by Janet Ferguson

I'm from Nova Scotia, Canada. It's a great place.

In Nova Scotia, people usually work 40 hours a week. Lots of people have Sunday free. I'm a teacher and I work in a school in a small village. I always have Saturday and Sunday free.

On Saturday, I usually take the bus to the city. I sometimes go to a supermarket called Sobey's and I sometimes go to a clothes shop called Winners.

On Sunday, I normally go to the market in my village. It always opens at 10 in the morning and closes at 4 in the afternoon. I always buy fresh fruit at the market. I meet friends at our favourite café in the evening.

I like my job, but I love weekends!

11 Circle the correct words.

1 People in Nova Scotia always / usually work 40 hours a week.
2 Janet never / always has Sunday free.
3 Janet normally / sometimes takes the bus to the city.
4 The market in Janet's village is always / never open in the morning on Sunday.

Hi Siobhan,

How are you? My brother and I had a great trip to Spain. The journey from Ankara, in Turkey, to Barcelona was good, but it was long – six hours and thirty minutes. We changed planes in Munich, Germany.

Our hotel in the city was called Hotel Colonial Barcelona. It was in a busy street called Via Laietana. Our room was expensive – $103 for one night, but it was a good hotel in the best area of the city.

We did a lot of things on our holiday. We went to a road in the city centre called La Rambla. It had some interesting places on it. It had cafés, restaurants and places to go shopping. It was nice, but there was a lot of noise and traffic.

The weather was great. It was hot and there was no rain! We went to a swimming pool near our hotel every evening.

Well, it's late and I'm tired now. I want to go to bed! How was your holiday in Japan?

Write soon,
Berat

I stayed in a hostel called the Bali Green Hostel for five days and I shared a room with six other people. The room cost $16 for one night. I went to the hostel very late at night, but that wasn't a problem. There was someone there – he worked all night. My room was very clean and my bed was new. There were towels and soap in the bathroom. The hostel didn't have a restaurant, but it had a café. The food and service were good and the café wasn't expensive. The hostel was near a supermarket and a beautiful beach. I did some interesting things in Bali. One day, I went on a trip to Kuta with some new friends. I saw a very old temple there. I had lunch at a nice restaurant and talked to lots of local people. Another day I went shopping at a market. I loved my holiday!

I love Netflix™!

by Antonia Branca

I don't really like watching programmes on TV, but I love watching things on Netflix! You need the internet to watch Netflix, but it doesn't usually cost very much. Netflix has new films and series every month – they're from a lot of different countries.

I usually watch two or three series at the same time. I'm watching a series called Call the Midwife at the moment. It's about nurses in the UK in the 1950s and 1960s. The nurses (called midwives) help mothers and babies in an area of London, in England.

I'm also watching a series called House. It's about a doctor. His name is Gregory House and he works in a big hospital in New Jersey in the US. No-one really likes Dr House. Often he's not very nice, but he's always there for people that aren't well and need his help.

I don't only watch series on Netflix. Last night, I watched an interesting film called Shall We Dance? It's about a man and his problems. The man's name is Shohei Sugiyama and he lives in Tokyo, in Japan. He doesn't like his life or his job in an office. He's very sad, but then he goes to dancing lessons and he meets new friends. His life changes and he's happy.

Are you watching anything good at the moment? No? Try Netflix!

Reading

6 Read the four texts. Are they about:

a different places to live? [ ]
b different countries? [ ]
c different families? [ ]

Learner tip

When you read you often find words that you don't know – don't worry! Look at the word. Is it a noun (e.g. chair, sofa)? Is it a verb (e.g. get, make)? Or is it an adjective (e.g. big, beautiful)? Read the words next to the word you don't know. They will help you understand it.

7 Are the sentences true (T), false (F) or doesn't the text say (DS)? Circle T, F or DS.

Home is where the ♥ is! Why do you love your home? Tell us about it!

I live in a small house in a village called Ditchling. I love it because it's on a quiet street. I used to live in a big city and there was always a lot of noise! I didn't like that. My house is small but I have everything I need. There are four rooms: a kitchen, a living room, a bathroom and my bedroom. My favourite room is the kitchen. It's orange and I love the colour. It has a table and chairs and nice pictures on the walls.

