park cinema /ˈsɪnəmə/ Noun a cinema is a theatre where you can go and watch films there are two cinemas in my town | we go to the cinema every Thursday | it costs £12 to get into the cinema | there's a good film on at the cinema this week

clothes /kləʊðz/ Noun plural
clothes are pieces of material such as shirts, jackets and trousers that people wear

I like buying new clothes | a clothes shop | I'm going shopping for clothes | his clothes are old and dirty | my wardrobe is full of clothes

expensive /ɪkˈspensɪv/ Adjective
something that is expensive costs a lot of money

an expensive watch | I like expensive clothes | it's a good restaurant, but too expensive for us | an expensive meal

far /fɑː(r)/ Adverb
if something is far or far away, it is a long distance from you

she lives far away, in Scotland | is it far to your school? | we can walk there – it's not far

© 2024 Cengage Learning Inc.

hospital /ˈhɒspɪt(ə)l/ Noun a hospital is a place where doctors help people who are ill or hurt he's visiting his uncle in hospital | I'm going into hospital for an operation | ambulances bring people to hospital | the hospital is very busy in the winter market /ˈmɑː(r)kɪt/ Noun a market is a place outdoors in a town where people bring things to sell on a particular day. Some towns have a market once a week in the main square or just in the streets there's a market here every Wednesday | Friday is market day (the day when there is a market) | a fish market (where they sell fish) | a street market (in the streets) | the market square (the place in some towns where markets are held)

near /nɪə(r)/ Preposition
if something is near somewhere, it is only a short distance away

my grandparents live near us – in the next street | the hotel is near the beach | the restaurant is near the station | Ashford is quite near Canterbury | is there a bank near here?

need /niːd/ Verb
if you need something, you want it for a particular purpose

I'm really hot – I need a drink | do you need a shower? | I need £5 for my train ticket

park /pɑː(r)k/ Noun
a park is a big open space with trees and grass in a town or city where people can go and relax away from traffic and streets

let's go for a walk in the park | I take my sandwich and eat it in the park at lunchtime | the park closes at eight o'clock in the evening | London has several famous parks

shop /ʃɒp/ Noun
a shop is a place where you go to buy things

a clothes shop (that sells clothes) | the shop sells books and computer games | she works in a shop | shop workers | the shops close at 8 | what time do the shops open?

supermarket /ˈsuːpə(r)ˌmɑː(r)kɪt/ Noun a supermarket is a large shop which sells lots of different sorts of food and other things

I need to go to the supermarket | I do my shopping at the supermarket | a 24-hour supermarket (that stays open all the time) | he works in the local supermarket want /wɒnt/ Verb

if you want something, you do not have it but would like to have it Collocates: want to do something do you want a drink? | she wants a new car | I want to buy another jacket | he wants to become a police officer

Pages 36–37

afternoon /ˌɑːftə(r)ˈnuːn/ Noun the afternoon is the time of day between the morning and the evening

Collocates: this afternoon | tomorrow afternoon there's a football match on Saturday afternoon | I'm meeting Tim tomorrow afternoon | we spend the afternoon listening to music | what do you usually do in the afternoon?

children /ˈtʃɪldrən/ Noun a child is a young person who is not an adult yet. The plural of child is children

children are playing in the park | there are 30 children in my class at school | the children are making a lot of noise

closed /kləʊzd/ Adjective if a shop or business is closed, you cannot go in there to buy anything or do business the bank is closed on Saturday | the office is closed for the weekend | I'm afraid we're closed | the shops are closed on Sundays

Verb: close

we close at 5 o'clock | the bank is about to close company /ˈkʌmp(ə)ni/ Noun a company is a business organisation

Microsoft is a big company | she runs a small company in Paris | a company that employs 300 people | he works for a German company depend /dɪˈpend/ Verb if one thing depends on another thing, it can only happen or succeed because of the other thing

Collocates: depend on something we want to arrive by four, but it depends on the traffic | my university place depends on my exam results | the cost of the holiday depends on the hotel you choose different /ˈdɪfrənt/ Adjective if two things or people are different, they are not the same Collocates: different from something or someone

I want a different job | my brother and I go to different schools | I work for a different company now | the boys have the same colour hair but different colour eyes | his second film is very different from his first one

Noun: difference

Collocates: a difference between things there's a big difference between the two pictures evening /ˈiːvnɪŋ/ Noun the evening is the time of day when it starts to get dark, between the afternoon and the night

Collocates: this evening | tomorrow evening

let's go to the cinema this evening | spend the evening watching videos | ring me tomorrow evening | we have dinner at 7 in the evening

© 2024 Cengage Learning Inc.

free /friː/ Adjective if you have free time, or if your day is free, you can do what you want to do and do not have to go to work or school we have a free afternoon on Wednesdays | I'm busy today, but tomorrow is free | what do you do in your free time? | if you have any free time in Paris, go to the Louvre government /ˈgʌvə(r)nmənt/ Noun the government is the group of people who are in charge of a country or region

the government is spending too much money at the moment | can the government make people happier? | the local government (that works in a town or region, not the whole country) | the government building (where the people in the government work)

hours /ˈaʊə(r)z/ Noun plural
your hours are the number of hours you have to spend at work every day or every week

it takes an hour by car to get to Liverpool | the film lasts three hours | a one-hour French lesson

morning /ˈmɔː(r)nɪŋ/ Noun the morning is the time of day when it starts to get light, between the night and the afternoon

Collocates: this morning | tomorrow morning what time do you get up in the morning? | what a lovely morning! | it's very cold this morning | let's meet tomorrow morning mosque /mɒsk/ Noun a mosque is a building where Muslims go to pray (speak) to Allah there's a beautiful mosque in the town centre | you have to take off your shoes before you go into the mosque | Masjid-ul-Haram, near Mecca, is the largest mosque in the world

night /naɪt/ Noun
night is the time when it is dark, between the evening and the morning

I often wake up in the middle of the night | he works all through the night | the airport is closed at night | she works nights (during the night rather than during the day) open /ˈəʊpən/ Verb when a shop opens, people can start going in to buy things the supermarket opens at 8 in the morning | what time do you open?

Adjective: open

are the shops here open on Sunday? | they're not open at lunch time | if it's still open, we can buy some bread | they stay open until 10 o'clock on Fridays religion /rɪˈlɪdʒ(ə)n/ Noun a religion is a system of beliefs in a particular god and the activities that are connected to this belief they do not belong to any religion | you should respect all religions | religion is very important to my family | the city is home to people of different religions

Adjective: religious

a deeply religious man (who believes very strongly in his religion) | a religious leader

shopping /ˈʃɒpɪŋ/ Noun uncount
if you go shopping, you go to the shops to buy things

Collocates: go shopping

I'm going shopping this afternoon | I don't like shopping | can we go shopping for clothes tomorrow?

short /ʃɔː(r)t/ Adjective a short period of time does not last very long

we have a short weekend where I work – just Saturday afternoon and Sunday | spend a short time in the bath | a short holiday in Paris

Opposite – Adjective: long

a long weekend (Friday or Monday as well as Saturday and Sunday) study /ˈstʌdi/ Verb if you study, you read books or information on the internet to learn about things for school or university she's studying science at university | I want to study languages | I usually study for two hours in the evening | I'm studying for my music exams today /təˈdeɪ/ Adverb today is the day of the week that is now, at the present time

I have to go to work today | let's meet later today | there's more rain coming today | today is Friday | it's my birthday today tomorrow /təˈmɒrəʊ/ Adverb tomorrow is the day that comes after today let's go swimming tomorrow | it's my birthday tomorrow | tomorrow is Tuesday tradition /trəˈdɪʃ(ə)n/ Noun a tradition is a habit or way of doing things that is very old it's a tradition to have candles on a birthday cake | singing is an important tradition in Wales | our traditions are very different from theirs

Adjective: traditional

our furniture is made by hand in the traditional way | a group performing traditional Polish dances | the restaurant serves traditional Chinese dishes yesterday /ˈjestə(r)deɪ/ Adverb yesterday is the day that comes before today yesterday was Sunday | the day before yesterday

Pages 38–39

again /əˈgen/ Adverb if you do something again, you do it for a second, third, fourth, etc., time say that again? | I'm going to Paris again next week | let's watch that film again

© 2024 Cengage Learning Inc.

board /bɔː(r)d/ Noun a board is a large flat sheet of wood or plastic in a classroom where the teacher can write things or show pictures or text from a computer come and write the answer on the board | I can't see the board | look at the board and copy the words

book /bʊk/ Noun
a book is a lot of pieces of paper with writing on them that are held together inside a cover so that you can read them, one page after another

Collocates: read a book

she's reading a book | I always take a book to read on the train | my school books | a book by Joël Dicker

break /breɪk/ Noun
when you are at school, a break is a time when your lessons stop and you relax for a short time before starting lessons again break is from 10.00 till 10.20 | our lunch break | a mid-afternoon break (in the middle of the afternoon) classroom /ˈklɑːsˌruːm/ Noun a classroom is a room in a school where you have lessons it's very cold in the classroom this morning | a big classroom | where is your classroom? | my classroom is at the end of the corridor come in /kʌm ˌɪn/ Phrasal verb if someone says 'come in' they are asking you to come inside the room where they are come in and sit down | don't wait outside, come in | can I come in?

everyone else /ˈevriˌwʌn els/ Pronoun everyone else means all the people somewhere, but not you

I'm cold, but everyone else says they are warm | everyone else likes football, but I don't | is everyone else ready?

family name /ˈfæm(ə)li neɪm/ Noun your family name is the name that everyone in your family has what's your family name? | Elton John's real family name is Dwight | Jones is a very common family name in Wales floor /flɔː(r)/ Noun

a floor is a level inside a building. When you come into a building from the street, you are on the ground floor. When you go up one floor, you are on the first floor

my office is on the third floor | which floor is the classroom on? | my house has three floors front /frʌnt/ Noun singular the front is the place where everything or everyone else is behind

I always sit at the front in the cinema | the teacher sits at the front of the class | the magazine has a picture of Ronaldo on the front

get /get/ Verb
if you get something, you buy it or start to have it can I get a coffee, please? | is there somewhere I can get a drink here? | we get the same newspaper every day homework /ˈhəʊmˌwɜː(r)k/ Noun uncount homework is work for school that you do at home in the evening or at the weekend

Collocates: do your homework | set (someone) homework do your homework before dinner | we get a lot of homework | it takes him an hour to do his homework | we've got Maths homework tonight | Mr Skelton always sets us too much homework

leave /liːv/ Verb
if you leave somewhere, you go away from there

I leave work at 5 every evening | what time do you leave for school (start your journey to school in the morning)? | you're still too young to leave home (go to live somewhere away from your parents) | I leave early on Fridays

light /laɪt/ Noun a light is an object in your house that shines brightly when electricity passes through it turn the lights on – it's dark | the lights are on | turn the light off before you go upstairs play /pleɪ/ Verb

if you play a video or a piece of music, you turn on a piece of equipment so that you see the video or hear the music

play that song again | press this button to play the video | she spends the evening playing board games share /ʃeə(r)/ Verb

if you share something with someone, you both use it or have it

I share a bedroom with my sister | can I share your book? | he never shares his toys with his sister | do you want to share a taxi to the airport?

sit /sɪt/ Verb
if you sit or sit down, you rest with your weight on your bottom come in and sit down | Simon sits next to Camilla in class | she is sitting outside the café waiting for Allie | can I sit here?

start /stɑː(r)t/ Verb if something starts, it begins to happen

Collocates: start doing something | start to do something the film starts at 8 | school starts next week | I'm going to start learning German | she starts work at 9 every morning | the weather is starting to improve

Opposite – Verb: end

what time does the film end? | the story ends when the hero comes back from the war

© 2024 Cengage Learning Inc.

sure /ʃɔː(r)/ Adverb you say sure in order to agree with someone or agree with a suggestion that they make shall we go to the cinema? – sure, good idea | are you ready? – sure, let's go tablet /ˈtæblət/ Noun

a tablet is a small, flat computer that you can carry around easily. You touch the screen to make it work rather than using a separate keyboard

you cannot take your tablet into the exam room | a new tablet costs £400 | a Samsung tablet | apps that work on phones and tablets

time /taɪm/ Noun uncount
time is the number of days, hours, minutes, etc., that you can spend doing something

I don't have enough time with my family | have you got time to look at my photos? | let's spend some time together understand /ˌʌndə(r)ˈstænd/ Verb if you understand something, you know what it means or how it works can you understand Italian? | I don't understand this word | I don't understand how mobile phones work

use /juːz/ Verb
if you use something, you do something with it can I use your phone? | use this towel to dry your hair | use your dictionary to find out what the words mean | you can use the money to buy a bike word /wɜː(r)d/ Noun a word is a group of letters that have a meaning do you know the word 'believe'? | what's the French word for 'bread'? | I try to learn a new word every day | I don't understand this word

write /raɪt/ Verb
if you write, you make marks on paper to form words, or you use a keyboard to put words onto a computer screen

write your name at the top | I'm writing an email to my aunt | she's learning to read and write | write down my telephone number

young /jʌŋ/ Adjective someone who is young is not old a young child | a friendly young man | my youngest brother is six

© 2024 Cengage Learning Inc.

5 GOING PLACES

PAGE 43

card /kɑː(r)d/ Noun
a card is a small, flat object that you can use to pay for things

Collocates: credit card | bank card

you can pay by card | do you have a credit card? | it's too easy to buy things when you have a bank card

flight /flaɪt/ Noun
a flight is a journey that a plane makes

it's a ten-hour flight to San Francisco | our flight time this afternoon will be two hours and 20 minutes | we hope you enjoy the flight | you can get really cheap flights to Prague

football /ˈfʊtˌbɔːl/ Noun uncount football is a game played outdoors. Players try to kick the ball into a net at each end of the pitch (area where they are playing) a football match | Rose plays football for her school team | football fans (people who go to watch football matches) | a football pitch (the area of grass where the match happens) | he's a good football player

go out /gəʊ aʊt/ Phrasal verb if you go out, you go to somewhere like a restaurant or cinema to have a nice time

do you want to go out? | I can't afford (don't have enough money) to go out tonight | let's go out | we're going out for a meal tonight

home /həʊm/ Noun uncount
your home is where you live

Liverpool is my home | I was a guest in their home | I work at home | my home is in Wales | I'm going to stay at home tonight | what's your home address?

main /meɪn/ Adjective
the main thing in a group of things is the most important one or the one that people use the most

the main entrance is on Oxford Street | my main aim is to pass my exams | we have our main meal in the evening | the school's main building is half a mile away from here | there's a market today in the main square museum /mjuːˈziːəm/ Noun a museum is a building where people can go and look at interesting things connected with art, history, science, etc.

the Louvre is a famous museum in Paris | the Museum of Modern Art in New York | she works in the local museum | the Science Museum in London gets lots of visitors

old /əʊld/ Adjective
something that is old is not new

an old car | the castle is very old | an old pair of shoes

Opposite – Adjective: new

a new pair of shoes

pay /peɪ/ Verb
if you pay for something, you give someone money so that you can have it

Collocates: pay for something | pay by card | pay cash

I can't afford to pay that much | let me pay for the taxi | can I pay by credit card? | I always pay cash (use notes and coins, not bank cards or cheques) platform /ˈplætˌfɔː(r)m/ Noun at a railway station, the platforms are the areas next to the track, where passengers get on and off trains wait for the train on the platform | the train for Swansea goes from platform three | you have to go over the bridge to get to platform five | please keep away from the edge of the platform

play /pleɪ/ Verb
if you play a game or a sport, you take part in it shall we play cards? | he plays football on Saturdays | I'm learning to play tennis | can you play chess (do you know how to)?

noun: player

there are 11 players in a football team sleep /sliːp/ Verb

when you sleep, you rest with your eyes closed. Most people sleep for about seven or eight hours at night

I sleep eight hours a night | sleep well (what you say to someone at night when they go to bed) | I'm too worried to sleep | I can't sleep on planes

square /skweə(r)/ Noun
a square is an open area in a town or city, usually with buildings around it

Trafalgar Square in London | there's a large square in front of the cathedral | it's an old town with a large market square | let's meet in the main square at 8 o'clock | cars aren't allowed on the square in front of the station

stay /steɪ/ Verb
if you stay somewhere, you do not go anywhere else for a while. If you stay in a hotel, a campsite, etc. you live there for a while and sleep there at night

I'm staying with my brother for a few days | where do you stay when you go to New York? | stay here while I go the shops | I'm staying at home today | let's stay in tonight (stay in the house and not go out anywhere)

stop /stɒp/ Noun a stop, or a bus stop, is a place where a bus stops and waits for people to get on and off there's a bus stop outside the cinema | get off at the next stop | stay on the bus for three more stops, then get off

© 2024 Cengage Learning Inc.

ticket /ˈtɪkɪt/ Noun
a ticket is a piece of paper that you get when you pay for something like a train journey or to get into a cinema. If you have a ticket, you can go into the cinema, onto the train, etc.

a ticket for the football match between Chelsea and Arsenal | I go to the cinema on Wednesdays when the tickets are cheap | don't lose the tickets! | you can buy tickets on the internet | a ticket machine (that gives out tickets) | a ticket office (where you can buy tickets)

town /taʊn/ Noun
a town is a place with a lot buildings where people live. A town is larger than a village and smaller than a city

I live in a small town near Bratislava | Farnham is a nice town | the town centre | a busy town visit /ˈvɪzɪt/ Verb if you visit a place, you go there and spend some time there. If you visit a person, you go to where they live or work and spend some time with them a lot of people visit Stratford in the summer | we're going to visit friends in New York | my grandparents come to visit every Christmas

Noun: visit | Noun: visitor

a visit to the museum | the city gets lots of visitors wait /weɪt/ Verb

if you wait for something, you stay somewhere until it happens or arrives

Collocates: wait for something | wait to do something

the restaurant is full at the moment so we have to wait | she is waiting to buy some stamps | a long line of people waiting for tickets | can you wait outside, please?

well /wel/ Adverb
if you do something well, you are happy with it because it is good or satisfactory sleep well (what you say to someone at night when they go to bed) | she plays the piano very well | I hope you do well in your exams

Pages 44–45

art /ɑː(r)t/ Noun uncount art is things like paintings, sculptures, etc. that people enjoy looking at he's not interested in art | an art teacher | you can learn a lot about art in this museum | she's studying art at university

blue /bluː/ Adjective
if something is blue, it is the colour of the sky when there are no clouds

my front door is blue | a blue car | a bunch of blue flowers

Noun: blue

blue is my favourite colour

buy /baɪ/ Verb
if you buy something, you give someone money in order to have it

we need to buy a new car | I've got enough money to buy a new shirt | go to the shop to buy a newspaper | you can buy clothes on the internet

change /tʃeɪndʒ/ Verb
if you change buses, trains or planes, you get off one bus, train or plane and get on a different one to continue your journey you need to change trains at Crewe | change at Bristol | do I have to change buses here?

Noun: change

it's a long journey because there are two changes eat /iːt/ Verb when you eat food, you put it into your mouth and then take it down into your stomach

I eat at 12 | she doesn't eat meat | I need to eat something | what time do you eat lunch?

get /get/ Verb
if you get something, you buy it or start to have it

can I get a coffee, please? | is there somewhere I can get a drink here? | we get the same newspaper every day

get /get/ Verb
if you get somewhere, you go there and arrive

Collocates: get to somewhere to get to my house, take the number 15 bus | how long does it take to get to school? | we're waiting for Tom to get here get off /get ɒf/ Phrasal verb if you get off a bus or train, you leave it get off the train at Euston Station | take the bus towards the cathedral and get off at the museum | I want to get off at the next stop interesting /ˈɪntrəstɪŋ/ Adjective if something is interesting, you want to see more of it or know more about it she has a very interesting job | an interesting programme on TV | the book is really interesting | that's an interesting idea | it sounds like an interesting holiday | the museum is full of interesting art

line /laɪn/ Noun a line is a particular route that a train or metro follows the lines all have different colours on the map; you need the red line | there are 12 stations along this line | the line ends at Heathrow metro /ˈmetrəʊ/ Noun the metro is a railway system that is underneath some cities the Paris metro | the metro in St Petersburg is very deep | take the metro to Haymarket | how much is a metro ticket?

red /red/ Adjective something that is red is the colour of blood the traffic lights are red | a red dress | paint the walls red

Noun: red

my favourite colour is red

© 2024 Cengage Learning Inc.

take /teɪk/ Verb
if you take a train, bus, plane, etc., you go somewhere in a train, bus, plane, etc.

I usually walk or take the bus | she takes the train to work | it's raining – let's take a taxi | take the number 72 bus to Victoria Station

work /wɜː(r)k/Noun uncount

work is the place where you do your job

I take the bus to work | he's still at work | she goes to work in an office

Pages 46–47

beautiful /ˈbjuːtəf(ə)l/ Adjective something that is beautiful is very nice to look at Florence is a beautiful city | a beautiful old church | a beautiful painting | the view from the hotel window is beautiful

cash /kæʃ/ Noun uncount
cash is money, in the form of coins and notes

Collocates: pay (by) cash

I haven't got any cash with me | are you paying by cash or credit card? | a cash machine (a thing on a wall in the street that gives out bank notes) | I've got to go to a bank to get some cash

cheap /tʃiːp/ Adjective something that is cheap does not cost very much money

a cheap hotel | tickets for the concert are quite cheap | a shop selling cheap clothes | it's cheaper if you buy it on the internet

Opposite – Adjective: expensive

an expensive watch | it's a good restaurant, but too expensive for us

class /klɑːs/ Noun
on a train or plane, the most expensive seats are first class; cheaper seats are business class, standard class, second class, or economy a standard class ticket is £25 | a first class ticket to Glasgow, please | I don't have enough money to travel first class

cost /kɒst/ Verb
if something costs an amount of money, you have to pay that amount of money to buy it

Collocates: cost someone something

how much does it cost? | the holiday costs over £1,000 | it doesn't cost much | these shoes cost me £90

enter /ˈentə(r)/ Verb if you enter a password, a card number, etc., into a machine, you use buttons on the machine to say what the password or card number is enter your password now | enter your card number then press go every /ˈevri/ Determiner you use every to say how often something happens. For example, if something happens every day, it happens one day, then it happens the next day, and then the next day and so on over a million passengers use the trains every day | there's a bus every 20 minutes | we go to Italy every year | my grandmother stays with us every Christmas | I clean my garage every six weeks

help /help/ Noun
if you help someone, you do something that makes it easier for them to do something or succeed in something. What you do is called help

do you need some help? | thanks for your help | just ask for help if you need it

Verb: help

can you help me? | thank you for helping me | he's always willing to help

here /hɪə(r)/ Adverb
you use here to say where you are at the moment

the restaurant is near here | do you live here? | it's nice here

journey /ˈdʒɜː(r)ni/ Noun if you go on a journey, you travel from one place to another, usually over a long distance

Collocates: a long journey

how long does the journey take? | have a safe journey | are you tired after your long journey? | our journey begins in London and ends in Sydney

long time /lɒŋ taɪm/ Noun
a long time is many hours, days, months, etc., especially when you want something to finish earlier

it takes a long time to drive to Edinburgh | so, after a long time we meet again!

next /nekst/ Adjective the next person or thing is the one who comes after the present one who's next? | we're going to Paris next week | the next person on the list number /ˈnʌmbə(r)/ Noun

a number is a word like three, six, or nine, or a figure like 3, 6, or 9

a million is a big number | the lake is in the shape of the number seven | our house is number 21 | take the number 2 bus into Brighton

passenger /ˈpæsɪndʒə(r)/ Noun a passenger is someone who is travelling on a bus, train, plane, etc.

Collocates: rail/bus/tube/coach passengers the passengers are on the plane already | the coach can carry 60 passengers | most of the passengers get off outside the cinema | hundreds of rail passengers waiting in the station

put /pʊt/ Verb
if you put something somewhere, you take it to that place and leave it there

put your card in the machine, here | put the cheese in the fridge | where shall I put the flowers? | put the plates on the table, please

© 2024 Cengage Learning Inc.

receipt /rɪˈsiːt/ Noun a receipt is a piece of paper from a shop or an email from a shop on the internet that you get after you buy something, saying what it cost have you got a receipt and the box? | you need to keep your receipt | can I have a receipt, please? | I can't take it back because I don't have the receipt | an old-fashioned shop where they write the receipts by hand return /rɪˈtɜː(r)n/ Noun a return, or a return ticket, is a ticket to go somewhere and come back again. If the ticket does not allow you to come back, it is called a single or a single ticket it's cheaper to get a return than two singles | a return ticket to Norwich, please | a return ticket to Paris costs £159

sea /siː/ Noun the sea is the large area of water that covers a lot of the earth a house near the sea | swimming in the sea | the sea between England and France is called the English Channel | the Mediterranean Sea | cross the sea to France single /ˈsɪŋg(ə)l/ Noun a single, or a single ticket, is a ticket to go somewhere in one direction only. If the ticket allows you to come back, it is called a return, or a return ticket two singles to Leicester | it's cheaper to get a return than to get two singles | a single ticket to Dundee, please | how much is a single ticket to Geneva?

talk /tɔːk/ Verb when you talk, you speak words to someone and they say things in return

Collocates: talk to someone | talk about something he's always talking about his children | he's a nice man but he talks too much | I need to talk to you | let's talk later | he's still talking to Jeff

ticket /ˈtɪkɪt/ Noun
a ticket is a piece of paper that you get when you pay for something like a train journey or to get into a cinema. If you have a ticket, you can go into the cinema, onto the train, etc.

a ticket for the football match between Chelsea and Arsenal | I go to the cinema on Wednesdays when the tickets are cheap | don't lose the tickets! | you can buy tickets on the internet | a ticket machine (that gives out tickets) | a ticket office (where you can buy tickets)

together /təˈgeðə(r)/ Adverb
if people do something together, they do it with each other at the same time the family spends their holidays together | I make sure we all eat together in the evening | watching TV together | we need to work together

view /vjuː/ Noun the view is everything you can see from a particular place there are great views from the top of the mountain | the hotel has a view over the Mediterranean | I love the view from my bedroom window | a room with a sea view (a view over the sea) | what a lovely view which /wɪtʃ/ Determiner you use which to ask for information about a particular thing which one is your coat? This one or that one? | which platform is the one for Northampton? | which school do you go to?

you're welcome /jɔː(r) ˈwelkəm/ Phrase 'You're welcome' is a polite reply to someone after they say 'Thank you' to you Collocates: Thank you for the flowers. – You're welcome.

Pages 48–49

airport /ˈeə(r)ˌpɔː(r)t/ Noun an airport is a place where planes take off (go into the air) and land (come down onto the ground). Passengers get on and off planes at an airport

Collocates: a busy airport

we're flying to London airport tomorrow | I like to go to the airport to watch the planes | the airport employs over 2,000 people | Heathrow is a very busy airport around /əˈraʊnd/ Preposition if you go around somewhere, you go to different parts of it, but not in a direct way a walk around the old city | a trip around the Lake District | we're going around the park for an hour end /end/ Noun

the end of something is the time when it finishes or stops

Collocates: the end of something

come and see me at the end of the class | Hamlet dies at the end of the play | if you want to know what happens in the end, you'll just have to wait

Verb: end | Opposite – Noun: beginning

the film ended happily | the beginning of his career | the beginning of the film is very slow later /ˈleɪtə(r)/ Adverb if you do something later, you do not do it now but after a certain time

I'm going swimming later | what are you doing later? | can you help me with this? – yes, but not now. Later.

o'clock /əˈklɒk/ Adverb you use o'clock after numbers when you are saying the time it's seven o'clock (seven hours after midnight, or seven hours after midday) | see you at four o'clock | you must be home before nine o'clock

outside /ˌaʊtˈsaɪd/ Adverb if you are outside, you are not in a building it's raining outside | the children are playing outside | I'm going outside for a minute

Preposition: outside

I'll meet you outside the cinema at 6 o'clock | you have to wait outside the building

© 2024 Cengage Learning Inc.

party /ˈpɑː(r)ti/ Noun

a party is an event where people enjoy themselves by doing things like drinking, eating, dancing and talking to each other

the party is on Saturday | a birthday party | an invitation to a party | are you coming to the party on Saturday? | the party starts at 8 o'clock

share /ʃeə(r)/ Verb

if you share something with someone, you both use it or have it

I share a bedroom with my sister | can I share your book? | he never shares his toys with his sister | do you want to share a taxi to the airport?

stay /steɪ/ Verb

if you stay somewhere, you do not go anywhere else for a while. If you stay in a hotel, a campsite, etc., you live there for a while and sleep there at night

I'm staying with my brother for a few days | where do you stay when you go to New York? | stay here while I go the shops | I'm staying at home today | let's stay in tonight (stay in the house and not go out anywhere)

there /ðeə(r)/ Adverb

you use there to talk about a place that is not where you are now

I'll see you there in an hour | he's there already | be there at 6 o'clock | there's nobody there yet tonight /təˈnaɪt/ Adverb tonight is the night of today

I'm going to stay in tonight | what's on TV tonight? | we've got visitors tonight

© 2024 Cengage Learning Inc.

6 AWAY FROM HOME

PAGE 51

bathroom /ˈbɑːθˌruːm/ Noun a bathroom is a room in a house where you can wash and have a bath or shower

the bathroom is upstairs | my bedroom has its own small bathroom | a big bathroom | there's another bathroom downstairs

booking /ˈbʊkɪŋ/ Noun if you make a booking, you arrange to have something in the future, such as a hotel room, a table in a restaurant, etc.

Collocates: make a booking | cancel a booking can I make a booking for next Saturday, please? | I'm afraid you can't eat here tonight if you don't have a booking | if you have to cancel the booking, please let us know as soon as possible | the restaurant is very popular and booking is essential

Verb: book

book a table/seat/ticket

I'd like to book a table for four | you can book your tickets by phone or online

busy /ˈbɪzi/ Adjective if somewhere is busy, there is a lot of activity and a lot of people there. If you are busy, you have a lot of things to do and do not have any time to relax the restaurant is very busy on Friday evenings | a busy airport | a busy town centre | I am so busy I can't even stop for lunch | she is too busy to answer my email clean /kliːn/ Verb

if you clean something, you remove the dirt from it, for example by washing it you need to clean your bedroom | clean the floor | clean the windows | don't forget to clean your teeth | clean your shoes | clean the car

Adjective: clean

a clean shirt | the dishes are all clean now dinner /ˈdɪnə(r)/ Noun dinner is the meal that people eat in the evening

Collocates: have dinner | go out for dinner | have something for dinner

do you want to go out for dinner (go to a restaurant)? | we have dinner at 8 o'clock | what's for dinner (what are we going to eat)? | who's cooking dinner tonight? | we're having chicken for dinner tonight

exercise /ˈeksə(r)saɪz/ Noun uncount exercise is physical activity that helps you to stay fit and healthy

Collocates: do exercise | get exercise

I don't do a lot of exercise | you need to do some exercise | you don't get enough exercise | I play football on Sundays for the exercise | swimming is good exercise

Verb: exercise

I exercise regularly to stay fit hostel /ˈhɒst(ə)l/ Noun a hostel is a place like a cheap hotel, especially one where young people stay when they are travelling there's a good hostel in the next town | a youth hostel | the hostel is full tonight

key /kiː/ Noun
a key is a tool that you use to lock and unlock a door

I can't find my keys | a bunch of keys (a group of them together) | let's see if this key fits the lock | this is the key to my flat | put the car keys in your pocket

lift /lɪft/ Noun
a lift is a small room that people can get into, which carries them up and down a building so that they do not have to use the stairs

Collocates: take a lift | call a lift

press the button to call the lift | let's take the lift – it's a long way up to the fifth floor | the lift isn't working so we're using the stairs | the engineers are repairing the lift

modern /ˈmɒdə(r)n/ Adjective something that is modern is quite new and uses new ideas or styles

a modern building | modern furniture | modern history (the history of the world since about 1600) | the house looks very modern | modern art music /ˈmjuːzɪk/ Noun uncount music is pleasant sounds made by singing or by playing instruments like pianos, guitars, etc.

I like listening to music | she's studying music at university | rock music | classical music | pop music | can you read music (understand the special shapes on paper that describe music)?

password /ˈpɑːsˌwɜː(r)d/ Noun a password is a secret list of letters and numbers that you have to put into a computer or phone in order to be able to start using it she told me to change all my passwords | don't use the same password for every website | I can't remember my password

right /raɪt/ Noun something that is right is correct and allowed the difference between right and wrong | it's not right to throw rubbish onto the street | I want to do the right thing

© 2024 Cengage Learning Inc.

stay /steɪ/ Verb
if you stay somewhere, you do not go anywhere else for a while. If you stay in a hotel, a campsite, etc., you live there for a while and sleep there at night

I'm staying with my brother for a few days | where do you stay when you go to New York? | stay here while I go the shops | I'm staying at home today | let's stay in tonight (stay in the house and not go out anywhere)

top /tɒp/ Adjective
a top thing is the one that is the highest one out of a group of them

the top floor of a building | it's in the top drawer | my pen is in my top pocket wrong /rɒŋ/ Noun something that is wrong is not correct and not allowed the difference between right and wrong | it's wrong to throw rubbish onto the street

PAGES 52–53

bed /bed/ Noun
a bed is a soft, flat piece of furniture where you sleep at night

Collocates: in bed | go to bed

she's in bed | what time do you go to bed? | I don't want to go to bed yet | he's still in bed | a double bed (for two people)

big /bɪg/ Adjective
something that is big is very large

London is a very big city | we live in a big house | their car isn't very big dinner /'dɪnə/ Noun

dinner is the meal that people eat in the evening

Collocates: have dinner | go out for dinner | have something for dinner

do you want to go out for dinner (go to a restaurant)? | we have dinner at 8 o'clock | what's for dinner (what are we going to eat)? | who's cooking dinner tonight? | we're having chicken for dinner tonight

early /'ɜːli/ Adverb
if you do something early, you do it before the time that is usual or expected

I get up early on Fridays | if we get there early we can have a cup of coffee before the film starts | Jenny always arrives for school early

Adjective: early

we have an early start tomorrow

flight /flaɪt/ Noun
a flight is a journey that a plane makes

it's a ten hour flight to San Francisco | our flight time this afternoon will be two hours and 20 minutes | we hope you enjoy the flight | you can get really cheap flights to Prague

go out /gəʊ aʊt/ Phrasal verb
if you go out, you go to somewhere like a restaurant or cinema to have a nice time

do you want to go out? | I can't afford (don't have enough money) to go out tonight | let's go out | we're going out for a meal tonight

help /help/ Noun uncount
if you help someone, you do something that makes it easier for them to do something or succeed in something. What you do is called help

do you need some help? | thanks for your help | just ask for help if you need it

Verb: help

can you help me? | thank you for helping me | he's always willing to help

hungry /'hʌŋgri/ Adjective
if you are hungry, you want to eat something as soon as possible

I'm always hungry after I go swimming | if you're hungry, have a biscuit | what time's lunch? I'm hungry | there are two hungry children waiting for breakfast here

journey /'ʤɜːni/ Noun
if you go on a journey, you travel from one place to another, usually over a long distance

Collocates: a long journey

how long does the journey take? | have a safe journey | are you tired after your long journey? | our journey begins in London and ends in Sydney

last /lɑːst/ Adjective
last night, last week, last year, etc. is the one before the present one

I went to the cinema last night | we had a holiday in Greece last year | I was ill last week

late /leɪt/ Adverb
if you work late, you work for more hours than usual and don't finish at the normal time. If something happens late, it happens after the time it is supposed to happen or usually happens

John isn't home yet because he's working late | she gets home late when there's a lot to do at work | I get up late on Sundays

Adjective: late | Opposite – Adverb: early | Adjective: early

it's late – I must go home | hurry up or you'll be late | she always arrives early for every meeting | an early start tomorrow

no one /'nəʊ wʌn/ Pronoun no one means not one single person there's no one here who speaks German | no one can see us here | no one believes his story noise /nɔɪz/ Noun a noise is a sound that you can hear, especially a loud, unpleasant sound

Collocates: a loud noise | make a noise there is a lot of noise in the classroom | can you hear a noise? | my dog is afraid of loud noises | the car is making a strange noise | that noise is really annoying | it's hard to concentrate with all that noise

© 2024 Cengage Learning Inc.

Adjective: noisy

it's very noisy in the café | we've got noisy neighbours nowhere /ˈnəʊweə/ Adverb nowhere means not in any place there's nowhere to park the car | she has nowhere to live until Monday

party /ˈpɑːti/ Noun

a party is an event where people enjoy themselves by doing things like drinking, eating, dancing and talking to each other

the party is on Saturday | a birthday party | an invitation to a party | are you coming to the party on Saturday? | the party starts at 8 o'clock

place /pleɪs/ Noun

a place is a town or city, or a particular area or building in a town or city

Worthing is a really boring place | what sort of place is Cardiff? | this is a good place to build a hospital | Florence is a nice place for a holiday

plane /pleɪn/ Noun

a plane is a vehicle that flies in the air and carries passengers about 650 planes fly into Heathrow Airport every day | the plane carries 260 passengers | a 10-hour plane journey | a plane in the sky over the farm

problem /ˈprɒbləm/ Noun

a problem is a situation that you do not like and which is difficult to stop or change

crime is a problem in this area | you can talk to me about any problems you've got | there are traffic problems in the city centre | unemployment (when lots of people cannot get a job) is a big problem | what's the problem?

rain /reɪn/ Noun uncount rain is water that falls out of the sky in drops Collocates: heavy rain

we get a lot of rain in Scotland | three hours of rain | heavy rain | a few drops of rain

Verb: rain | Adjective: rainy

Collocates: rain heavily | rain hard it's raining heavily again | it always rains when we go to Manchester | a rainy day | it's cold and rainy outside

right /raɪt/ Adjective

something that is right is correct or true is this the right way to the cinema? | I'm sure this is the right classroom | are these shoes the right size for you? | what's 10 times 12? The right answer is 120

Opposite – Adjective: wrong

this is the wrong train! It's going to Cardiff instead of Bristol | it's a lovely dress but it's the wrong size for me | that's the wrong answer | you're wrong – it's Tuesday today, not Monday

sleep /sliːp/ Verb

when you sleep, you rest with your eyes closed. Most people sleep for about seven or eight hours at night

I sleep eight hours a night | sleep well (what you say to someone at night when they go to bed) | I'm too worried to sleep | I can't sleep on planes

tired /ˈtaɪəd/ Adjective

if you are tired, you want to sleep because of doing a lot of activity

you must be tired after playing football all afternoon | I'm so tired I need to go to bed | lie down here if you're tired | you look tired

traffic /ˈtræfɪk/ Noun uncount traffic is all the cars, vans, etc. on the road at the same time

Collocates: heavy traffic | a traffic jam | traffic lights

I'm late because of all the traffic | the traffic is moving very slowly | there's a lot of traffic in the city centre | a traffic jam (when there is so much traffic that people have to wait for long periods of time without moving) | traffic lights (red and green lights that make cars stop and then let them go in order to control the traffic)

way /weɪ/ Noun singular the way is the direction you need to go in to get somewhere Collocates: the right/wrong way we're going the wrong way | which is the way to the station? | can you tell me the way to your school? | if you lose your way, ring me

weather /ˈweðə(r)/ Noun uncount

the weather is the conditions outside – rain, sun, snow, cold, etc.

the weather is very hot in August | what's the weather like today? | the weather in Bergen is always wet | they have lovely weather in Italy

website /ˈweb,saɪt/ Noun

a website is a set of pages on the internet where you can get information about a particular subject or organisation they have a very simple website | this is a useful website for information about Australia | our website gets 2,000 visits a day | which websites do you look at most often? | can you send the URL for your website (the address, so I can find it)

work /wɜːk/ Noun uncount work is all the things you do when you have a job or when you are studying

I have a lot of work to do | she brings work home every weekend | I did a lot of work yesterday

Verb: work

Collocates: work hard

she works hard all week wrong /rɒŋ/ Adjective

something that is wrong is not correct or true

this is the wrong train! It's going to Cardiff instead of Bristol | it's a lovely dress but it's the wrong size for me | that's the wrong answer | you're wrong – it's Tuesday today, not Monday

© 2024 Cengage Learning Inc.

Opposite – Adjective: right

is this the right way to the cinema? | I'm sure this is the right classroom | are these shoes the right size for you? | what's 10 times 12? The right answer is 120

Pages 54–55

address /əˈdres/ Noun your address is the number of your house or flat and the name of the street and town where you live tell me your address and telephone number | here's my new address | what's your address?

bag /bæg/ Noun

a bag is something that you carry things in

my bag is very heavy | a plastic bag | a school bag | a shopping bag | can you carry my bag for me?

band /bænd/ Noun

a band is a group of musicians who play music together

Collocates: a rock/punk/brass/jazz band | a dance band | a live band

he plays the guitar in a rock band | there's a live band at the party (the musicians are there, not a recording of them) | the band is on tour (travelling around a country to different concerts)

best /best/ Adjective the best thing is the one you like the most and that you think is better than anything else of the same sort we're staying in the best hotel in Keswick | this is the best restaurant in the city | I think going by train is the best way to travel centre /ˈsentə/ Noun

the centre of a place is the middle of it

we live in the centre of the city | the city centre | Trafalgar Square is in the centre of London

clean /kliːn/ Adjective something that is clean does not have any dirt on it the rooms are all very clean | a clean shirt | the dishes are all clean now | are your shoes clean?