Jackie

I don't have my own place, so I'm staying in my friend Rajeet's flat at the moment. The flat's in the city centre. I like the living room because it has two big windows, so it gets a lot of sun. It's a really nice room. The flat also has a small kitchen, two bedrooms and a bathroom. It's great for two people because we can sit and talk together when we want, but we can go to our own rooms when we want to study or read.

Sahil

I'm sharing a really nice flat with three friends at the moment. The flat's new and in a good area of Boston, in the US. I have my own bedroom. I have a bed and a chair in my room, but I can't have a table in there because my room's very small. But that's OK because we have a big living room and we all like to sit in there and watch TV or listen to music.

Brittany

I live with my wife and children in a house in Athens, Greece. The house is nice, but very old. My mother's mum – my grandmother – gave it to me. There are six rooms in the house. We have a living room with a beautiful red sofa, a kitchen with a big fridge and lots of cupboards, a bathroom and three bedrooms. From the kitchen window, we have a great view of Athens!

READING

Language note

A fact sheet is a piece of paper which gives information about something.

7 Read the three fact sheets on page 55 quickly. What things do they talk about?

	Denmark	Lebanon	Japan education
environment	✓
food health system
sport weather

www.frenglish.ru

Denmark is a happy country – second in the world! There are lots of reasons for that.

- Denmark has lots of fresh air and clean water. It also has beautiful islands, beaches, lakes and forests.
- The Danish think that family and friends are very important. They love staying in and going out together. One of the things they love to do is watch football. Football is Denmark's favourite game. At the moment, there are 300,000 players and 1,614 teams in Denmark.

Fun fact: The Danish have a special word for feeling comfortable and happy because you're together with people you really like – it's hygge.

Japan is a small country with about 127 million people living there. That's a lot of people, but it's a great country to live in.

- Japan has some of the best hospitals in the world, and they don't cost anything! The doctors are very good and Japanese people usually live for a very long time.
- The Japanese think that going to school and studying hard is very important. Japanese students usually do really well in exams. They know that going to university helps them get jobs and have better lives.

Fun fact: The Japanese name for Japan is Nihon or Nippon which means 'from the sun'.

Lebanon is a very old, beautiful country. People started to build villages there about 7,000 years ago.

- Lebanon has lots of sun in the summer, with some rain. In December, there's some snow in the mountains.

- The Lebanese love food – making it and eating it! They love to sit and share food with others. The Lebanese eat quite a lot of chicken and lamb with fresh vegetables.

Fun fact: A favourite dish in Lebanon is called baba ghanoush – people make it with a vegetable called an aubergine.

Hi Aliyah,
How are you? I'm really well. I love living abroad – Wales is great. It's cold here now, but I love the rain and snow.
I really like my university – the teachers are great. The university's in a good area and I'm very safe when I walk there from my flat every morning.
I'm sharing the flat with my new friend, Joanna – she's from the US and we do the same course at university.
Last week, she had a very bad cold and she had to go to hospital. But it was OK because the hospitals in Wales are really good and it doesn't cost anything to see a doctor.
She's much better now.
I'm taking exams at the moment. I'm studying quite a lot, but now I need a break – I want some fresh air.
I'm sending a photo. Write soon,
Zara

Summer Fun for Everyone!

by Janet McClean

Yes, it's August in Scotland again, and to many people that means one thing – it's time for the Edinburgh Festival Fringe! I talked to Ian Cameron, a local comedian, about this great festival.