Verb: clean

you need to clean your bedroom | clean the windows | don't forget to clean your teeth | clean your shoes | clean the car forest /ˈfɒrɪst/ Noun a forest is a large area of land with a lot of trees on it a walk in the forest | a forest fire (when the trees catch fire in very hot weather) | a dense forest (where the trees are all very close together) | Sherwood Forest is near Nottingham | our journey goes through forests and over mountains

key /kiː/ Noun

a key is a tool that you use to lock and unlock a door

I can't find my keys | a bunch of keys (a group of them together) | let's see if this key fits the lock | this is the key to my flat | put the car keys in your pocket

lake /leɪk/ Noun

a lake is a large area of water, like a sea, but with land all around it

she likes swimming in the lake | the lake is very deep | we're staying in a hotel by the lake | Lake Baikal is the deepest lake in the world

lift /lɪft/ Noun

a lift is a small room that people can get into, which carries them up and down a building so that they do not have to use the stairs

Collocates: take a lift | call a lift

press the button to call the lift | let's take the lift – it's a long way up to the fifth floor | the lift isn't working so we're using the stairs | the engineers are repairing the lift

nice /naɪs/ Adjective

something that is nice is pleasant and enjoyable

that's a really nice bag | a nice house | a nice cup of tea | our neighbours are very nice people passport /ˈpɑːspɔːt/ Noun a passport is a document like a little book which says who you are and what country you are from. You need a passport in order to go from one country into another country a passport photograph (a photo of you in your passport) | his passport is out of date (it is too old) | passport control (the place at an airport where they look at your passport when you fly into a country) | are you a British passport holder (do you have a British passport)?

quiet /ˈkwaɪət/ Adjective if a place is quiet, there are not many people there and not much is happening a quiet evening at home | I go shopping on Tuesday mornings when it's quiet | a quiet village in the country | the town centre is always quiet on Sundays

saw /sɔː/ Verb

saw is the past of see. If you see something, you notice it with your eyes did you see Tom's new car? | I can't see where we are on the map | we saw lots of interesting churches in Florence | there are lots of interesting places to see in Italy

service /ˈsɜːvɪs/ Noun singular in a shop or restaurant or hotel, the service is all the things that the staff do to help the customers the service at the restaurant is very good | you don't get very good service in the other restaurant | I want to complain about the service sign /saɪn/ Verb

if you sign a letter or document, you write your name on it in order to show that you wrote it or agree with what it says. Your signature is your name written in the way that you always write it on documents they want me to sign a new contract this week | you need to sign for the delivery (to say that the delivery was made) | can you sign your name here, please?

Noun: signature

her signature is at the bottom of the letter

© 2024 Cengage Learning Inc.

stairs /steəz/ Noun plural stairs are a series of steps that you use to go from one level in a building to another

Collocates: a flight of stairs the lift isn't working so we'll have to take the stairs | walk up three flights of stairs (three levels in the building) | please don't run down the stairs | he fell down the stairs and broke his leg star /stɑː/ Noun hotels and restaurants use stars as a way of saying how good they are. A hotel with five stars is a very good hotel and probably very expensive. A hotel with one star is not very good and is probably very cheap

a five-star restaurant | we're staying in a three-star hotel in Biarritz | our hotel has four stars, and it's very comfortable tour /tʊə/ Noun a tour is a trip round a place in order to see the interesting things there we're going on a tour of the city centre | a tour round the island | a coach tour in the Lake District wifi /ˈwaɪ faɪ/ Noun uncount wifi is a way you can connect to the internet without using cables or wires there is free wifi in every hotel room | you need a password for the wifi | a wifi signal

Pages 56–57

all day /ɔːl deɪ/ Adverb if you do something all day, you don't do anything else during that day. If an event is on all day, it starts in the morning and ends in the late afternoon or evening we stayed on the beach all day | the shop is open all day today | I'm tired after working hard all day dance /dɑːns/ Verb

if you dance, you move around in time with music for pleasure she dances very well | I can't dance | would you like to dance with me?

Noun: dance | Noun: dancing

a fast and exciting dance | I don't enjoy dancing during /ˈdjʊərɪŋ/ Preposition

if something happens during a period of time or an event, it happens then, after the period of time or event starts and before it ends

I fell asleep during the afternoon | you need to concentrate during the exam | you're not allowed to eat during class

feel /fiːl/ Verb
if you are very well, you can say you feel well. You can also say things like 'I feel ill', or 'I feel fine' to say that you are ill or healthy

I felt ill during the afternoon | how are you feeling now? | I'm feeling much better, thanks

gym /ʤɪm/ Noun
a gym is a room or a building with lots of equipment for people to do exercise

Collocates: go to the gym

I always go to the gym on Thursdays | it costs more to go to the gym at weekends | I joined a gym this year | I prefer walking in the park to going to the gym

lunch /lʌnʧ/ Noun
lunch is the meal that you eat in the middle of the day

Collocates: have lunch | have something for lunch | go out for lunch

what time do you have lunch? | lunch is at 12.30 | we're having eggs for lunch | don't be late for lunch | let's go out for lunch

meet /miːt/ Verb
when you meet someone, you see them and talk to them for the first time. If you meet someone you already know, you go to a place to see them

we always meet interesting people at her parties | I'm meeting Simon for lunch | I want to meet your brother – he sounds very interesting

round /raʊnd/ Preposition if you go round a place, you go to the different parts of it to see the interesting things there a walk round the old town | let's go round the new shopping centre | we're going round the Latin Quarter in Paris

stay /steɪ/ Verb
if you stay somewhere, you do not go anywhere else for a while. If you stay in a hotel, a campsite, etc., you live there for a while and sleep there at night

I'm staying with my brother for a few days | where do you stay when you go to New York? | stay here while I go the shops | I'm staying at home today | let's stay in tonight (stay in the house and not go out anywhere)

time of day /taɪm ɒv ˈdeɪ/ Phrase the time of day refers to whether it is morning, afternoon, evening or night my favourite time of day is evening | what time of day is best for doing exercise? | early morning is the best time of day for swimming in the sea watch /wɒʧ/ Verb

if you watch something, for example TV, you use your eyes to look at it over a period of time she likes watching TV in the evenings | we watched a film last night | can I watch the news? | she watched the children swimming in the pool | let's watch the tennis at Wimbledon

well /wel/ Adverb
if you do something well, you do it in a way that you are happy about

I hope you sleep well tonight | she sings very well | I can't see very well in the dark went out /went ˈaʊt/ Phrasal verb went out is the past of go out. If you go out, you go to somewhere like a restaurant or cinema to have a nice time we went out to a restaurant last night | do you want to go out? | I can't afford (don't have enough money) to go out tonight | let's go out | we're going out for a meal tonight

© 2024 Cengage Learning Inc.

7 GOING OUT AND STAYING IN

PAGE 61

basketball /ˈbɑːskɪtˌbɔːl/ Noun uncount basketball is a game that you play indoors. Players try to throw the ball through a metal frame at each end of the court (area where they are playing the game)

Collocates: play basketball | a basketball match do you like playing basketball? | we play basketball every Friday | a basketball match | she's a good a basketball player concert /ˈkɒnsə(ː)t/ Noun a concert is a public performance in which people play music Collocates: go to a concert my mum is taking me to a concert for my birthday | a lot of people are travelling to Wembley for the big concert | I'm going to a concert on Saturday | the band is giving a concert in London | a rock concert | I've got tickets for a pop concert

dish /dɪʃ/ Noun

a dish is a kind of food that you make in a particular way a typical Italian dish | my favourite chicken dish | a delicious fish dish

dress /dres/ Noun

a dress is a piece of clothing for women or girls which has a top and a skirt joined together

she's wearing a blue dress | an expensive dress | a wedding dress (that someone wears to get married in)

exam /ɪgˈzæm/ Noun

an exam is an important test that you do at school or university

Collocates: take an exam | pass an exam | fail an exam

I'm studying for an exam | when do your exams start? | I hope you pass all your exams (succeed in all of them) | I think I'm going to fail my French exam (not succeed in it) | I have to take my exams at the end of the year | a really difficult exam favourite /ˈfeɪvərɪt/ Adjective your favourite thing or person is the one you like the most out of a group of them which is your favourite restaurant in Bristol? | who's your favourite singer? | my favourite colour is red | Jaguar is her favourite sort of car

Noun: favourite

I like lots of singers, but Ed Sheeran is my favourite half /hɑːf/ Noun

half of something is one of two equal parts that make the whole thing. If something in a shop is half price, you can buy it for just half the normal cost you can get half-price tickets before the end of May | it's £5 to go into the museum, but children only pay half

Italian /ɪˈtæliən/ Adjective something or someone that is Italian is from Italy spaghetti is an Italian dish | Italian coffee | her husband is Italian | he has an Italian passport jacket /ˈʤækɪt/ Noun

a jacket is a piece of clothing like a light coat

he's wearing black trousers and a grey jacket | it's in my jacket pocket | do you like my jacket? | take your jacket off

long /lɒŋ/ Adjective

if something is long, there is a big distance between one end of it and the other end a long dress | Watling Street is a very long road | our garden is not very wide but it's very long | a shirt with long sleeves magazine /ˌmægəˈziːn/ Noun a magazine is like a thin book with a paper cover which you can buy every week or every month do you read any fashion magazines? | a football magazine | a monthly magazine (that is published every month) | the magazine comes out every Thursday player /ˈpleɪə/ Noun

a player is someone who plays a sport she's the best player in the team | a good football player | the players are about to start the match | there are 11 players in a football team present /ˈprez(ə)nt/ Noun a present is something you give to someone, for example when it is their birthday or at Christmas

Collocates: give someone a present | a birthday/ Christmas present

I need to buy my dad a birthday present | it is a very generous present | a leaving present (a present given to someone when they leave their job) | she always gets a lot of Christmas presents | are you going to open your present?

sell /sel/ Verb

if you sell something, you give it to someone else and they give you money for it

they sell children's clothes in that shop | do you sell stamps? | I'm trying to sell my car sing /sɪŋ/ Verb

if you sing, or sing a song, you make musical sounds with your voice Collocates: sing (someone) a song please sing us a song | let's sing while we're waiting | she sings beautifully (very well) | I can't sing very well

© 2024 Cengage Learning Inc.

song /sɒŋ/ Noun a song is a piece of music with words that you can sing sitting around the fire and singing songs | a pop song | a love song | a song by Lennon and McCartney | I can remember all the words to that song sport /spɔːt/ Noun sport is games like football or basketball or tennis do you like doing sports? | I hate sport | he's watching sport on TV | sport is great fun story /ˈstɔːri/ Noun a story is a description of an event or series of events. Stories can be real or imaginary (not true) Collocates: read (someone) a story he reads the children a story every evening | a story about a man and his dog | a short story | my dad is very good at making up stories | a true story | a story with a happy ending | a bedtime story (that you read to children when they are going to bed)

team /tiːm/ Noun a team is a group of people who play a sport against another group of people in a sports event such as a football match, hockey match, etc.
who's your favourite football team? | I'm captain of the school basketball team | there are 11 players in a cricket team | my team is winning toy /tɔɪ/ Noun a toy is an object that children play with a wooden toy | the toy section of a department store | children have so many toys these days | the children are playing with their toys | a toy car | a toy shop (a shop that sells toys) try on /traɪ/ /ɒn/ Phrasal verb if you try on clothes, you put them on to see if you like them or if they are the right size, especially if you want to buy them you can try on the jeans in the changing room | here – try this one on and see if it fits | I always try on clothes before I buy them | I don't buy shoes on the internet because I can't try them on first | can I try on the next size?

Pages 62–63

art /ɑːt/ Noun uncount
art is things like paintings, sculptures, etc. that people enjoy looking at she's studying art at university | he's not interested in art | an art teacher | you can learn a lot about art in this museum Noun: artist
Picasso was a famous artist of the 20th century | she wants to be a famous artist

band /bænd/ Noun
a band is a group of musicians who play music together
Collocates: a rock/punk/brass/jazz band | a dance band | a live band
he plays the guitar in a rock band | there's a live band at the party (the musicians are there, not a recording of them) | the band is on tour (travelling around a country to different concerts)

cake /keɪk/ Noun
cake is a sweet food made with flour, eggs and sugar and sometimes also with fruit or chocolate. You cook it by baking it in an oven Collocates: make a cake a piece of cake | chocolate cake | a birthday cake | the shop sells lovely cakes | would you like some cake?

Chinese /ˌʧaɪˈniːz/ Adjective someone or something that is Chinese is from China I like Chinese food | a beautiful Chinese cupboard | she has a Chinese passport cook /kʊk/ Verb when you cook food, you get it ready to eat by making it hot cook the chicken for an hour | I cook lunch every day | we're cooking a pizza today | he likes to cook

Noun: cooking | Noun: cook
I like cooking | are you a good cook?

cooking /ˈkʊkɪŋ/ Noun uncount his cooking is always delicious | Alex loves cooking dancing /ˈdɑːnsɪŋ/ Noun dancing is the activity of moving around in time with music for pleasure we go dancing every Saturday night | do you enjoy dancing? | I'm too tired for any more dancing | dancing is fun

Verb: dance | Noun: dancer she dances very well | I can't dance | would you like to dance with me? | Jeffrey is a good dancer

design /dɪˈzaɪn/ Noun
the design of something is the way it is put together and the way that it looks the design of the phone is very simple | we're still working on the design of the new car | your shirt is a really nice design
Verb: design | Noun: designer
my friend designed this ring | Gustave Eiffel designed the Eiffel Tower | a famous dress designer drive /draɪv/ Verb

if you drive a car or other vehicle, you control it while it is moving
I want to learn to drive a car | he drives a taxi | he's 50 and he still can't drive | it will take an hour to drive to Brighton | I don't like driving in cities Noun: driver
she's a bus driver | a taxi driver | a very good driver

exercise /ˈeksə(r)saɪz/ Noun uncount
exercise is physical activity that helps you to stay fit and healthy

© 2024 Cengage Learning Inc.

Collocates: do exercise | get exercise

I don't do a lot of exercise | you need to do some exercise | you don't get enough exercise | I play football on Sundays for the exercise | swimming is good exercise

Verb: exercise

I exercise regularly to stay fit

Facebook /ˈfeɪsˌbʊk/ Noun singular Facebook is a social media website where you put information about yourself, photos, etc. so that you can share them with your friends she's one of my Facebook friends | click this link to add a photo to your Facebook page | over 90% of businesses are on Facebook

go out /gəʊ aʊt/ Phrasal verb
if you go out, you go to somewhere like a restaurant or cinema to have a nice time

do you want to go out? | I can't afford (don't have enough money) to go out tonight | let's go out | we're going out for a meal tonight

great /greɪt/ Adjective
if you refer to someone as a great player, great singer, great writer, etc., you mean that they are really very good and one of the best in the world

Gareth Bale is a great footballer | Tolstoy, Pushkin and the other great Russian writers | she's the greatest tennis player in history

gym /ʤɪm/ Noun
a gym is a room or a building with lots of equipment for people to do exercise

Collocates: go to the gym

I always go to the gym on Thursdays | it costs more to go to the gym at weekends | I joined a gym this year | I prefer walking in the park to going to the gym

internet /ˈɪntəˌnet/ Noun singular the internet is the system that connects computers all over the world and lets them share information, pictures, etc.

I use the internet all the time at work | look it up on the internet | an internet search | do you have access to the internet? (can you connect to the internet?)

look /lʊk/ Verb
if you look at someone or something, you use your eyes to see them

Collocates: look at someone or something look at the photo | look at me | I'm looking at you | don't look now | she looks at her phone every minute

Mexican /ˈmeksɪkən/ Adjective someone or something that is Mexican is from Mexico a Mexican dance | I have a Mexican friend | she has a Mexican passport modern /ˈmɒdən/ Adjective

something that is modern is quite new and uses new ideas or styles

a modern building | modern furniture | modern history (the history of the world since about 1600) | the house looks very modern | modern art

news /njuːz/ Noun singular news is information about things that have happened very recently or that are happening at the moment. The news is a programme on television or radio that regularly gives this information the news starts at ten o'clock | the radio has a news bulletin (short programme) every hour | I get my news on social media prefer /prɪˈfɜː/ Verb the person or thing you prefer is the one you want or like the most out of a group of them

Collocates: prefer something to something

do you prefer driving to cycling? | do you want some tea, or would you prefer coffee? | at school I preferred history to maths | shall we go to the theatre or the cinema – which would you prefer?

programme /ˈprəʊgræm/ Noun a programme is an individual event on radio or television a TV programme about cooking | there was a really interesting programme on the BBC last night | she makes documentary programmes for the radio | there are lots of sports programmes on TV | that's my favourite programme running /ˈrʌnɪŋ/ Noun running is an activity in which you run for pleasure, for sport, or to keep fit Collocates: go running

I go running every morning before work | running is my favourite form of exercise | I'm too tired to go running this evening series /ˈsɪəriːz/ Noun a series is several TV shows that tell a story over a period of several weeks a new series on BBC | a drama series | are you watching that series with Martin Freeman in it?

singer /ˈsɪŋə/ Noun a singer is someone who sings songs, especially someone who does this as a job

Ed Sheeran is my favourite singer | there are two singers in the band | she's a famous singer video /ˈvɪdɪəʊ/ Noun a video is a set of moving pictures that you can watch, for example on YouTube watch the video, then answer the questions | we watched videos on YouTube | a video showing you how to cook fish | a funny video

website /ˈwebˌsaɪt/ Noun
a website is a set of pages on the internet where you can get information about a particular subject or organisation

© 2024 Cengage Learning Inc.

they have a very simple website | this is a useful website for information about Australia | our website gets 2,000 visits a day | which websites do you look at most often? | can you send the URL for your website? (the address, so I can find it)

writer /ˈraɪtə/ Noun a writer is someone who writes books, or who writes for newspapers or magazines the first Russian writer to win the Nobel Prize | Dickens is a famous writer | J.K. Rowling is my favourite writer | a successful writer

Verb: write

she's writing a novel

Pages 64–65

about /əˈbaʊt/ Preposition
if a book, film, etc. is about someone or something, it talks about them or shows them as the main subject

I'm writing a book about Berlin | a film about Winston Churchill | a poem about being in love after /ˈɑːftə/ Adverb/Preposition when something happens later than something else, it happens after, or after it

I'm going to the cinema after school today | can I see you after lunch? | what are you doing after?

American /əˈmerɪkən/ Adjective someone or something that is American is from the United States who is the American president? | an American passport | his wife is American

Noun: American

the Americans love baseball at the same time /æt ðə seɪm taɪm/ Phrase if two things happen at the same time, no time passes between one event and the other you shouldn't listen to music and do your homework at the same time | there are two films I want to watch on TV but they're on at the same time

British /ˈbrɪtɪʃ/ Adjective someone or something that is British is from the United Kingdom are you British? | a British passport | he works for a British company business /ˈbɪznəs/ Noun uncount business is the work people do that involves making, selling and buying things

Collocates: on business

what business are you in? | I'm in the engineering business | we do a lot of business with a company in Portugal | she travels a lot on business (goes to different places representing her company)

called /kɔːld/ Adjective
if you are called something, that is your name. If something is called something, that is its name

my dog is called Felix | the town is called Bootle | what's your village called? | it's a place near Manchester, called Salford

Verb: call

I call my car Aggie

Egyptian /ɪˈdʒɪpʃən/ Adjective someone or something that is Egyptian is from Egypt he knows a lot about Egyptian history | a museum with a lot of Egyptian art | an Egyptian passport

Noun: Egyptian

a group of Egyptians famous /ˈfeɪməs/ Adjective if lots of people know about someone or something, that person or thing is famous the Eiffel Tower is very famous | a famous painting in the Louvre | Glastonbury is a famous music festival | a famous football player

government /ˈgʌvə(r)nmənt/ Noun
the government is the group of people who are in charge of a country or region

the government is spending too much money at the moment | can the government make people happier? | the local government (that works in a town or region, not the whole country) | the government building (where the people in the government work)

help /help/ Verb
if something helps you, it makes it easier for you to do something or succeed in something drink some warm milk – it will help you sleep | when I want to relax, listening to music helps

Noun: help

do you need help with your suitcase?

Japanese /ˌdʒæpəˈniːz/ Adjective someone or something that is Japanese is from Japan

Haruki Murakami is a famous Japanese writer | a Japanese painting | I like Japanese food | she has a Japanese passport moment /ˈməʊmənt/ Noun if you talk about something happening at the moment, you mean it is happening now but won't be happening after a while

Collocates: at the moment at the moment (now) it's 28 degrees outside | he can't drive at the moment | I'm not very well at the moment | he's out of work at the moment (doesn't have a job) | Tom's out at the moment; he'll be back at 7 | my car isn't working at the moment

nothing /ˈnʌθɪŋ/ Pronoun nothing means not anything at all there's nothing in the fridge | he has nothing to say to me | it costs nothing to walk | I have nothing in my bank account at the end of the month politics /ˈpɒlətɪks/ Noun politics is the work of getting power and running a country or a part of a country

© 2024 Cengage Learning Inc.

I'm not interested in politics | she's studying politics at university | he wants to go into politics because he wants to improve people's lives | we're always arguing about politics

Adjective: political | Noun: politician the country has political and social problems | our political system needs to change | people don't always like politicians

prison /ˈprɪzn/ Noun
a prison is a building for people who are being punished because they are criminals. Prisoners live there for months or years until the end of their punishment

Collocates: send someone to prison | be in prison | spend time in prison

I don't want to go to prison | he spent 20 years in prison for killing a policeman | he's still in prison but hopes to get out next year | if they catch you, they'll send you to prison

Noun: prisoner

a prisoner escaped last night

problem /ˈprɒbləm/ Noun
a problem is a situation that you do not like and which is difficult to stop or change

crime is a problem in this area | you can talk to me about any problems you've got | there are traffic problems in the city centre | unemployment (when lots of people cannot get a job) is a big problem | what's the problem?

really /ˈrɪəli/ Adverb you use really to emphasise what you are saying it's a really good film | I really like her | you really must stop smoking sad /sæd/ Adjective if you are sad, you feel unhappy, especially because something unpleasant has happened. A sad time, event, or story is one that makes you feel sad it was a really sad day | the film was so sad that I cried at the end | she looks very sad | I was very sad when your father died | the book has a sad ending

Spanish /ˈspænɪʃ/ Adjective someone or something that is Spanish is from Spain her husband is Spanish | I like Spanish food | a Spanish passport vegetarian /ˌvedʒəˈteəriən/ Adjective a vegetarian is someone who does not eat meat, and eats mostly vegetables. Vegetarian food is what they eat a vegetarian dish of pasta and tomatoes | they sell vegetarian food here | we have a vegetarian menu | who is having the vegetarian burger?

Noun: vegetarian are you a vegetarian?

Pages 66–67

bit /bɪt/ Noun
if you say something is a bit small, a bit cold, a bit wet, etc., you mean that it is slightly small, cold or wet

my shoes are a bit small | it's a bit cold in here now, let's shut the window | she looks a bit angry

blue /bluː/ Adjective
if something is blue, it is the colour of the sky when there are no clouds

my front door is blue | a blue car | a bunch of blue flowers

Noun: blue

blue is my favourite colour

brown /braʊn/ Adjective if something is brown, it is the colour of earth, wood, coffee, etc.

he's wearing brown shoes | a brown carpet | her eyes are brown cheap /ʧiːp/ Adjective

something that is cheap does not cost very much money

a cheap hotel | tickets for the concert are quite cheap | a shop selling cheap clothes | it's cheaper if you buy it on the internet

Opposite – Adjective: expensive

an expensive watch | it's a good restaurant, but too expensive for us

coat /kəʊt/ Noun
a coat is a piece of clothing that you wear when you are outdoors to keep warm

take a coat – it's cold outside | a nice warm coat | hang your coat in the hall | put your coat on

colour /ˈkʌlə/ Noun red, green, blue, yellow, orange, white, pink, etc. are all colours

what colour is your bike? | the walls are a really nice colour | my favourite colour is yellow | the photos in this book are all in black and white, not in colour comfortable /ˈkʌmfətəbl/ Adjective something that is comfortable makes you feel relaxed and happy and is pleasant to be in or sit in these shoes feel very comfortable | a comfortable armchair | our new sofa's really comfortable | are you comfortable sitting there? | the bed was old and I couldn't get comfortable in it

Noun: comfort | Opposite – Adjective: uncomfortable lie back and relax in comfort | these shoes are really uncomfortable

design /dɪˈzaɪn/ Noun
the design of something is the way it is put together and the way that it looks

the design of the phone is very simple | we're still working on the design of the new car | your shirt is a really nice design

Verb: design | Noun: designer

my friend designed this ring | Gustave Eiffel designed the Eiffel Tower | a famous dress designer

dress /dres/ Noun
a dress is a piece of clothing for women or girls which has a top and a skirt joined together

she's wearing a blue dress | an expensive dress | a wedding dress (that someone wears to get married in)

© 2024 Cengage Learning Inc.

extra /'ekstrə/ Adverb something that is extra-large, extra-small, etc. is very large, very small, etc.

an extra-large T-shirt | an extra-small pair of jeans

feel /fiːl/ Verb
if something feels warm, comfortable, soft, etc., that is what you think about it when you are touching it or wearing it these shoes feel very comfortable | the sheets feel very cold | the cat's fur feels lovely and soft floor /flɔː/ Noun

a floor is a level inside a building. When you come into a building from the street, you are on the ground floor. When you go up one floor, you are on the first floor

my office is on the third floor | which floor is the classroom on? | my house has three floors

green /griːn/ Adjective
something that is green is the colour of grass. A green salad has things like lettuce in it, and looks green

a green salad | green vegetables are good for you

jacket /'ʤækɪt/ Noun
a jacket is a piece of clothing like a light coat

he's wearing black trousers and a grey jacket | it's in my jacket pocket | do you like my jacket? | take your jacket off

jeans /ʤiːnz/ Noun jeans are blue trousers made of strong material called denim

Collocates: a pair of jeans a pair of jeans | she's wearing jeans and a T-shirt | I need some new jeans | do you like my jeans?

look /lʊk/ Verb
if something looks good, looks interesting, looks nice, etc., that is what you think when you see it that chair looks very comfortable | you look nice in that suit | the town looks very sad in the rain

look /lʊk/ Verb
when you are in a shop but are not ready to buy anything yet, you say you are just looking

Can I help you? – No thanks, I'm just looking off /ɒf/ Adverb

if a price has a certain amount off, it becomes cheaper by that amount

I'll let you have ten pounds off, so you can have it for £70 instead of £80 | they're selling shoes with 25% off

percent /pə'sent/ Noun percent is used to refer to amounts. For example ten percent of something is one of ten equal parts of it, and the whole thing is 100 percent. So ten percent of 250 is 25. We often use the symbol % instead of the word percent over 70 percent of the population live in cities | a 3% pay increase | 12 percent of our students come from other countries present /'prez(ə)nt/ Noun

a present is something you give to someone, for example when it is their birthday or at Christmas

Collocates: give someone a present | a birthday/ Christmas present

I need to buy my dad a birthday present | it is a very generous present | a leaving present (a present given to someone when they leave their job) | she always gets a lot of Christmas presents | are you going to open your present?

size /saɪz/ Noun the size of something is how big or small it is. If clothes are your size, they fit you. If they are the wrong size, they are too big or too small and do not fit you

Collocates: his/your/my etc. size | the wrong size | the right size

it's a nice dress but it's the wrong size for me | what size shoes do you take? | they didn't have my size | I can't find any jeans the right size

small /smɔːl/ Adjective
something that is small is not very big

Ledbury is quite a small town | these shoes are too small for me | a small café | a small dog | the hotel is nice but the rooms are rather small

sure /ʃʊə/ Adjective if you are sure about something, you are certain that you know what you think about it they're comfortable, but I'm not sure about the colour (I don't know if I like the colour) | I'm sure my wallet is in my jacket | are you sure it's Thursday today?

T-shirt /'tiːʃɜːt/ Noun a T-shirt is a shirt with short sleeves and no buttons down the front she's wearing a T-shirt and jeans | a white T-shirt | you can't wear a T-shirt to school | my T-shirts need washing think /θɪŋk/ Verb

if you ask someone what they think of something, you want to know their opinion about it, for example if they like it or not what do you think about my new shirt? | my mum thinks it's really fashionable | do you think these trousers look all right with this shirt?

top /tɒp/ Adjective
a top thing is the one that is the highest one out of a group of them

the top floor of a building | it's in the top drawer | my pen is in my top pocket

white /waɪt/ Adjective if something is white, it is the colour of snow a white T-shirt | we're painting the walls white | her hair is white yellow /'jeləʊ/ Adjective if something is yellow, it is the colour of the sun a yellow T-shirt | a yellow sports car | our front door is yellow

© 2024 Cengage Learning Inc.

8 HERE AND THERE

PAGE 69

carpet /ˈkɑːpɪt/ Noun
a carpet is a large piece of material that covers a floor

there's a blue carpet on the floor | don't spill your coffee on the carpet! | they make beautiful carpets in India

chair /ʧeə/ Noun
a chair is a piece of furniture that you sit on a table and chairs | this chair is broken | an uncomfortable chair | we need another chair in here

dish /dɪʃ/ Noun
a dish is a plate, cup, bowl, etc. that you use during a meal. After the meal, you wash the dishes

Collocates: wash the dishes | do the dishes | dirty dishes

it's your turn to wash the dishes | put the dirty dishes in the kitchen | a pile of dishes | let's do the dishes later - I want to watch TV now

draw /drɔː/ Verb
if you draw something or someone, you make a picture of them using a pencil or pen

I like drawing dogs | can you draw a picture of your house? | he can't draw very well | she wants to learn how to draw

Noun: drawing

a nice drawing of the church factory /ˈfækt(ə)ri/ Noun a factory is a big building where people make things such as cars and machines my dad works in a factory | I'm going to get a job in a factory | a car factory | a shoe factory | the factory employs 200 people

fridge /frɪʤ/ Noun
a fridge is a large piece of kitchen equipment which keeps food at a low temperature so that it will stay fresh for longer

put the butter back in the fridge | I never keep eggs in the fridge | there's a full bottle of milk in the fridge | we have a fridge in the kitchen and another in the garage

glasses /ˈglɑːsɪz/ Noun plural glasses are two pieces of glass that you wear on your face to help you see things better

a pair of glasses | I wear glasses for reading | these glasses are very expensive | my glasses are broken hard /hɑːd/ Adverb

if you work hard, you spend a lot of time and energy working. If you do something else hard, you use a lot of energy or power

I'm working very hard at school | you must try harder | he hit me really hard

key /kiː/ Noun
a key is a tool that you use to lock and unlock a door

I can't find my keys | a bunch of keys (a group of them together) | let's see if this key fits the lock | this is the key to my flat | put the car keys in your pocket

law /lɔː/ Noun the law is all the official rules that people in a country have to obey

Collocates: against the law | break the law the law doesn't allow you to carry a gun in public | it's against the law (not allowed) to sell cigarettes to children | if you break the law (do something that is not allowed) you can go to prison

leave /liːv/ Verb
if you leave something somewhere, you forget to take it with you when you go away from there

did you leave your keys in the car? | I left my homework on the bus | she's always leaving her phone in the café

lost /lɒst/ Adjective
if something is lost, you do not know where it is. If you are lost, you do not know where you are when you are trying to go somewhere

Collocates: get lost

it's easy to get lost in the streets of Hong Kong | the picture got lost when we moved house | a lost pen picture /ˈpɪkʧə/ Noun a picture is a drawing or painting or photo of someone or something Collocates: a picture of someone or something

I'm painting a picture of our house | there's a nice picture on the wall | a picture book (with pictures rather than words) | she's drawing a picture of the garden remember /rɪˈmembə(r)/ Verb if you remember someone or something, they are still in your mind and you can talk about them or repeat them he can remember the whole poem | what do you remember from the history lesson? | can you remember the address? | I don't remember my grandfather | I can't remember where she lives

Opposite – Verb: forget

don't forget to lock the door | did you forget my birthday again? | she's always forgetting her phone similar /ˈsɪmɪlə/ Adjective if two things or people are similar, their appearance is almost the same the two brothers look very similar | his car is very similar to mine | a similar computer costs a lot less in the US

sink /sɪŋk/ Noun
a sink is the thing in a kitchen that you can fill with water and use for washing things

© 2024 Cengage Learning Inc.

the kitchen sink is very dirty | put the dishes in the sink | the soap is in the cupboard under the sink | fill the sink with warm water | the sink's blocked (water won't flow out of it properly) wear /weə/ Verb

if you wear clothes, they are covering your body. If you wear glasses, they are on your face, resting on your nose

I wear glasses for reading | he's wearing a hat and coat | I don't know what to wear to the concert

work /wɜːk/ Verb
if a machine, car, etc. is working, it does what it is supposed to do properly. If it stops working, there is something wrong with it and it does not do what it is supposed to do my printer isn't working | the ticket machine isn't working so I can't buy a ticket | why has the computer stopped working?

Pages 70–71

call /kɔːl/ Verb
if you call someone, you make contact with them by telephone

I called my mum, but she didn't answer | call me tomorrow after school | I'll call you this evening | can I call you back later? | don't call me when I'm at work client /ˈklaɪənt/ Noun a client is a person who is paying someone such as a lawyer or accountant for their professional service a meeting with some important clients | Diane's visiting a client | I have an appointment with a client at three o'clock | his clients include a number of famous actors

come /kʌm/ Verb
if someone comes somewhere, they move to the place where you are

Ken's not coming today | she can't come to the meeting | my grandparents are coming to visit us this weekend | can you come to my party on Saturday?

get /get/ Verb
if you get something, you start to have it can I get a coffee, please? | is there somewhere I can get a drink here? | we get the same newspaper every day | I want to get a new job | let's get something to eat before we go home

list /lɪst/ Noun a list is a number of words or names that you write down one below the other make a list of things you need to do | what's the first item on the list? | a long list of names | put butter on the shopping list

long /lɒŋ/ Adjective
if something is long, there is a big distance between one end of it and the other end

a long dress | it's a long way to Edinburgh | she is tired after her long journey | Watling Street is a very long road | our garden is not very wide but it's very long | a shirt with long sleeves message /ˈlɪvɪŋ ruːm/ Noun a message is something you send to someone containing information, a question, etc.

Collocates: send someone a message | get a message | receive a message

I sent him a message asking him to come home | a message from Guy saying he's coming to London next week | did you get my message? | Alec isn't in the office today. Do you want to leave a message?

say /seɪ/ Verb
if you say something, you use your voice to produce words that people can hear and understand say your name | she says it is cold in here | my sister says you are nice | say hello to your family from me

send /send/ Verb
if you send something somewhere, you get someone to take it there for you. For example, if you send a letter or parcel, you pay a delivery service to take it somewhere for you. If you send an email or text message, you use a computer or mobile phone to make it go to someone else

Collocates: send something to someone | send someone something go to the post office to send a parcel | send me an email with the information | I'll send you a text when I get to the airport | I want to send this to Germany | I sent a letter to my aunt travel /ˈtrævl/ Verb if you travel, you go from one place to another, usually over a long distance

I want to travel around the world | we travelled for six hours and still didn't get home | I try to travel light (not carrying lots of bags) | we travelled to Thailand last year | he has to travel a lot for his job

Noun: traveller

bad weather means travellers cannot leave the airport | business travellers (people who are travelling somewhere for their job) | a hotel that is popular with travellers way /weɪ/ Noun the way is the direction you need to go in to get somewhere or the paths and roads you go along

Collocates: the right way | the wrong way it's a long way to Edinburgh | we're going the wrong way | which is the way to the station? | can you tell me the way to your school? | if you lose your way, ring me

Pages 72–73

bag /bæg/ Noun
a bag is something that you carry things in

my bag is very heavy | a plastic bag | a school bag | a shopping bag | can you carry my bag for me?

bathroom /ˈbɑːθruː(ː)m/ Noun
a bathroom is a room in a house where you can wash and have a bath or shower

the bathroom is upstairs | my bedroom has its own small bathroom | a big bathroom | there's another bathroom downstairs

© 2024 Cengage Learning Inc.

bed /bed/ Noun
a bed is a soft, flat piece of furniture where you sleep at night

Collocates: in bed | go to bed

she's in bed | what time do you go to bed? | I don't want to go to bed yet | he's still in bed | a double bed (for two people)

bedroom /ˈbedru(ː)m/ Noun a bedroom is a room with a bed in it where you sleep at night

I share a bedroom with my brother | a big bedroom | a three-bedroom house | his bedroom is upstairs card /kɑːd/ Noun

a card is a small, flat object that you can use to pay for things

Collocates: credit card | bank card

you can pay by card | do you have a credit card? | it's too easy to buy things when you have a bank card

carpet /ˈkɑːpɪt/ Noun
a carpet is a large piece of material that covers a floor

there's a blue carpet on the floor | don't spill your coffee on the carpet! | they make beautiful carpets in India

chair /ʧeə/ Noun
a chair is a piece of furniture that you sit on

a table and chairs | this chair is broken | an uncomfortable chair | we need another chair in here

cupboard /ˈkʌpəd/ Noun
a cupboard is a piece of furniture with a door and shelves, where you can keep things

put it back in the cupboard | a cupboard under the sink | the plates are in the cupboard | a kitchen cupboard | she keeps her shoes in a cupboard

fridge /frɪʤ/ Noun
a fridge is a large piece of kitchen equipment which keeps food at a low temperature so that it will stay fresh for longer

put the butter back in the fridge | I never keep eggs in the fridge | there's a full bottle of milk in the fridge | we have a fridge in the kitchen and another in the garage

glasses /ˈglɑːsɪz/ Noun plural
glasses are two pieces of glass that you wear on your face to help you see things better

a pair of glasses | I wear glasses for reading | these glasses are very expensive | my glasses are broken

kitchen /ˈkɪʧɪn/ Noun a kitchen is a room where people prepare and cook food for eating we usually have breakfast in the kitchen | the kitchen gets very hot in summer | the kitchen sink | a kitchen cupboard | we spend a lot of time in the kitchen left /left/ Verb left is the past of leave. If you leave something somewhere, you forget to take it with you when you go away from there

did you leave your keys in the car? | I left my homework on the bus | she's always leaving her phone in the café

living room /ˈlɪvɪŋ ruːm/ Noun the living room is the room in a house where people spend most of their time when they are awake, reading, watching TV, playing computer games, etc.

come into the living room | there are two sofas in the living room | it's nice and warm in the living room | we spend our evenings in the living room parent /ˈpeərənt/ Noun your parents are your father and mother my parents are both teachers | Luca's parents are from Italy | he's 30 but he still lives with his parents (in the same house) | come and meet my parents

saw /sɔː/ Verb
saw is the past of see. If you see something, you notice it with your eyes

did you see Tom's new car? | I can't see where we are on the map | we saw lots of interesting churches in Florence | there are lots of interesting places to see in Italy shelf /ʃelf/ Noun

a shelf is a flat piece of wood or metal attached to a wall or in a cupboard, which you can put things on

Collocates: the top shelf | the bottom shelf the batteries are on the bottom shelf | the shelves are full of tins of food | there are some towels on the top shelf in the bathroom | I need more shelves for my books shower /ˈʃaʊə/ Noun

if you have a shower, you stand under running water to wash yourself. A shower is also the place where you do this

Collocates: have a shower

I always have a shower in the morning | open the window in the shower | we're building a new shower downstairs | do you feel better after your shower?

sink /sɪŋk/ Noun
a sink is the thing in a kitchen that you can fill with water and use for washing things

the kitchen sink is very dirty | put the dishes in the sink | the soap is in the cupboard under the sink | fill the sink with warm water | the sink's blocked (water won't flow out of it properly)

sofa /ˈsəʊfə/ Noun a sofa is a long, soft chair that two or more people can sit on at the same time there's a big sofa in the living room | sit down on the sofa | we need to buy a new sofa | she's lying on the sofa for a few minutes | a comfortable sofa

table /ˈteɪbl/ Noun
a table is a piece of furniture with a flat top that you can put things on. If you ask for a table in a restaurant, you are asking if you can have a meal there can we have a table for four please? | I want to book a table for tomorrow evening, please

© 2024 Cengage Learning Inc.

PAGES 74–75

anyone /'eniˌwʌn/ Pronoun you use anyone in negative sentences and in questions instead of someone

I can't see anyone at the bus stop | is there anyone at home? | I work at home and don't see anyone all day long because /bɪ'kɒz/ Conjunction you use because when you are giving the reason for something

I like him because he's very funny | I don't want to walk to the cinema because it's too far | I can't ring her because my phone isn't working | I'm not going out tonight because I've got too much homework

change /tʃeɪndʒ/ Verb
if something changes, or if someone changes it, it stops being one thing and starts being a different thing

the weather suddenly changed from sunshine to rain | I need to change the battery in my phone (stop using the old one and start using a different one) | everything is changing in our family company /'kʌmpəni/ Noun

a company is a business organisation

Microsoft is a big company | she runs a small company in Paris | a company that employs 300 people | he works for a German company

design /dɪ'zaɪn/ Verb if you design something, you have the idea for it and decide what it will look like and how it should be made

Gustave Eiffel designed the Eiffel Tower | I design websites as a job | my friend designed this ring | the dress was designed by Zandra Rhodes | who designs your websites?

Noun: designer | Noun: design a famous dress designer | the design of the phone is very simple designer /dɪ'zaɪnə(r)/ Noun a designer is someone who decides what something should look like and draws it so that other people can make it she's a website designer for a big newspaper | there are three designers in our studio | I want to go to art school and become a designer | a clothes designer | she works as a designer for a clothes company

Verb: design | Noun: design

I designed the house myself | who designed the iPhone? | I like the design of the new Lexus

draw /drɔː/ Verb
if you draw something or someone, you make a picture of them using a pencil or pen

I like drawing dogs | can you draw a picture of your house? | he can't draw very well | she wants to learn how to draw

Noun: drawing

a nice drawing of the church

fast /fɑːst/ Adverb if you do something fast, you do it at great speed

she can run very fast | he always drives too fast | how fast can you swim 100 metres? | his car can go much faster than mine

Adjective: fast | Opposite – Adverb: slowly | Adjective: slow

a fast train (that travels fast and does not stop very often) | he's a very fast driver | walk slowly towards the door | can you speak more slowly, please? | a slow train | the traffic is very slow today few /fjuː/ Pronoun a few is a small number of the sort of people or things that you are talking about most of our employees work in the office but a few work from home | my colleagues are mostly British but a few come from Spain | I've got lots of holiday photos but only a few are any good

grow /grəʊ/ Verb
if a number grows, it gets bigger and bigger over time. If a company grows, it develops and gets bigger and makes more things and earns more money the number of social media sites is still growing | a growing number of people work from home | business is growing | the company just grew and grew

Noun: growth

the company wants more growth next year

half /hɑːf/ Noun
half of something is one of two equal parts that make the whole thing he spends half the year in Florida | half the pupils in my schools are girls and half are boys | there's half a pizza in the fridge | I'm growing vegetables in one half of the garden manage /'mænɪdʒ/ Verb if you manage a business, a department, etc., you are in charge of it and tell everybody what they have to do she manages of team of six website designers | it's important to know how to manage people | who is going to manage the new project?

Noun: manager

I want to become a store manager | he's a sales manager for a car company | to be successful, managers need to be good at listening million /'mɪljən/ Noun a million is the number 1,000,000 the World Cup prize is thirty million dollars | a house that costs a million pounds | the population of the UK is about sixty-five million

move /muːv/ Verb
if you move, or move house, you go and live in a different place

Collocates: move house

we're moving house next week | my parents want to move to Cornwall | I lived in Gas Street when I first moved here | I hate this house, but I can't afford to move

© 2024 Cengage Learning Inc.

own /əʊn/ Adjective if something is your own thing, it belongs to you or is connected only to you and to no one else

I want to start my own business when I'm older | they went back to their own homes after the war | I want to sleep in my own bed tonight | it was all my own work (nobody helped me with it) professional /prəˈfeʃ(ə)nəl/ Adjective someone who is professional gets money for doing a particular activity as a job a professional musician | she wants to become a professional photographer | a professional baseball player

Noun: professional

a young medical professional (someone who works as a doctor) project manager /ˈprɒʤekt ˈmænɪʤə/ Noun a project is a big piece of work that involves a team of people working over a long period of time. The person who makes sure everything happens at the right time is the project manager

he's trying to get a job as a project manager | the project manager is arranging a meeting for tomorrow | an email from the project manager to all team members runner /ˈrʌnə/ Noun a runner is someone who takes part in a running race, or who runs for pleasure the London Marathon has more than 50,000 runners | Jesse Owens is a famous runner from the 1930s | the runners are getting ready for the big race

Verb: run

she runs in the London Marathon every year | how fast can you run 800 metres?

sell /sel/ Verb
if you sell something, you give it to someone else and they give you money for it

they sell children's clothes in that shop | do you sell stamps? | I'm trying to sell my car

space /speɪs/ Noun uncount space is an area where you can put something, do something, or keep something we need more space for new employees | there'll be more space for people when they stop cars coming into the city centre | we want a bigger house with more space in the garden | we don't have enough space for two cars in the garage | is there space for another fridge in the kitchen?

too /tuː/ Adverb you use too to say that something happens as well as something else

I'm going to France next week and my brother is coming, too | John lives in Basingstoke and we live there, too | I usually work in the kitchen and sometimes my husband works there, too

website /ˈwebˌsaɪt/ Noun
a website is a set of pages on the internet where you can get information about a particular subject or organisation

they have a very simple website | this is a useful website for information about Australia | our website gets 2,000 visits a day | which websites do you look at most often? | can you send the URL for your website (the address, so I can find it)

worker /ˈwɜː(r)kə(r)/ Noun a worker is someone who has a job and is paid by an employer the company provides training for the workers | workers are demanding higher wages | factory workers | farm workers | blue-collar workers (who work in factories doing work with their hands) | white-collar workers (who work in offices) | home workers (who do their job in their own home rather than in their employer's office)

Verb: work | Noun: work

she works for a mobile phone company | my dad doesn't work any more – he's retired | she's still looking for work (looking for a job) | he's been out of work for three months (without a job)

© 2024 Cengage Learning Inc.

9 HEALTHY AND HAPPY

PAGE 79

air /eə(r)/ Noun uncount air is the gas that is all around us and that we breathe. If you talk about fresh air, you are talking about being outside in nature rather than in a building

I liked being out in the fresh air | it's very hot in here – can you open the window and let some air in? | there was a smell of flowers in the air

army /ˈɑː(r)mi/ Noun
a country's army is all the soldiers whose job is to fight when there is a war

to join the army | she spent two years in the army | he was wearing his army uniform | an army base (a place where soldiers live and work) | an army officer broke /brəʊk/ Verb broke is the past of break. If you break a bone in your body, you damage it very badly

Simpson broke his knee | she broke a leg skiing | Walter had to go to hospital when he broke his arm conference /ˈkɒnf(ə)rəns/ Noun a conference is a big meeting that involves lots of people talking about a particular subject there are 1,200 people at the conference | I'm organising a conference for teachers of English | a conference delegate (someone who is at a conference)

countryside /ˈkʌntriˌsaɪd/ Noun uncount
the countryside is land that is not in a city or town and where there are not many buildings

Collocates: open countryside

some beautiful open countryside (countryside where you can see things like rivers and trees and not buildings or roads) | sitting on the train watching the countryside go by | the countryside around Amberley is beautiful

education /ˌedjʊˈkeɪʃ(ə)n/ Noun uncount your education is the process of learning things that you go through at school

my parents want me to have a good education | education is very important | they need to improve education and build more schools | the government spends billions of pounds on education | a private education (at a school where parents have to pay)

hurt /hɜː(r)t/ Verb
if part of your body hurts, or if something hurts you, you feel pain there my knee really hurts | stop hitting me – it hurts | it hurts when I try and stand on that foot | my neck is still hurting | I hurt my hand playing tennis

Adjective: hurt

he was badly hurt when he fell off his bike lamb /læm/ Noun

a lamb is a young sheep, and lamb is the meat you get from young sheep

a shoulder of lamb | roast leg of lamb | would you prefer lamb or beef? | lamb with cabbage and new potatoes

leg /leg/ Noun your legs are the two long parts of your body which have your feet at the end and your knees in the middle. Lots of animals have four legs, two at the front and two at the back

I hurt my leg | my left leg is one centimetre longer than my right leg | she broke her leg in the accident | a dog with very short legs

operation /ˌɒpəˈreɪʃ(ə)n/ Noun
if someone has an operation, doctors cut into their body in order to repair it or take something out

Collocates: have an operation

he had an operation on his knee | a minor operation (not very serious) | she needs an emergency operation | a heart operation | a successful operation

Verb: operate

Collocates: operate on someone

they're going to operate on her this afternoon | if we don't operate immediately, it will be too late

safe /seɪf/ Adjective
something that is safe is not dangerous and will not hurt people or do any damage

Collocates: safe to do something

it's a safe area – I walk everywhere, even at night | is it safe to ride a bike on the streets here? | I don't feel safe on my own in a foreign city | it's safe to swim in the sea here

Adverb: safely | Noun: safety

drive safely | we swam across the river safely | we need to improve safety in the factory | road safety

sheep /ʃiːp/ Noun a sheep is an animal with a wool coat and four legs. Sheep provide wool and meat, which is called lamb. The word sheep is used as the singular and also as the plural: one sheep, two sheep

we saw a lot of sheep in Ireland | a field full of sheep | can you see the sheep up on the hill? | a sheep farmer | a flock of sheep (a group of sheep together) snow /snəʊ/ Noun uncount snow is very cold, white rain that falls from the sky and lies on the ground

Collocates: heavy snow | fresh snow the garden is covered in fresh snow | there was heavy snow last night | it's unusual to have snow in April | the airport is closed because of snow | walking through deep snow

© 2024 Cengage Learning Inc.

Verb: snow

it's snowing

together /təˈgeðə(r)/ Adverb
if people do something together, they do it with each other at the same time

the family spends their holidays together | I make sure we all eat together in the evening | watching TV together | we need to work together

war /wɔː(r)/ Noun
when there is a war, countries fight against each other using their army, navy, air force, etc.

Collocates: declare war | be at war

my grandfather was in the Second World War | the two countries are still at war | war broke out (started) again a year later | on 3 September 1939, Britain declared war on Germany (said that they were going to fight a war)

World Cup /wɜːld ˈkʌp/ Noun the World Cup is a big football competition every four years

England won the World Cup in 1966 | tickets for the World Cup final are expensive | France were the winners of the 2018 World Cup in Russia

Pages 80–81

ago /əˈgəʊ/ Adverb you use ago to say how long it is since something happened we got married three years ago | John went to Paris a week ago | her father died two months ago back /bæk/ Noun your back is the part of your body, between your neck and the top of your legs, that is behind you (on the opposite side of your body from your face) my back hurts | he fell on his back | he hurt his back moving the desk | I've got terrible back pain

better /ˈbetə(r)/ Adjective if you feel better, you feel well again after being ill, or you start to feel happy and relaxed after working hard or being in a difficult situation

Collocates: feel better | get better

I'll feel better after a cup of tea | don't come back to work until you're feeling better | he's feeling much better after his holiday | you won't get better unless you take the medicine

bit /bɪt/ Noun
if you say something is a bit small, a bit cold, a bit better, etc., you mean that it is slightly small, cold or better

my shoes are a bit small | it's a bit cold in here now, let's shut the window | she looks a bit angry

cold /kəʊld/ Noun a cold is an illness (not a serious illness). When you have a cold, it's difficult to breathe easily through your nose and you sneeze a lot

Collocates: have a cold | catch/get a cold | a bad cold | a heavy cold

I have a bad cold and can't go to school | you'll catch a cold (start to have a cold) if you stay outside in the rain | he's in bed with a heavy cold | I think I'm getting a cold

cut /kʌt/ Verb
if you cut something, you break the surface of it using a knife or other sharp object

she cut her finger on a piece of glass | cut the cake in two | cut the pizza into pieces | I need a knife to cut the meat

eye /aɪ/ Noun your eyes are the two round things on your face that you see with she has brown hair and blue eyes | I've got something in my eye | open your eyes | close your eyes – I've got a surprise for you

feel /fiːl/ Verb
if you are very well, you can say you feel well. You can also say things like 'I feel ill', or 'I feel fine' to say that you are ill or healthy

I felt ill during the afternoon | how are you feeling now? | I'm feeling much better, thanks

hand /hænd/ Noun your hands are the two things on the end of each arm, with five fingers, that you use for holding things and writing with

I cut my hand on a piece of glass | put your hand up if you know the answer (put one hand in the air to tell the teacher you know the answer) | wash your hands before lunch | he puts his hands in his pockets | I write with my left hand | my hands are really cold

head /hed/ Noun your head is the top part of your body, where your eyes, nose, brain, mouth, etc. are

I fell and hit my head | if you shake your head (move it from side to side) it means 'no' | a cut on the side of my head | my head is too big for this hat headache /ˈhedeɪk/ Noun if you have a headache, your head hurts, for example because you are ill

Collocates: have a headache

I have a headache so I'm staying at home | all that loud music gives me a headache | take an aspirin for your headache (to make it better) | I get a headache if I drink coffee hit /hɪt/ Verb

if you hit yourself or a part of your body, you touch something with a lot of force and it hurts

I hit my hand on the door | she hit her head against the window

last /lɑːst/ Adjective
last night, last week, last year, etc., is the one before the present one

I went to the cinema last night | we had a holiday in Greece last year | I was ill last week

© 2024 Cengage Learning Inc.

much /mʌtʃ/ Comparative if you say something is much colder, much warmer, much better, etc., you mean that it is a lot colder, warmer, better, etc.

I feel much better, thank you | it's much warmer in the kitchen | his sister is much younger than he is | her second film is much more exciting sick /sɪk/ Adjective if you are sick, you are not well and food that you have eaten comes back out of your mouth

Collocates: feel sick | be sick

I need some fresh air – I feel a bit sick | that curry made me sick | I think I'm going to be sick | you'll be sick if you eat any more ice cream

Pages 82–83

air /eə(r)/ Noun uncount
air is the gas that is all around us and that we breathe. If you talk about fresh air, you are talking about being outside in nature rather than in a building

I liked being out in the fresh air | it's very hot in here – can you open the window and let some air in? | there was a smell of flowers in the air

almost /ˈɔːlməʊst/ Adverb you use almost to say that something is not completely true or correct but is very nearly true or correct there is almost no coffee left | he almost died during the operation | he's almost two metres tall average /ˈæv(ə)rɪdʒ/ Noun if you say something is true on average, you mean that typically it is true but there are times when it is not true dogs live, on average, for about 12 years | taxi drivers, on average, have larger brains than other people | each smartphone user has, on average, 41 apps | on average, a meal in the restaurant costs £25

beautiful /ˈbjuːtəf(ə)l/ Adjective something or someone that is beautiful is very nice to look at the countryside around Taunton is beautiful | Florence is a beautiful city | a beautiful old church | Elizabeth is a very beautiful woman | a beautiful painting

better /ˈbetə(r)/ Adjective
better is the comparative of good. If you think something is good, you like it quite a lot she got a better job and moved to Manchester | Warwick is a good university but I think East Anglia is better | I need to get a better phone continue /kənˈtɪnjuː/ Verb if you continue doing something, you do not stop doing it, or you start doing it again after stopping for a while

Collocates: continue doing something | continue to do something she continued eating while she watched TV | they continue studying until the age of 22 | I am too tired to continue | it continued to rain all afternoon | we'll continue the lesson after a short break

countryside /ˈkʌntriˌsaɪd/ Noun uncount
the countryside is land that is not in a city or town and where there are not many buildings

Collocates: open countryside

some beautiful open countryside (countryside where you can see things like rivers and trees and not buildings or roads) | sitting on the train watching the countryside go by | the countryside around Amberley is beautiful

crime /kraɪm/ Noun crime is activity that is against the law. A crime is an action that someone does that is against the law

Collocates: commit a crime crime is a problem in this area | the crime rate (number of crimes happening) here is very high | he did not commit this crime by himself | the crime of murder | a crime wave (a lot of crime happening all at the same time)

Noun: criminal

the two criminals escaped from the police degree /dɪˈgriː/ Noun

a degree is a unit on a scale for measuring temperature. At 100 degrees Celsius, water boils, and at zero (0) degrees Celsius water freezes temperatures can reach 36 degrees Celsius during the day | it's very cold outside, just two degrees | normal body temperature is about 37 degrees

education /ˌedjʊˈkeɪʃ(ə)n/ Noun uncount
your education is the process of learning things that you go through at school

my parents want me to have a good education | education is very important | they need to improve education and build more schools | the government spends billions of pounds on education | a private education (at a school where parents have to pay)

environment /ɪnˈvaɪrənmənt/ Noun singular the environment is the land, air and natural water around us

Collocates: the natural environment | harm/damage the environment | protect the environment

a project to help the environment | we need to do more to protect the environment | the factory is causing a lot of damage to the environment | trees are an important part of our natural environment

Adjective: environmental | Adverb: environmentally | Noun: environmentalist

Collocates: environmental damage/pollution factories that cause environmental damage | plastic is cheap but environmentally dangerous | a group of environmentalists (people who want to protect the environment) free time /friː taɪm/ Noun your free time is the time when you do not have to work at your job or do school work

I like to go to the gym in my free time | doctors don't get much free time | how do you spend your free time? | when I have free time, I like to watch TV

© 2024 Cengage Learning Inc.

gun /gʌn/ Noun

a gun is a weapon that shoots bullets (small pieces of metal)

Collocates: point a gun at someone | fire a gun (at someone)

he pointed a gun at me | police in Iceland don't carry guns | I learnt to fire a gun in the army | the gun went off | we need better gun control (stronger laws to stop people having guns) health system /ˈhelθ ˈsɪstɪm/ Noun your health is the condition of your body. If you are in good health, you are well, and you can also say that you are healthy. If you are in bad health, you are ill. A country's health system is its hospitals, doctors and nurses, and the way they are organised the government is promising a better health system | our health system costs the country a lot of money | the public health system here is very good

lake /leɪk/ Noun

a lake is a large area of water, like a sea, but with land all around it

she likes swimming in the lake | the lake is very deep | we're staying in a hotel by the lake | Lake Baikal is the deepest lake in the world

lamb /læm/ Noun

a lamb is a young sheep, and lamb is the meat you get from young sheep

a shoulder of lamb | roast leg of lamb | would you prefer lamb or beef? | lamb with cabbage and new potatoes

operation /ˌɒpəˈreɪʃ(ə)n/ Noun

if someone has an operation, doctors cut into their body in order to repair it or take something out

Collocates: have an operation

he had an operation on his knee | a minor operation (not very serious) | she needs an emergency operation | a heart operation | a successful operation

Verb: operate

Collocates: operate on someone

they're going to operate on her this afternoon | if we don't operate immediately, it will be too late

police /pəˈliːs/ Noun uncount the police is the organisation that tries to catch criminals who break the law the police are looking for the murderer | he wants to join the police (become a policeman) | a police car quite /kwaɪt/ Adverb you use quite to say that something is true to an extent, but not an extreme extent there's quite a bit of milk in the fridge | it's quite a long way to Findon | I'm quite happy with my new car

safe /seɪf/ Adjective

something that is safe is not dangerous and will not hurt people or do any damage

Collocates: safe to do something

it's a safe area – I walk everywhere, even at night | is it safe to ride a bike on the streets here? | I don't feel safe on my own in a foreign city | it's safe to swim in the sea here

Adverb: safely | Noun: safety

drive safely | we swam across the river safely | we need to improve safety in the factory | road safety

street /striːt/ Noun

a street is a road in a town or city with buildings on each side

I live in Church Street | there are two bookshops in this street | we walked along the street looking for a post office | one of the oldest streets in Paris summer /ˈsʌmə(r)/ Noun summer is the time of year when it is hot, after spring and before autumn it's very hot in Rome in the summer | a summer holiday | in Australia, Christmas is in their summer | every summer, my grandparents go back to Scotland

sun /sʌn/ Noun singular the sun is the big yellow ball that you can see in the sky during the day, that gives us light and warmth

the sun is very bright today | the clouds are hiding the sun | it's nice to sit outside in the sun | the sun is going down (it's going out of sight at the end of the day) | the sun rises (it first appears) at 7 in the morning | the sun is shining

Adjective: sunny

a nice sunny day (there are no clouds and the sun is bright and warm) until /ənˈtɪl/ Preposition/Conjunction if something happens until a particular time, it happens before then and stops at that time people here live on average until they are 83 | you have to wait until tomorrow for your birthday presents | you have to stay at school until you are 16

wait /weɪt/ Verb

if you wait for something, you stay somewhere until it happens or arrives

Collocates: wait for something | wait to do something

the restaurant is full at the moment so we have to wait | she is waiting to buy some stamps | a long line of people waiting for tickets | can you wait outside, please?

war /wɔː(r)/ Noun

when there is a war, countries fight against each other using their army, navy, air force, etc.

Collocates: declare war | be at war

my grandfather was in the Second World War | the two countries are still at war | war broke out (started) again a year later | on 3 September 1939, Britain declared war on Germany (said that they were going to fight a war)

weather /ˈweðə(r)/ Noun uncount

the weather is the conditions outside – rain, sun, snow, cold, etc.

the weather is very hot in August | what's the weather like today? | the weather in Bergen is always wet | they have lovely weather in Italy

© 2024 Cengage Learning Inc.

worse /wɜː(r)s/ Adjective worse is the comparative of bad. Something that is bad is not good and you do not like it it's an interesting job, but the money's worse than my last job (the pay isn't as much) | his first film was bad, but his second one is worse | the weather is getting worse

Pages 84–85

army /ˈɑː(r)mi/ Noun
a country's army is all the soldiers whose job is to fight when there is a war

to join the army | she spent two years in the army | he was wearing his army uniform | an army base (a place where soldiers live and work) | an army officer

been /biːn/ Verb
if you have been somewhere, you travelled there or went there in the past have you been here before? | have you ever been to Moscow? | I've been to Berlin and Munich, but not to Hamburg boss /bɒs/ Noun your boss is the person where you work who tells you what to do my boss is really horrible to me | don't argue with your boss | I want my boss's job when she leaves business /ˈbɪznəs/ Noun business is the work people do that involves making, selling and buying things

Collocates: on business

what business are you in? | I'm in the engineering business | we do a lot of business with a company in Portugal | she travels a lot on business (goes to different places representing her company)

conference /ˈkɒnf(ə)rəns/ Noun
a conference is a big meeting that involves lots of people talking about a particular subject

there are 1,200 people at the conference | I'm organising a conference for teachers of English | a conference delegate (someone who is at a conference)

course /kɔː(r)s/ Noun a course is a set of lessons on a particular subject that you have over a period of time at a university, college, etc.

Collocates: a course in something a six-week course in English | I'm doing a Maths course at college | a course in engineering | a course in history | an online course (using the internet)

hurt /hɜː(r)t/ Verb
if part of your body hurts, or if something hurts you, you feel pain there

my knee really hurts | stop hitting me – it hurts | it hurts when I try to stand on that foot | my neck is still hurting | I hurt my hand playing tennis

Adjective: hurt

he was badly hurt when he fell off his bike

Master's /ˈmɑːstə(r)z/ Noun a Master's or a Master's degree is a university qualification that you can get which is higher than a first degree

Collocates: a Master's in something | do a Master's

if you want to get a good job, you'll have to do a Master's | it takes two years to get a Master's at this university | he has a Master's degree in engineering | she's studying for her Master's in computer science

stay /steɪ/ Verb
if you stay somewhere, you do not go anywhere else for a while. If you stay with someone, you live in their home for a short time

Collocates: stay with someone

I'm staying with my brother for a few days | where do you stay when you go to New York? | stay here while I go the shops | I'm staying at home today | let's stay in tonight (stay in the house and not go out anywhere)

tell /tel/ Verb
if you tell someone something, you use words to speak to them or write to them and give them information

Collocates: tell someone something

tell me what happened | can I tell you an interesting story? | tell me why you are late! | I can't tell you because I don't know

together /təˈgeðə(r)/ Adverb
if people do something together, they do it with each other at the same time

the family spends their holidays together | I make sure we all eat together in the evening | watching TV together | we need to work together well /wel/ Adjective if you are well, you are in good health and are not ill

I hope your family are all well | he was ill last week, but he's quite well now | her baby is well | if you're not well you can't go and play football

© 2024 Cengage Learning Inc.

10 NEWS

PAGE 87

accident /ˈæksɪd(ə)nt/ Noun an accident is something bad that happens to someone that was not planned but happens by chance he had a serious accident at work | she broke her leg in an accident | a car accident | be careful – don't have an accident on the motorway air-conditioning /eə kənˈdɪʃnɪŋ/ Noun uncount air-conditioning (also called air-con) is a system that keeps the air inside a building cool. A place that has air-conditioning is air-conditioned is the air-conditioning on? | the air-conditioning is broken | the air-conditioning makes a loud noise | can you turn the air-conditioning up? | turn the air-conditioning off when you go out | I set the air-conditioning to 17°

Adjective: air-conditioned a cool, air-conditioned office build /bɪld/ Verb

to build a house, bridge, shopping centre, road, etc. means to make it. Things like houses and shops are buildings they're planning to build a new school here | they're building a new sports stadium there | a builder is a person who builds or repairs houses | they helped to build the new airport on the island

Noun: building | Noun: builder

it's the biggest building in the city | you can't enter the building without showing your ID | an apartment building | I need a builder to repair the wall

die /daɪ/ Verb when a person or animal dies, they stop being alive and their life ends

Churchill died in 1965 | when did he die? | she died after a long illness | millions died in World War Two | my grandfather died last year | he died from cancer | she died suddenly last week

dry /draɪ/ Adjective if something is dry, there is no water or other liquid on it or in it. If the weather is dry, it is not raining

the ground outside is bone dry (extremely dry) | I have to wait until my hair is dry before going out | are the clothes dry yet? | this afternoon is sunny and dry

Verb: dry | Opposite – Adjective: wet

leave the towels to dry in the kitchen | it's easy to dry my hair now that it's short | don't go outside with wet hair | the carpet is still wet election /ɪˈlekʃ(ə)n/ Noun an election is an event when people choose their members of parliament by voting (selecting the person they want from a list of people)

Collocates: call an election | a general election there's an election in May | the prime minister called an election (decided to have an election) | a general election (for the whole country) | she won an election in 1997 | who are you voting for in the election?

Verb: elect

they elected a new government in France | he was elected in 2010 fair /feə(r)/ Noun a fair is something that comes to a town or village for a few days, where you pay money to ride on special machines or play games there's a fair here next weekend | let's go to the fair this evening | don't spend all your money at the fair fire /ˈfaɪə(r)/ Noun a fire is a pile of wood or other things that are burning and producing flames and heat. In a house, a fire is a piece of equipment that uses gas, electricity or wood to provide heat

Collocates: light a fire

we had a fire on the beach | sitting around the fire and singing songs | we decided to light a fire in the garden | a gas fire in the living room fun /fʌn/ Noun uncount if you have fun, you have a good time doing something you enjoy Collocates: have fun singing is great fun | I hope you have fun on holiday | come swimming with us – it's fun

Adjective: fun

she's a fun person to be with | we had a fun evening with our neighbours heart /hɑː(r)t/Noun your heart is the thing inside the upper front part of your body that pushes blood around your body a heart attack (when the heart stops working properly) | my heart is beating strongly (it's working hard) | her heart is very weak now and she might die heating /ˈhiːtɪŋ/ Noun singular the heating in a building is the equipment that is used to make the building warm Collocates: central heating the house has got gas central heating | we pay £40 a month for the heating | rent is £700 and heating is extra | turn the heating on | shall I turn the heating up? (so that it is hotter) | we haven't got any heating at the moment

Verb: heat

it costs a lot of money to heat the house all winter

© 2024 Cengage Learning Inc.

match /mætʃ/ Noun a match is a sports competition between two people or teams we watched a football match on TV last night | are you going to the match tomorrow? | who won the match? | we've got a match against Arsenal on Saturday | a tennis match | a match between Federer and Murray score /skɔː(r)/ Noun the score is the number of points or goals that the players or teams have got in a match

what's the score? | the score at half-time (when the match stops for a while halfway through) was 2-1 to Spurs | the final score (the score at the end of the match) was 4-1

Verb: score

he scored in the second minute of the match | how many goals did she score?

stadium /ˈsteɪdiəm/ Noun a stadium is a large open building around a sports field where lots of people can sit or stand to watch sports events or other entertainment the new stadium opened in 2015 | the stadium holds 60,000 people | the Olympic stadium (where the Olympic Games happened) | the stadium cost over £20m to build | a football stadium

stay /steɪ/ Verb
if you stay in a particular state or condition, your state or condition continues and does not change

make sure you stay warm tonight | we stayed dry inside the tent | stay calm and don't worry – it will be all right | it's very hot and it will stay like this for another week

turn off /tɜːn ɒf/ Phrasal verb
if you turn off a piece of electrical equipment, you move a switch so that it will stop working

turn your phones off before the lesson starts, please | turn the heating off before you go out | shall I turn the TV off? | he turns off the radio before starting his homework

Opposite – Phrasal verb: turn on how do you turn on this computer? | she turned on the TV | can I turn the radio on? | use the switch on the wall to turn on the lamp

turn on /tɜːn ɒn/ Phrasal verb if you turn on a piece of equipment, you do something such as move a switch or push a button to make it start operating

how do you turn on this computer? | she turned on the TV | can I turn the radio on? | use the switch on the wall to turn on the lamp

Opposite – Phrasal verb: turn off

turn your phones off before the lesson starts, please | turn the heating off before you go out | shall I turn the TV off? | he turns off the radio before starting his homework

warm /wɔː(r)m/ Adjective if you are warm, you are slightly hot in a pleasant way. Warm weather is quite hot you need a thick coat to keep you warm in the cold weather | we are lovely and warm by the fire | a nice warm bath | the weather is quite warm | a lovely warm day

Opposite – Adjective: cold

it's cold outside | I was very cold at the bus stop win /wɪn/ Verb if you win a game, you beat the other players. The past of win is won we won the match against Arsenal | Tottenham won the match 4-0 | I who do you think will win?

Noun: winner | Opposite – Verb: lose | Noun: loser

the winner of the match gets a prize of £20,000, and the loser gets £10,000 | I don't want to lose the match tomorrow

windy /ˈwɪndi/ Adjective if it is windy, the wind is blowing strongly

I don't want to go out, it's too windy | a windy afternoon | it's difficult playing tennis when it's windy | it's windy outside

Noun: wind

the wind is blowing from the east | an east wind winter /ˈwɪntə(r)/ Noun winter is the time of year when it is cold, between autumn and spring winters are very cold in Eastern Russia | in Australia, their winter is in July and August | we go skiing every winter | they have a lot of snow in winter

Pages 88–89

barbecue /ˈbɑː(r)bɪˌkjuː/ Noun a barbecue is a meal cooked outdoors, for example in someone's garden or on the beach, often as a social occasion they invited us to a barbecue tomorrow night | there were over 30 guests at the barbecue | I hope it doesn't rain for the barbecue | let's have a barbecue this evening camping /ˈkæmpɪŋ/ Noun uncount camping is the activity of going somewhere on a holiday and sleeping in tents while you are there

Collocates: go camping

we go camping every weekend in the summer | camping equipment | I enjoy outdoor activities like fishing and camping

Verb: camp | Noun: camp

the farmer let us camp in his field | they camped by the side of the river | our camp is a long way from the road

degree /dɪˈgriː/ Noun
a degree is a unit on a scale for measuring temperature. At 100 degrees Celsius, water boils, and at zero (0) degrees Celsius water freezes

temperatures can reach 36 degrees Celsius during the day | it's very cold outside, just two degrees | normal body temperature is about 37 degrees

© 2024 Cengage Learning Inc.

get /get/ Verb
if you get wet, cold, tired, etc., you start to be in that state or condition come back inside – you're getting wet out there | I get tired very easily in the summer | don't get angry when I tell you how much it cost | wear a coat or you'll get cold

inside /ˈɪnˌsaɪd/ Adverb if you are inside, you are in a building. If something is inside, it is in a container such as a box or suitcase

it's cold, let's go inside | come inside | open the box and see what's inside | it's raining, let's stay inside

Preposition: inside

what's inside the box? | my coat is inside the suitcase island /ˈaɪlənd/ Noun an island is an area of land that has a sea or lake all the way round it an island in the Pacific Ocean | Anglesey is an island off the coast of Wales | you can drive round the island in two hours like /laɪk/ Preposition if you say someone or something is like someone or something else, you mean they are the same or similar you look like your dad | he sounds just like his brother | this is like the bike I had when I was younger | it's very hot and it will stay like this for another week

minus /ˈmaɪnəs/ Adjective when you put minus in front of a number, it means the number you name is less than zero (0) the temperature in Moscow today is minus 12 | if you take 15 away from 11 you get minus 4 plan /plæn/ Noun a plan is a set of actions that you decide you will do in a particular situation that sounds like a good plan | do you think the plan will work? | do you have any holiday plans? | everything is going according to plan

Verb: plan

they're planning a new railway line between here and Doncaster | we're planning our holiday for this summer

sink /sɪŋk/ Noun
a sink is the thing in a kitchen that you can fill with water and use for washing things

the kitchen sink is very dirty | put the dishes in the sink | the soap is in the cupboard under the sink | fill the sink with warm water | the sink's blocked (water won't flow out of it properly)

skiing /ˈskiːɪŋ/ Noun uncount skiing is an activity in which you slide down mountains that are covered in snow wearing skis (long thin flat boards attached to your feet)

we go skiing every January | a skiing holiday | he broke his leg skiing

Noun: ski | Verb: ski

I need some new skis | I can't ski very well so /səʊ/ Adverb you use so to replace a whole part of a sentence instead of repeating it. For example, if someone asks you, 'Does the number 14 bus stop here?' and you answer, 'I think so', you mean 'I think the number 14 bus stops here'

Is it going to rain? – I don't think so | Did Tolstoy write War and Peace? – I believe so

stay /steɪ/ Verb
if you stay in a particular state or condition, your state or condition continues and does not change

make sure you stay warm tonight | we stayed dry inside the tent | stay calm and don't worry – it will be all right | it's very hot and it will stay like this for another week

sunny /ˈsʌni/ Adjective if it is sunny, the sun is shining it's a nice sunny day, let's have a picnic | a sunny afternoon | I hope it's sunny tomorrow | the weather is nice and sunny

Noun: sun

the sun is shining | the sun is behind a cloud wet /wet/ Adjective something that is wet is covered with water or another liquid. If the weather is wet, it rains a lot the towel is very wet | careful – the floor's wet | you'll get wet if you go out in this rain | another wet weekend in Manchester | it's going to be wet tomorrow (it's going to rain) | a wet summer

Opposite: dry

the ground outside is bone dry (extremely dry) | I have to wait till my hair is dry before going out | are the clothes dry yet? | this afternoon is sunny and dry

PAGES 90–91

about /əˈbaʊt/ Preposition
if a book, film, etc. is about someone or something, it talks about them or shows them as the main subject

I'm writing a book about Berlin | a film about Winston Churchill | a poem about being in love

army /ˈɑː(r)mi/ Noun
a country's army is all the soldiers whose job is to fight when there is a war

to join the army | she spent two years in the army | he was wearing his army uniform | an army base (a place where soldiers live and work) | an army officer

artist /ˈɑːtɪst/ Noun an artist is someone who draws or paints pictures or who makes sculptures (things like statues)

Picasso was a famous artist of the 20th century | she wants to be an artist | the café is popular with artists and writers | Leo is a very gifted artist (he has a lot of skill)

Noun: art | Adjective: artistic

a book about 20th century art | her artistic style developed over the years | I'm not very artistic and I can't draw

© 2024 Cengage Learning Inc.

boring /ˈbɔːrɪŋ/ Adjective something that is boring is not interesting at all my job is really boring | the film was so boring we left before the end | the most boring book I read | he's the most boring teacher in the whole school

Adjective: bored | Verb: bore | Opposite – Adjective: interesting | Adjective: interested

Collocates: be interested in something

I was bored after waiting for an hour | if you're bored, why don't you go and do your homework? | I hope I'm not boring you | the Harry Potter books are really interesting | I watched a really interesting programme on TV last night | he's not interested in cars | tell me more – I'm really interested circus /ˈsɜː(r)kəs/ Noun a circus is a place, usually a very big tent, with the audience sitting round in a circle, where you can watch people (and sometimes trained animals) performing tricks

I've got two tickets for the circus tonight | she works in a travelling circus (that goes from town to town) | a circus performer classical music /ˈklæsɪkəl ˈmjuːzɪk/ Noun uncount classical music is serious music by people such as Beethoven, Wagner, Tchaikovsky, and so on. A concert of classical music is a classical concert

I much prefer classical music to pop music | a classical music concert | a classical music recording | we spent the evening listening to classical music club /klʌb/ Noun a club is a place where people go in the evening for entertainment, to have a drink, etc.

the club gets very busy on Saturday nights | you have to be a member to get into this club | a comedy show in the club | we go to a club every Friday comedy show /ˈkɒmɪdi ʃəʊ/ Noun a comedy show is a funny TV programme or a funny performance in a club or theatre do you like watching comedy shows? | a TV channel that has only comedy shows | we're going to a comedy show in Leeds tonight

cost /kɒst/ Verb
if something costs an amount of money, you have to pay that amount of money to buy it

Collocates: cost someone something

how much does it cost? | the holiday costs over £1,000 | it doesn't cost much | these shoes cost me £90

discussion /dɪˈskʌʃ(ə)n/ Noun if you have a discussion, you talk about something with someone else

Collocates: have a discussion | a discussion about something the discussion lasted for three hours | a discussion about the election | a heated discussion (when people are a bit angry with each other)

Verb: discuss

they are discussing their favourite TV programmes | we spent an hour discussing our holiday plans | can we discuss this later? | I'd like to discuss your ideas in class | we discussed the situation in Ukraine exhibition /ˌeksɪˈbɪʃ(ə)n/ Noun an exhibition is an event where people can go and look at paintings and other works of art. Some exhibitions last just a day and others go on for months

Collocates: an art exhibition | an exhibition of something | put on/stage/hold an exhibition the students are organising an exhibition at the end of term | an exhibition of Henry Moore's work | there's an art exhibition in the school hall on Saturday | our annual photography exhibition | the museum is putting on a big new exhibition festival /ˈfestɪv(ə)l/ Noun a festival is a period of time during which a lot of events take place somewhere, such as concerts, theatre performances, films, etc.

Collocates: a music/jazz/rock/theatre festival a three-day rock festival | the festival is every August | Glastonbury Festival takes place on a farm in Somerset | a festival of classical music jazz /dʒæz/ Noun uncount jazz is a kind of music with a strong beat and rhythm, which is often made up during a performance instead of being prepared before

Collocates: a jazz band

she plays the trumpet in a jazz band | I really like jazz music | do you like jazz? | jazz can be difficult to listen to | we met at a jazz concert last /lɑːst/ Verb

if something lasts for a particular length of time, it exists for that time his training course lasts three years | a pair of shoes that lasted six years | the film lasts over three hours | the lessons last 40 minutes | the rain lasted all day | the meeting didn't last very long

main /meɪn/ Adjective
the main thing in a group of things is the most important one or the one that people use the most

the main entrance is on Oxford Street | my main aim is to pass my exams | we have our main meal in the evening | the school's main building is half a mile away from here | there's a market today in the main square

per /pɜː/ Preposition per means for each or during each it's $100 per ticket | the car can travel at 120 miles per hour | entry to the museum is £5 per person

play /pleɪ/ Noun
a play is a story that actors perform on a stage by speaking the words of the people who are in the story and behaving as if they are the people

Collocates: write a play | act in a play | see a play

let's go and see a play | she's acting in the school play (a play that the pupils perform) this term | a play by Shakespeare | Michael Frayn writes very good plays | the play was performed for the first time last night

© 2024 Cengage Learning Inc.

prefer /priˈfɜː/ Verb
the person or thing you prefer is the one you want or like the most out of a group of them

Collocates: prefer something to something

do you prefer driving or cycling? | do you want some tea, or would you prefer coffee? | at school I preferred History to Maths | shall we go to the theatre or the cinema – which would you prefer?

river /ˈrɪvə(r)/ Noun a river is a long stream of water that runs through a country and goes into the sea the river goes through the city | I like swimming in the river | we have a boat on the river | we need to cross the river | a bridge over the river

second /ˈsekənd/ Adjective
the second person or thing is the one that comes after the first

the market is on the second Saturday of every month | this is my second visit to Rome | you can't have a second chance

show /ʃəʊ/ Verb
if someone shows something in public, they let people see it, for example in an exhibition or a gallery they're showing her photos in the gallery all week | they want to show my paintings in the school hall | her drawings are showing in the town museum

skill /skɪl/ Noun
a skill is an ability to do something well

we learnt a new skill on the training course | I've got good computer skills | it's important to keep learning new skills | a course that helps develop business skills | good language skills are essential in this job

special /ˈspeʃ(ə)l/ Adjective something that is special is for a particular person, group, or thing a special area for families | a special school for children who are blind | this present is very special and it's just for you

Adverb: specially

I got some flowers specially for you

square /skweə(r)/ Noun
a square is an open area in a town or city, usually with buildings around it

Trafalgar Square in London | there's a large square in front of the cathedral | it's an old town with a large market square | let's meet in the main square at 8 o'clock | cars aren't allowed on the square in front of the station

wash room /wɒʃ/ /ruːm/ Noun a wash room is a room with sinks and sometimes showers where you can wash the campsite has a big wash room | there is no hot water in the wash room this morning | go and have a wash in the wash room

Pages 92–93

cancer /ˈkænsə/ Noun cancer is a serious disease which can kill people he died of cancer | the doctor told him he had cancer | skin cancer (that attacks the skin) | cancer of the throat

close /kləʊs/ Verb
if a business closes its shops or factories, they never open again and the people who worked there lose their jobs the car factory closed last year | they're going to close the supermarket on the High Street | after the cinema closed, I got a job in the supermarket cup /kʌp/ Noun a cup is a metal object that the winner of some competitions gets as a prize. Sometimes, the whole competition has the word cup in its name the World Cup (in football) | who won the cup last year? | the FA Cup final

cut /kʌt/ Verb
if you cut something, you break the surface of it using a knife or other sharp object

she cut her finger on a piece of glass | cut the cake in two | cut the pizza into pieces | I need a knife to cut the meat

decide /dɪˈsaɪd/ Verb if you decide something, you choose what action to take after thinking about it Collocates: decide to do something | decide that | decide on something | decide what/where/how we decided to go to the cinema | she decided that she would try to get a new job | did you decide where you are going to university? | I can't decide what to do | I decided to stay another week in London | I can't decide on the best colour to paint my bedroom

Noun: decision

a decision about something | make a decision you need to make a decision about your future | it was a difficult decision | my decision is that I'll stay at school for another year education /ˌedjuː)ˈkeɪʃən/ Noun uncount your education is the process of learning things that you go through at school

my parents want me to have a good education | education is very important | they need to improve education and build more schools | the government spends billions of pounds on education | a private education (at a school where parents have to pay)

environment /ɪnˈvaɪərənmənt/ Noun singular
the environment is the land, air and natural water around us

Collocates: the natural environment | harm/damage the environment | protect the environment

a project to help the environment | we need to do more to protect the environment | the factory is causing a lot of damage to the environment | trees are an important part of our natural environment

© 2024 Cengage Learning Inc.

government /ˈgʌvnmənt/ Noun
the government is the group of people who are in charge of a country or region

the government is spending too much money at the moment | can the government make people happier? | the local government (that works in a town or region, not the whole country) | the government building (where the people in the government work)

Grand Prix /grænd/ /priː/ Noun a Grand Prix is a race for Formula 1 cars (special cars for one person that race on special tracks) the British Grand Prix | who's going to win the Grand Prix tomorrow? | the next Grand Prix is in Monaco heart attack /hɑːt əˈtæk/ Noun a heart attack is a serious problem when someone's heart suddenly stops working properly heart attacks are a common cause of death | he had a heart attack and died last week | call an ambulance – he's having a heart attack president /ˈprezɪdənt/ Noun a president is the most important politician and the leader of the government of some countries the president of the US | President Macron of France | the president lives in the White House princess /ˌprɪnˈses/ Noun a princess is a girl or woman who is the daughter of a king or queen

Princess Elizabeth became queen in 1952 | there were two princesses at the event | he wants to marry a princess | a picture of Princess Anne

score /skɔː/ Verb
if you score, you succeed in getting a point during a game. The score in a match is the number of points each player or team has

I scored twice but we still lost | Lineker scored 48 goals for England | my dad will give me £5 if I score today

Noun: score

what's the score? | the final score was 2-1 to Juventus services /ˈsɜː(r)vɪsɪz/ Noun plural services are all the things that are provided by national or local government and paid for by taxes waste collection services (taking away rubbish from people's homes) | we need to spend more money on health services | emergency services (police, ambulances and fire engines) several /ˈsev(ə)rəl/ Determiner you use several to say that there are more than one or two things or people involved in what you are talking about

several of his paintings are in the National Gallery | I lived in France for several years | several people said how much they enjoyed the exhibition | he owns several houses in London

spend /spend/ Verb
if you spend money, you buy things or pay for services

Collocates: spend something on something

I spent a hundred pounds on clothes | how much did you spend yesterday? | don't spend all your pocket money | I didn't spend any money at all

use /juːz/ Verb
if you use something, you do something with it

can I use your phone? | use this towel to dry your hair | use your dictionary to find out what the words mean | you can use the money to buy a bike

© 2024 Cengage Learning Inc.

11 LIFE AND HISTORY

PAGE 97

angry /ˈæŋgri/ Adjective if you are angry, you are not pleased because something is wrong or someone is annoying you and you shout at them don't get angry when I tell you how much money I lost | she was so angry when I got home late | why are you so angry? It's only a plate!

Noun: anger

he finds it hard to control his anger | her anger was understandable because /bɪˈkɒz/ Conjunction

you use because when you are giving the reason for something

I like him because he's very funny | I don't want to walk to the cinema because it's too far | I can't ring her because my phone isn't working | I'm not going out tonight because I've got too much homework

bird /bɜːd/ Noun a bird is an animal that has wings and can fly the birds start singing at five in the morning | the birds are flying to Africa | it's cruel to keep birds in a zoo | we put food out for the birds

born /bɔːn/ Adjective when someone is born, they come out of their mother's body at the beginning of their life and start to be alive she was born in Turkey in 1997 | where were you born? | my grandfather died before I was born | you can't be president of the United States unless you were born in the United States celebrate /ˈselə,breɪt/ Verb if you celebrate, you do something you enjoy to show that a particular day or event or occasion is special my parents are celebrating their 20th wedding anniversary (they got married exactly 20 years ago) | I passed all my exams and now I'm going to celebrate

Noun: celebration

a birthday celebration | a big celebration for the opening of the new school | there are celebrations across the city

date /deɪt/ Noun the date is the day and the month and sometimes the year of a particular day today's date is Thursday, April 25th, 2019 | what date is your birthday? | the date of the next meeting | what's the date today? | I can never remember the date | write the date at the top of the page

Verb: date

don't forget to sign and date (write the date) the contract at the bottom | the letter was dated August 12th

degree /dɪˈgriː/ Noun
a degree is the qualification you get if you pass the exams after following a course of study at a university

Collocates: get a degree | do a degree | a degree in something

I'm the first person in my family to get a degree | I did a degree in Spanish | you need a degree to get a job at the BBC | my brother was a very successful businessman even though he didn't have a degree

each other /iːtʃ ˈʌðə/ Pronoun you use each other when you are describing an activity in which one person does something to another, and the other person does the same thing to the first one

they're always fighting each other | we love each other | stop arguing and help each other fight /faɪt/ Verb if two people fight, they get very angry and hit each other. The past of fight is fought

he and his brother are always fighting | stop fighting! | they both went into the car park to fight each other

Noun: fight

he died in a street fight (when people fight in the street) | the fight lasted just two minutes | the teacher arrived and stopped the fight

get /get/ Verb
if you get something such as a degree or a qualification, you successfully finish the work that you need to do in order to have it she wants to get a degree in History | I got my driving licence last year | he went to Oxford to get his degree

get /get/ Verb
if you get wet, cold, tired, etc., you start to be in that state or condition

come back inside – you're getting wet out there | I get tired very easily in the summer | don't get angry when I tell you how much it cost | wear a coat or you'll get cold

grandmother /ˈgræn,mʌðə/ Noun your grandmother is the mother of your father or of your mother. Young children sometimes call their grandmother 'Grandma' or 'Granny' both my grandmothers live in France | her grandmother is nearly 70 | don't forget to send your grandmother a birthday card | my grandmother died last year

grow /grəʊ/ Verb
if you grow things like fruit or vegetables, you look after the plants so that you can eat the fruit or vegetables when they are ready. When plants grow, they become bigger until they are full size we grow fruit in the garden | I can't grow tomatoes here because it's too cold | potatoes grow well in our garden | there's an apple tree growing outside the house

© 2024 Cengage Learning Inc.

July /ʤu(ː)ˈlaɪ/ Noun July is the seventh month of the year, after June and before August we go on holiday in July | Monday the 5th of July | there are 31 days in July | her birthday is in July king /kɪŋ/ Noun a king is a man who rules a country, and whose son or daughter will rule after he dies. A woman who rules a country in this way is a queen the king was killed in 1649 | Henry VIII is probably the most famous English king | a list of all the English kings and queens since 1066

lucky /ˈlʌki/ Adjective a lucky object is one that you like and keep with you a lot because you think it helps you be successful or happy

I always take my lucky hat on holiday | he wears the same lucky shirt to every football match | a lucky charm (a small piece of jewellery)

Noun: luck

take this necklace with you; it will bring you luck middle /ˈmɪdl/ Noun the middle of somewhere is the place that is the furthest from all the edges, in the centre

Collocates: the middle of something

Leicester is in the middle of England | there's a hole in the middle of my hat | the station is in the middle of the city | a tree in the middle of the garden

move /muːv/ Verb
if you move, or move house, you go and live in a different place

Collocates: move house

we're moving house next week | my parents want to move to Cornwall | I lived in Gas Street when I first moved here | I hate this house, but I can't afford to move

printer /ˈprɪntə/ Noun a printer is a machine connected to a computer that you use to put writing and pictures from the computer onto pieces of paper the printer's not working again | the printer does colour as well as black and white copies | how much does this printer cost?

Verb: print

can you print this form for me, please?

queen /kwiːn/ Noun a queen is a woman who rules a country, and whose son or daughter will rule after she dies. A man who rules a country in this way is a king

Elizabeth became queen in 1952 | the queen's head is on the one pound coin | the queen visited my school last year rock /rɒk/ Noun a rock is a large, heavy stone she gave me a rock from the beach | we climbed over the rocks to get to the sea | a large piece of rock | the boat hit some rocks and sank

wall /wɔːl/ Noun a wall is a long solid object made of brick or stone that separates one area from another. In former times, some towns and cities had a wall all the way round for protection four prisoners jumped over the wall and escaped | they replaced the wooden fence with a brick wall | I climbed onto a wall at the edge of the field | the city wall

Pages 98–99

anniversary /ˌænɪˈvɜːsəri/ Noun an anniversary is a date that is an exact number of years after an important event happened my parents' wedding anniversary is on December 26th (they got married on December 26th and remember it every year on that day) | our third wedding anniversary | tomorrow is the anniversary of the day he died | the 240th anniversary of American independence

become /bɪˈkʌm/ Verb to become something means to start to be it. The past of become is became

he wants to become a police officer | my brother hopes to become a pilot | the weather became very cold last week | he became a member of the tennis club

beginning /bɪˈgɪnɪŋ/ Noun the beginning of something is the time when it starts Collocates: the beginning of something the beginning of his career | the beginning of the film is very slow | she was a member of the club from the very beginning (the moment when it first started)

Verb: begin | Opposite – Noun: end our journey began at Victoria Station | come and see me at the end of the class | Hamlet dies at the end of the play birthday /ˈbɜːθdeɪ/ Noun your birthday is the day you were born, which you celebrate every year on the same day my birthday is in February | a birthday party | a birthday present | a birthday surprise | when is your birthday? | my birthday is on a Saturday this year | happy birthday! (what you say to someone on their birthday) boyfriend /ˈbɔɪˌfrend/ Noun your boyfriend is a boy or man you like a lot and are having a romantic relationship with is your boyfriend coming to the party? | I'm going for a meal with my cousin and her boyfriend | has she got a boyfriend yet? | my parents don't like my new boyfriend | he's an old boyfriend of mine

check /ʧek/ Verb
if you check something, you look to see if something is correct or what exactly it is

I'll just check my diary to see if I'm free on Tuesday | can you check the spelling in my essay? | check that the lights are off before you go out

Noun: check

the pilot finished the checks after 20 minutes

© 2024 Cengage Learning Inc.

conference /ˈkɒnfərəns/ Noun
a conference is a big meeting that involves lots of people talking about a particular subject

there are 1,200 people at the conference | I'm organising a conference for teachers of English | a conference delegate (someone who is at a conference)

diary /ˈdaɪəri/ Noun a diary is a book which has a space for every day of the year. You use it to write about the interesting things that happen to you every day or to write down things that you need to do. You can also have an app for your phone that you use as a diary

Collocates: keep a diary | write a diary write the date for our meeting in your diary | she keeps a diary (writes down what happens every day) | let's have lunch next Friday. Don't forget to put it in your diary | I write my diary before going to bed

during /ˈdjʊərɪŋ/ Preposition
if something happens during a period of time or an event, it happens then, after the period of time or event starts and before it ends

I fell asleep during the afternoon | you need to concentrate during the exam | you're not allowed to eat during class

end /end/ Verb
the end of something is the time when it finishes or stops

Collocates: the end of something

come and see me at the end of the class | Hamlet dies at the end of the play | if you want to know what happens in the end, you'll just have to wait

Verb: end | Opposite – Noun: beginning

the film ended happily | the beginning of his career | the beginning of the film is very slow

get /get/ Verb
if you get someone something, you buy it for them, for example as a present

Collocates: get someone something

I want to get her a new scarf | what did your mum get you for Christmas? | I can't afford to get you a new pair of shoes

go away /gəʊ/ /əˈweɪ/ Phrasal verb if you go away, you travel to somewhere a long way from where you live for a while, for example on holiday we're going away for three weeks | I can't go away until the school holiday starts | they're always going away on holiday | let's go away for Christmas independent /ˌɪndɪˈpendənt/ Adjective if a country is independent, it controls itself and does not have another country ruling it Collocates: become independent the United States became independent in 1776 | Mozambique is an independent country

Noun: independence

Collocates: gain independence

Kazakhstan gained independence in 1991 (became independent) | the country is fighting for its independence

party /ˈpɑːti/ Noun
a party is an event where people enjoy themselves by doing things like drinking, eating, dancing and talking to each other

the party is on Saturday | a birthday party | an invitation to a party | are you coming to the party on Saturday? | the party starts at 8 o'clock

public holiday /ˈpʌblɪk ˈhɒlədeɪ/ Noun a public holiday is a day when all businesses in a country close and people do not have to go to work

Christmas day is a public holiday | England has eight public holidays every year | is Shakespeare's birthday a public holiday?

second /ˈsekənd/ Adjective
the second person or thing is the one that comes after the first

the market is on the second Saturday of every month | this is my second visit to Rome | you can't have a second chance

shame /ʃeɪm/ Noun singular if you say that something is a shame, you mean it is unfortunate or sad

Collocates: a shame that | a shame to do something isn't it a shame that they're getting divorced? | it's a shame he lost his job | can't you come to the party? Oh, what a shame! | it's a real shame that they closed the factory | it's such a shame that he failed his driving test | it seems a shame to leave the party so early terrible /ˈterəbl/ Adjective something that is terrible is very bad

I had a terrible day at school | a terrible crime | they worked in terrible conditions | I've got a terrible pain in my leg | what a terrible film that was! | I made a terrible mistake

third /θɜːd/ Adjective the third person or thing is the one that comes after the second the market is on the third Thursday of every month | this is my third cup of coffee this morning | her third visit to Moscow time /taɪm/ Noun

if you have a good time, a great time, an unhappy time, etc., you spend a while feeling good, great, unhappy, etc.

we're having a great time on holiday | January is always a sad time | I hope you have a good time at the party

Pages 100–101

after /ˈɑːftə/ Preposition/Adverb
when something happens later than something else, it happens after, or after it

I'm going to the cinema after school today | can I see you after lunch? | what are you doing after?

anywhere /ˈenɪweə/ Adverb you use anywhere in questions and negative sentences to refer to a place without using its name is there anywhere I can put my suitcase? | they don't have anywhere to live | I can't find my keys anywhere

© 2024 Cengage Learning Inc.

business /ˈbɪznɪs/ Noun a business is a company that makes or sells things, or that sells services he started his printing business three years ago | my dad runs a restaurant business (he is in charge of it) | I want to have my own business when I finish university countryside /ˈkʌntrɪˌsaɪd/ Noun uncount

the countryside is land that is not in a city or town and where there are not many buildings

Collocates: open countryside

some beautiful open countryside (countryside where you can see things like rivers and trees and not buildings or roads) | sitting on the train watching the countryside go by | the countryside around Amberley is beautiful

divorced /dɪˈvɔːst/ Adjective if two people get divorced, they officially end their marriage

Collocates: get divorced my parents got divorced when I was 12 | we decided to get divorced | she lives with her divorced mother in Putney

Verb: divorce | Noun: divorce

he divorced his first wife after just three years | I want a divorce | their marriage ended in divorce after 11 years interested /ˈɪntrɪstɪd/ Adjective if you are interested in something, you would like to see more of it or know more about it

Collocates: be interested in something

I'm very interested in music | he wants to show me his new car but I'm not interested | she's interested in Russian history | I can tell you're not interested – you're nearly asleep!

Verb: interest | Adjective: interesting | Opposite – Adjective: uninterested politics doesn't interest me | I watched an interesting programme on TV last night | this is an interesting book | he is completely uninterested in politics kind of /ˈkaɪnd ɒv/ Adjective if you refer to something as a kind of something, you mean it is one of the different sorts of that thing that are possible it's a kind of fish | any kind of exercise is good for you | what kind of fruit is this?

life /laɪf/ Noun
your life is the whole time you are alive, from when you are born until you die. If you start a new life, you start living in a different way from before, especially if you had problems before they moved to Ireland to start a new life | a long life | I want to live a happy life | I'm in Scotland for the first time in my life

lose /luːz/ Verb
if you lose something, especially something that you need, you no longer have it, either because you cannot find it or because someone takes it away from you

he lost his job when the factory closed | don't lose your ticket | I'm always losing my keys | she lost her passport | you lost my iPad so you'll have to buy me another one

Master's /ˈmɑːstəz/ Noun
a Master's or a Master's degree is a university qualification that you can get which is higher than a first degree

Collocates: a Master's in something | do a Master's

if you want to get a good job, you'll have to do a Master's | it takes two years to get a Master's at this university | he has a Master's degree in engineering | she's studying for her Master's in computer science

online /ˈɒnˌlaɪn/ Adjective something that is online happens using the internet online shopping | online learning is becoming very popular | an online history course | an online booking form | an online shop

Adverb: online

I always buy my train tickets online | she is looking for an old schoolfriend online poor /pʊə/ Adjective people who are poor do not have enough money to buy the things they need, such as food and clothes she comes from a poor family | I was very poor when I was a student | we're not poor, but we're not rich either

Opposite – Adjective: rich

his parents are rich and they gave him a car for his birthday | a rich uncle

prison /ˈprɪzn/ Noun
a prison is a building for people who are being punished because they are criminals. Prisoners live there for months or years until the end of their punishment

Collocates: send someone to prison | be in prison | spend time in prison

I don't want to go to prison | he spent 20 years in prison for killing a policeman | he's still in prison but hopes to get out next year | if they catch you, they'll send you to prison

Noun: prisoner

a prisoner escaped last night

school /skuːl/ Noun
a school is a place where people go to learn things. Most people go to school until they are about 16 or 18 years old

Collocates: go to school | be at school

Jack is a teacher in a primary school | children in England start going to school at the age of five | there are 800 pupils in my school | a school teacher | he's 18 and he's still at school

several /ˈsevrəl/ Determiner
you use several to say that there are more than one or two things or people involved in what you are talking about

several of his paintings are in the National Gallery | I lived in France for several years | several people said how much they enjoyed the exhibition | he owns several houses in London

© 2024 Cengage Learning Inc.

short /ʃɔːt/ Adjective
a short period of time does not last very long
we have a short weekend where I work – just Saturday afternoon and Sunday | spend a short time in the bath | a short holiday in Paris
Opposite – Adjective: long
a long weekend (Friday or Monday as well as Saturday and Sunday)

skill /skɪl/ Noun
a skill is an ability to do something well
we learnt a new skill on the training course | I've got good computer skills | it's important to keep learning new skills | a course that helps develop business skills | good language skills are essential in this job

somewhere /ˈsʌmweə/ Adverb you use somewhere to refer to a place without using its name they live somewhere in Somerset | I want to find somewhere warm for my holiday this year | let's go somewhere quieter and talk | I need somewhere to sit and read wedding /ˈwedɪŋ/ Noun a wedding is an event at which two people get married Collocates: a wedding reception | a wedding ceremony | a wedding anniversary a wedding reception (a party for all the guests after the ceremony) | the wedding ceremony starts at 3 o'clock | a wedding anniversary (an exact number of years since a wedding) | a church wedding (that happens in a church) | it's her wedding day tomorrow | a wedding ring (a ring that people give each other during the wedding ceremony)

when /wen/ Conjunction you use when to refer to the particular moment that something happened I was five when my mum died | tell me when you're ready | it was raining when we arrived home

Pages 102–103

another /əˈnʌðə/ Determiner another person or thing is one more, in addition to the ones that are already present do you want another cup of coffee? | we need another tent if we're going camping | I'm going to have another piece of cake Pronoun: another
we've already got two sofas and we don't need another

build /bɪld/ Verb
to build a house, bridge, shopping centre, road, etc. means to make it. Things like houses and shops are buildings
they're planning to build a new school here | they're building a new sports stadium there | a builder is a person who builds or repairs houses | they helped to build the new airport on the island
Noun: building | Noun: builder
it's the biggest building in the city | you can't enter the building without showing your ID | an apartment building | I need a builder to repair the wall

capital /ˈkæpɪtl/ Noun the capital or capital city of a country is the most important city, usually where the government is Astana is the capital of Kazakhstan | what's the capital of Thailand? | she works in the capital | lots of people think New York is the capital city of the US but it isn't castle /ˈkɑːsl/ Noun a castle is a very old, very big building with thick walls that help protect the people inside from attack during wars or battles a ruined castle (one that is now in bad condition) | the castle was built in 1243 | Bramber Castle is over 800 years old century /ˈsentʃəri/ Noun a century is a period of 100 years, usually starting after the numbers at the beginning of the year change, for example 1800, 1900, etc. The twentieth century was the years from 1900 to 1999, and now it is the 21st century her grandfather was born in the 19th century | there were two world wars in the twentieth century | it's over four centuries since Shakespeare died | Henry VIII was king in the sixteenth century

change /tʃeɪndʒ/ Verb
if something changes, or if someone changes it, it stops being one thing and starts being a different thing. A change is when this happens Collocates: change from something | change to something the capital changed to Tokyo in 1868 | I need to change the battery in my phone (stop using the old one and start using a different one) | the weather suddenly changed from very hot to very cold Noun: change
our manager told us about changes in the company | we made some changes to the programme damage /ˈdæmɪdʒ/ Verb to damage something means to harm it or break it be careful – you'll damage it! | smoking can damage your health | floods damaged property along the High Street | a lot of buildings were damaged by the storm | luckily, nothing was damaged or stolen Adjective: damaged | Noun: damage the damaged car is still in the garage | the storm caused a lot of damage to houses in the village | if you break it, you'll have to pay for the damage

high /haɪ/ Adjective a building or other object that is high goes up a long way from the ground the building is 80 metres high | how high is the Eiffel Tower? | we could see the high mountains in the distance | there was a high wall around the gardens Noun: height
try and guess the height of the building

© 2024 Cengage Learning Inc.

kill /kɪl/ Verb to kill a person or animal means to make them stop being alive he was killed by a bomb in his car | he's in prison for killing a policeman | smoking can kill you | tigers kill other wild animals and eat them

Noun: killer

police are still looking for the killer | a serial killer (someone who murders several people over a period of time) murder /ˈmɜː(r)də(r)/ Noun a murder is a crime when someone kills another person there was a murder in the village | they arrested him for murder | a murder victim | murder is a very serious crime | he's in prison for murder | there were 12 murders in the city last year

Verb: murder | Noun: murderer

he murdered his boss | John Lennon was murdered in New York in 1980 | the murderer escaped before the police arrived over /ˈəʊvə/ Preposition you use over to say that a number, amount or quantity is actually slightly more than the one you mention

I waited over an hour for the train | it cost over 20 euros | the new tower is over 100 metres high protect /prəˈtekt/ Verb

if you protect someone or something, you keep them safe and make sure that nothing hurts or damages them

Collocates: protect someone from/against something parents need to protect their children | we should do more to protect wild animals | this should protect you from catching the disease | how can we help protect the environment?

Noun: protection

Collocates: protection against/from something a healthy diet could offer protection against cancer | you need to wear a seat belt for your own protection

repair /rɪˈpeə/ Verb

if you repair something that is broken or in very bad condition, you mend it so that it is in very good condition

it cost £40 million to repair the castle | can you repair my bike? | we need to repair the damage caused by the floods

Noun: repair

the car needs a few small repairs | the repairs to the roof cost over £7,000

science /ˈsaɪəns/ Noun science is the study of things like Physics, Chemistry and Biology

I really liked science subjects at school | I want to study sciences at university | a science teacher | science lessons | a science exam

Noun: scientist | Adjective: scientific scientists are very worried about global warming | Einstein was a brilliant scientist | a scientific experiment | is there a scientific explanation for this?

so /səʊ/ Conjunction you use so before saying what happened after you have given a reason for it

I don't like fish so I'll have beef, please | the car is making a funny noise so I need to take it to the garage | he was very naughty so I sent him to his room

spend /spend/ Verb

if you spend money, you buy things or pay for services

Collocates: spend something on something

I spent a hundred pounds on clothes | how much did you spend yesterday? | don't spend all your pocket money | I didn't spend any money at all

vote /vəʊt/ Verb

if you vote for someone or something, you say that they are the one you choose in an election

Collocates: vote for someone | vote against something who did you vote for in the election? | he voted for Britain to stay in the EU | you have to be over 18 to vote | he voted Labour (for the person from the Labour Party) | you didn't vote for him, did you? | she voted against the new law

Noun: vote | Noun: voter my vote goes to Mr Jenkins | voters choose their MP once every five years

© 2024 Cengage Learning Inc.

12 THANK YOU AND GOODBYE

Page 105

bin /bɪn/ Noun

a bin is a container where you put things that you don't want any more

Collocates: a rubbish bin | a litter bin just throw it in the bin | use the rubbish bin by the gate | the bin's full again | they come round to empty the bins every Tuesday morning | there are three new litter bins on the High Street

Verb: bin

if you don't want it any more, just bin it broken /ˈbrəʊkən/ Adjective if something is broken, it is badly damaged so that it doesn't work any more or is in lots of pieces my phone is broken | a broken clock | if it's broken, ask your dad to repair it | don't sit there! The seat's broken

Verb: break

please don't break it | how did you break your phone?

carry /ˈkæri/ Verb

if you carry something, you take it somewhere while holding it in your hands don't carry that suitcase if your back is hurting | can I carry your shopping for you? | let me carry your bag | it's too heavy for me to carry | he carried the drinks to our table

empty /ˈempti/ Adjective if something is empty, there is nothing or no one in it the house is empty | an empty glass | my suitcase is empty | an empty road (with no cars there) | the restaurant was empty when we arrived

Opposite – Adjective: full

my suitcase is full and I can't put another jacket in it | the restaurant is full tonight | he arrived home with two full shopping bags flower /ˈflaʊə/ Noun flowers are the coloured parts of a plant or tree that appear once a year for a while. People use flowers to make a room look nice

Collocates: a bunch of flowers put the flowers in some water | he gave her a bunch of flowers on her birthday | pick some flowers (take them off the plant) | those flowers smell lovely | I grow vegetables and flowers in the garden full /fʊl/ Adjective if a place is full, there are a lot of people or things in it and there is no room for any more

Collocates: full of something my suitcase is full and I can't put another jacket in it | the restaurant is full tonight | the fridge is full of tins of Coke | he arrived home with two full shopping bags

Opposite – Adjective: empty

the streets are empty | an empty bottle heavy /ˈhevi/ Adjective something that is heavy weighs a lot it's a good laptop and it's not very heavy | a heavy suitcase | I can't lift it – it's too heavy for me | how heavy is it? | which is heavier – ice or water?

Opposite – Adjective: light

my new laptop is really light and easy to carry around | your bag is much lighter than mine hope /həʊp/ Verb

if you hope something is true or hope something will happen, you want it to be true or to happen but you are not sure if it actually is true or will happen

I hope you pass your driving test | we're hoping to go on holiday to Spain next year | is Tim coming home for Christmas? – I hope so | I hope we can still be friends | I hope they won't be upset when they find out what's happened

Noun: hope

there isn't a hope of getting there on time (it's not possible to get there on time) | it's not impossible, so there's still some hope

hurry /ˈhʌri/ Verb

if you hurry, you go somewhere or do something quickly because you are trying to get there or finish it as soon possible

I need to hurry or I'll miss the train | don't hurry, we've got plenty of time | she hurried down the stairs to the front door | if you hurry you're more likely to make mistakes

Noun: hurry

Collocates: in a hurry sorry, I can't stop and chat – I'm in a hurry lend /lend/ Verb

if you lend someone something, you let them use it for a while and then they give it back to you

Collocates: lend someone something | lend something to someone she lent me her bike for the evening | could you lend me a phone charger? | can you lend me some money? I left my wallet at home | I lent it to him last week | he wanted me to lend him my car lovely /ˈlʌvli/ Adjective something or someone that is lovely is very nice what a lovely baby | this is a lovely house | she's a lovely person | we're having a lovely time on holiday

© 2024 Cengage Learning Inc.

low /ləʊ/ Adjective if the level of something is low, there is not much distance between the bottom of it and the top the water level is very low after a month with no rain | low tide (the time when the sea goes the furthest way away from the land) | the oil in the car is low

Opposite – Adjective: high

if the river gets any higher we'll have floods | high tide (when the sea comes closest to the land) miss /mɪs/ Verb

If you miss a plane or train, you arrive at the station or airport after your train or plane left

I missed the train and was late for work | hurry up or you'll miss the plane | luckily, the bus was late so I didn't miss it painting /ˈpeɪntɪŋ/ Noun a painting is a picture that someone makes using paint

Collocates: an oil painting | a watercolour painting

it's a lovely painting | an exhibition of paintings by Picasso | she did a lot of paintings of the river | I'm going to put this painting in the bedroom | his works include a number of oil paintings (using paint that is made from oil) | a fine watercolour painting (using paint that is mixed with water)

Noun: painter | Verb: paint a portrait painter (who paints pictures of people's faces) | he paints pictures of the mountains

put /pʊt/ Verb
if you put something somewhere, you take it to that place and leave it there

put your card in the machine | put the cheese in the fridge | where shall I put the flowers? | put the plates on the table, please

seat /siːt/ Noun a seat is a chair, or a place to sit the restaurant is very busy, so you have to wait for a seat | there's an empty seat over there | is this seat free? (can I sit on it?) | the back seat of a car (behind where the driver sits) | please take a seat (sit down) stand up /stænd ʌp/ Phrasal verb if you stand up, you move from being in a chair to being on your feet stand up when the teacher comes into the room | she needs help to stand up | don't stand up, I'll get it for you

strong /strɒŋ/ Adjective if the sun is strong, it is shining very brightly and giving off a lot of heat the sun is very strong this afternoon | don't spend long in strong sunshine

Adverb: strongly the sun is shining strongly theatre /ˈθɪətə/ Noun a theatre is a building where people can go to see a play we're going to the theatre tomorrow | the theatre is on Drury Lane | I enjoy going to the theatre | the best seats in the theatre

throw /θrəʊ/ Verb
if you throw something, you make it go through the air using a quick action to let it go from your hand. If you throw something away or throw it in the bin, you do not want it any more and put it somewhere so that you never have to see it or have it again if you don't want it, throw it in the bin | don't just throw it on the ground, find a bin for it | I'm going to throw away this shirt unless you want it water /ˈwɔːtə/ Noun uncount

water is the liquid that falls as rain and that makes up the sea and rivers and lakes. People, animals and plants need water in order to be able to live a glass of water | the water's too cold for swimming today | a bottle of water | when it reaches 0° centigrade, water freezes and becomes ice | the water's low (the level of the water in something such as a river)

Pages 106–107

battery /ˈbætəri/ Noun a battery is an object that stores electricity and is used in equipment such as phones, tablets, cameras, etc.

Collocates: a flat battery | recharge a battery (put electricity back into it)

I need a new battery for my phone | the battery only lasts a few hours | the battery in my phone is flat (it has no more power) | it takes two hours to recharge the battery (put more power in it) charger /ˈʧɑːʤə/ Noun

a charger is something that puts electricity back into batteries, phones, cameras, etc. so that you can use them again

a phone charger | can I borrow your charger?

check /ʧek/ Verb
if you check something, you look somewhere to find information or to make sure that you have already got the correct information about something

I think the train leaves at 11, but I'll check the timetable | check your diary before you agree to the meeting | check the spelling in a dictionary come out /kʌm aʊt/ Phrasal verb if something comes out of somewhere, it moves from inside a pipe or container to outside the pipe or container the water is coming out very slowly | I can't get the toothpaste to come out of the tube | the liquid comes out through the tap at the bottom hungry /ˈhʌŋgri/ Adjective if you are hungry, you want to eat something as soon as possible

I'm always hungry after I go swimming | if you're hungry, have a biscuit | what time's lunch? I'm hungry | there are two hungry children waiting for breakfast here

© 2024 Cengage Learning Inc.

lift /lɪft/ Noun
a lift is a small room that people can get into, which carries them up and down a building so that they do not have to use the stairs

Collocates: take a lift | call a lift

press the button to call the lift | let's take the lift – it's a long way up to the fifth floor | the lift isn't working so we're using the stairs | the engineers are repairing the lift

look at /lʊk æt/ Verb if you look at something, you use your eyes and sometimes your hands to find out why it isn't working properly so that you can then repair it

Collocates: look at something someone's coming to look at the tap in the kitchen | let me look at it tomorrow and I'll try and fix it for you | can you look at my car – it's making a strange noise | the doctor wanted to look at my knee

Noun: look

Collocates: have a look (at something)

I'll have a look at it this afternoon

lost /lɒst/ Adjective
if you are lost, you do not know where you are and do not know how to get to where you want to go

Collocates: get lost

it's easy to get lost in the narrow streets | use the map on your phone if you're lost | we got lost in Glasgow | I'm lost – can you tell me the way to the station?

low /ləʊ/ Adjective
if a battery is low, it does not have much electricity left in it and it will stop working soon my battery's low – can I borrow your charger? | when the symbol turns red, it means your battery is low meal /miːl/ Noun a meal is an amount of food that you eat at one time. Breakfast, lunch and dinner are meals

we have our main meal in the evening | you need to eat three meals a day | Dan is cooking a meal for us | that was a delicious meal offer /ˈɒfə/ Verb

if you offer someone something that you have or that you can give them, you tell them they can have it if they want it

Collocates: offer someone something | offer something to someone | offer to do something

I hope they offer me the job | we offer cleaning services to local businesses | can I offer you a cup of tea? | he offered to show us round the city

Noun: offer

Collocates: an offer of something a job offer | thank you for your offer of help | he refused their offer of lunch

repair /rɪˈpeə/ Verb
if you repair something that is broken or in very bad condition, you mend it so that it is in very good condition

it cost £40 million to repair the castle | can you repair my bike? | we need to repair the damage caused by the floods

Noun: repair

the car needs a few small repairs | the repairs to the roof cost over £7,000

send /send/ Verb
to send someone somewhere means to make them go there, usually so that they can do a particular activity there. The past of send is sent

we sent the children to a summer camp last year | my parents sent me to a private school | the judge sent him to prison for three years | there was no electricity at the school so they sent the children home

show /ʃəʊ/ Verb
if you show someone where to go or how to do something, you tell them what direction to go in or what actions are needed for them to succeed in doing something

I'll show you the way to the station | let me show you how to make bread | can you show me where the kitchen is?

solution /səˈluːʃən/ Noun the solution to a problem is something that you can do which makes the problem go away

Collocates: a solution to something the solution was to buy a new car | they are sure they will find a solution to the problem | I don't want to hear your problems, I want to hear your solutions

space /speɪs/ Noun uncount
space is an area that is big enough for you to put something or keep something we need more space for new employees | we moved into a bigger house with much more space in the garden | we don't have enough space for two cars in the garage | is there space for another fridge in the kitchen?

strong /strɒŋ/ Adjective
if something such as coffee or tea is strong, it is made using a lot of tea or coffee a cup of strong coffee | this tea is too strong for me | I like my coffee very strong | don't make it too strong, please

Opposite – Adjective: weak a cup of weak tea

work /wɜːk/ Verb
if something such as a machine is working, it is doing what it is supposed to do. If it is not working, it is broken my bank card is not working so I can't pay for the meal | the new washing machine works really well | the engine isn't working properly | the car stopped working last week

wrong /rɒŋ/ Adjective
if there's something wrong, the situation is not what you want it to be and some equipment is not working properly there's something wrong with my phone | you look worried; is something wrong? | there's nothing wrong with the engine

© 2024 Cengage Learning Inc.

PAGES 108–109

box /bɒks/ Noun a box is a container with hard sides and a top that is used to keep things in when I took it out of the box, I saw that it was damaged | a cardboard box (made of very stiff paper) | a jewellery box | a tool box | keep the box in case you need to take it back to the shop

couple /ˈkʌpl/ Noun a couple is two people who are married or in a relationship with each other a TV programme about a couple who are building their own house | a happily married couple | we never talk to the couple who live next door | they're a very friendly couple cupboard /ˈkʌbə(r)d/ Noun

a cupboard is a piece of furniture with a door and shelves, where you can keep things

put it back in the cupboard | a cupboard under the sink | the plates are in the cupboard | a kitchen cupboard | she keeps her shoes in a cupboard definitely /ˈdef(ə)nətli/ Adverb you use definitely to emphasise that what you are saying is exactly what you think

I'm definitely not going to that restaurant again! | he's definitely the best football player in my school | dinner will definitely be ready by seven o'clock | we're definitely not responsible for the damage

Adjective: definite

I'm not going to Brighton with you, and that's definite forget /fə(r)ˈget/ Verb if you forget something, you do not remember it. If you forget to do something, you do not do it because you did not remember it at the right time. The past of forget is forgot

Collocates: forget to do something | forget about something don't forget to lock the door | I forgot to buy milk | did you forget my birthday again? | she's always forgetting her scarf | I completely forgot about lunch

Opposite – Verb: remember

Collocates: remember to do something did you remember to buy milk? | I can never remember her name | I can't remember if I ever saw that film gift /gɪft/ Noun a gift is a present that you give to someone, for example on their birthday or as a way of saying thank you for something nice they did for you

he offered me a generous gift of £100 | the car was a birthday gift from his parents | as a police officer, he could not accept the gift home made /həʊm meɪd/ Adjective something, especially food, that is home made is made in someone's home, and not in a factory a home-made cake | all our jam is home made | they sell home-made biscuits and bread | home-made soup tastes much better than soup from a tin

just /ʤʌst/ Adverb you use just to say that you are referring to something that is not very great in number, size or importance just £5 for a burger and a drink | after just five minutes, she got up and left | it's just a three-minute walk to the beach from here | I'm not very hungry, so just one potato will be enough for me, thanks

keep /kiːp/ Verb
if you keep something somewhere, you leave it in that place all the time until you need it a beautiful box to keep my jewellery in | I keep my sports kit in the wardrobe | where do you keep your vegetables? | they keep their buckets in the cellar piece /piːs/ Noun a piece of something is an object of that kind how often do you buy a new piece of technology? | it's a lovely piece of furniture | a piece of paper | they built a house on a piece of land near Winchester | their house is full of beautiful pieces of art plastic /ˈplæstɪk/ Noun uncount plastic is a light, strong material that can be made into different shapes and that is used to make all sorts of everyday objects the camera is mostly made of plastic | a plastic bag | bottles used to be made of glass, but now most bottles are plastic

set /set/ Noun a set of things is a group of them that belong together a spare set of keys for the house | a set of six chairs | a chess set (a board and the 32 pieces that you need to play a game of chess) should /ʃʊd/ Verb you use should when you are giving someone advice about what you think they need to do you should tell the teacher straight away | she thinks I should take the job | we should definitely buy a new house | what do you think I should do?

stuff /stʌf/ Noun uncount you can use stuff as a general word to refer to any kind of thing without saying exactly what it is what's that cake with the orange stuff on top? | you can buy all sorts of stuff there | he put his stuff on the table | whose is this stuff?

sweet /swiːt/ Noun sweets are small pieces of food which have sugar in them or that taste like fruit, which children like to eat sweets are bad for your teeth | I never eat sweets | a packet of sweets | my uncle gave me some sweets | a bag of sweets tablet /ˈtæblɪt/ Noun

a tablet is a small, flat computer that you can carry around easily. You touch the screen to make it work rather than using a separate keyboard

you cannot take your tablet into the exam room | a new tablet costs £400 | a Samsung tablet | apps that work on phones and tablets

© 2024 Cengage Learning Inc.

useful /ˈjuːsfʊl/ Adjective something that is useful is good because it helps you to do something or get something she has some very useful ideas | there's plenty of useful information on the internet | these pockets are useful for keeping money in | that was a very useful meeting | she gave me some very useful advice

Pages 110–111

back /bæk/ Adjective if you are back, you returned to the place where you were a while ago after being away somewhere he's back from his tour of Jordan | what time will you be back tonight? | we went back later but the shop was closed

busy /ˈbɪzi/ Adjective
if you are busy, you have a lot of things to do and do not have any time to relax. If a place is busy, there is a lot of activity and a lot of people there

I am so busy I can't even stop for lunch | she is too busy to answer my email | the restaurant is very busy on Friday evenings | a busy airport | a busy town centre

call /kɔːl/ Noun
if you give someone a call, you contact them by telephone Collocates: give someone a call give me a call when you get home | I had a call from Jenny last night | there were four calls for you while you were out

Verb: call

I called my mum but she didn't answer | call me tomorrow after school document /ˈdɒkjʊmənt/ Noun a document is a piece of paper with information on it these documents tell us a lot about the history of the city | ancient (very old) documents | the library has a lot of documents about the war

each other /iːtʃ ˈʌðə/ Pronoun
you use each other when you are describing an activity in which one person does something to another, and the other person does the same thing to the first one

they're always fighting each other | we love each other | stop arguing and help each other

email /ˈiːmeɪl/ Noun your email or email address is the series of letters and/or numbers you need to use to send an email to someone, for example 'john.brown99@garglemail.com'

have you got my email? | what's your email address? | this is my work email address | send me your new email address enjoy /ɪnˈdʒɔɪ/ Verb if you enjoy something, you like it when it is happening and it makes you happy

Collocates: enjoy doing something do you enjoy your job? | I don't enjoy working here | she enjoys playing sport | I never enjoy shopping | I hope you enjoy your meal | did you enjoy your holiday?

Adjective: enjoyable | Noun: enjoyment

we had an enjoyable afternoon by the sea | an enjoyable film | she gets a lot of enjoyment from her grandchildren in contact /ɪn ˈkɒntækt/ Adverb if you are in contact with someone, you regularly talk to them, phone them, Facebook them, etc.

Collocates: in contact with someone are you still in contact with Dan? | we were in contact until last year | it's important to keep in contact with your old friends journey /ˈdʒɜːni/ Noun

if you go on a journey, you travel from one place to another, usually over a long distance

Collocates: a long journey

how long does the journey take? | have a safe journey | are you tired after your long journey? | our journey begins in London and ends in Sydney

kind /kaɪnd/ Adjective someone who is kind is generous and helpful to other people Collocates: be kind of someone she's always very kind and helpful | he is one of the kindest people I know | thank you, that's very kind of you | flowers! How kind!

Noun: kindness

an act of kindness order /ˈɔːdə/ Verb

if you order something, you ask for it to be sent to you or made ready for you

I ordered a new washing machine last week | I'd like to order a taxi to the station | you can order them online | we don't have any in the shop but we can order one for you | if you order it today, we can deliver it to you before the weekend

Noun: order

Collocates: place an order if you place your order before 12 o'clock, we will deliver it tomorrow quick /kwɪk/ Adjective something that is quick happens very fast my new internet connection is very quick | police did a quick search of the building | we got a very quick response from our MP when we wrote to her | I've just got a few quick questions to ask you

Adverb: quickly

answer the first question as quickly as you can | the paint dried very quickly

safe /seɪf/ Adjective
something that is safe is not dangerous and will not hurt people or do any damage

Collocates: safe to do something

it's a safe area – I walk everywhere, even at night | is it safe to ride a bike on the streets here? | I don't feel safe on my own in a foreign city | it's safe to swim in the sea here

© 2024 Cengage Learning Inc.

Adverb: safely | Noun: safety

drive safely | we swam across the river safely | we need to improve safety in the factory | road safety

stay /steɪ/ Verb

if you stay in contact with someone or stay in touch with them, you regularly talk to them, phone them, Facebook them, etc.

we say in touch using Whatsapp | after I left school I didn't stay in contact with any of my classmates | let's stay in touch after the holiday take care /teɪk keə/ Phrase if you tell someone to take care, you are saying that they should be careful the roads are very wet tonight so please take care on your bike | see you tomorrow; take care

tell /tel/ Verb

if you tell someone something, you use words to speak to them or write to them and give them information

Collocates: tell someone something

tell me what happened | can I tell you an interesting story? | tell me why you are late! | I can't tell you because I don't know

© 2024 Cengage Learning Inc.