Janet: Hi, Ian! Thanks for talking to me today. First, I wanted to ask you about how the festival started – can you tell us about that?
Ian: Yes, I can, Janet. I'm from Scotland – Edinburgh – and I do shows at the Fringe, so I know a lot about it! The Fringe started in 1947, and in its first year there were only eight theatre companies there.
Janet: Really? The Fringe is a lot bigger now!
Ian: Yes, it is! Last year, there were 3,398 shows!
Janet: Tell us, Ian, what kinds of things can you do there?
Ian: Well, lots of things. You can go to plays and exhibitions. You can see circus shows, music shows, dance shows, children's shows – and my favourite – comedy shows.
Janet: Where can you do these things?
Ian: All over Edinburgh!
Janet: Great! How long does the Fringe last, Ian?
Ian: It starts on 3rd August and it lasts for three weeks.
Janet: And what's the weather usually like in August in Scotland?
Ian: The weather's sometimes warm and dry – usually it rains.
Janet: Well, thank you, Ian. What are you going to see this week?
Ian: Well, I'm going to see my favourite band play on the Royal Mile.
Janet: When do you do your show?
Ian: Next Friday – in Appleton Towers at Edinburgh University!
Janet: Great! I'll meet you there!

Hello Beatrice!
Here I am in beautiful Jamaica. I'm staying in a small hotel in Negril and I'm having a great time. It's hot and sunny – 29 degrees – here today, and it's going to stay like this for the next three or four days. There's a beautiful beach near the hotel – it's busy, but the sea is really warm. Yesterday, I met some interesting people from Croatia. We went to see a local band – it was fun! I'm going to have dinner with them tonight and we're going to Montego Bay tomorrow. We're going to go to the main square and have a coffee – a cold one! Back next week; I'll meet you then.
Bye for now,
Noel

Reading

7 Read about the people on the webpage quickly. Why are they famous? Circle the correct words.

1 Alexander Graham Bell inventor / writer
2 Florence Nightingale nurse / doctor

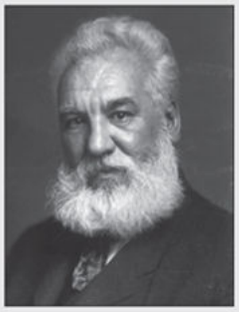
In this week's Who's Who, we look at two more famous people who have helped to change the way we live.



Alexander Graham Bell, the great inventor, was born in Scotland, on 3rd March, 1847. His mother and father taught him at home for a few years, but he also went to school and university. In 1870, Bell and his parents moved to Canada. The next year, Bell moved to the US where he started teaching people who couldn't hear, and in 1872 he started a school to help these people. During his years in the US, Bell worked on a new invention that was later called 'the telephone' and on 10th March, 1876 he used it to talk to someone for the first time. After a long, good life, Bell died in Nova Scotia, Canada on August 2nd, 1922.

Did you know? After Alexander Graham Bell died, telephone lines in the US and Canada were 'closed' for one minute – people couldn't use their phones. He was famous because of his invention.

Florence Nightingale was born in Florence, Italy on 12th May 1820. She moved to England with her family in 1821. When Nightingale was a child, there weren't a lot of schools for girls, so her father taught her at home. Nightingale always loved helping people and animals when they weren't well and, when she was 17, she knew that she wanted to become a nurse. She is famous because she understood that more people got better in clean hospitals. She changed people's ideas about health and being clean. Nightingale died on August 13th, 1910 – she was ninety.

Did you know? Florence Nightingale is called 'The Lady of the Lamp' because she didn't sleep very much and often visited people in hospital during the night with her lamp.

My Life (until now!)

by Gill Fulmore

I was born in Germany on 2nd September, 1985, but I'm not German. My father was in the American army and he worked in a place called Wiesbaden, in Germany. My parents lived there for two years and then they had a baby – it was me!

We moved back to the US in 1988, when I was three. When I was six I started school, and I finished when I was seventeen in 2002. I wanted to become a writer, so I went to university. After I got a Master's in 2007, I started working in a publishing house.

I met a man at work, and he became my husband – we got married on 1st July, 2014. We don't have any children now, but we plan to have lots!

6 Complete Gill's timeline with the words in the box.

15 July

Dear Sir or Madam,

I am writing about a visit to your hotel in Corfu. I was there on holiday from 1st July to 7th July.

[1] F _ _ _ _, we arrived at the hotel. We were hot and we wanted to go to the beach, but it was a long way. We needed to get a taxi to get there, and it was busy and noisy.

[2] T _ _ _, we wanted to get something to eat – some special local dishes. Your hotel restaurant doesn't have any Greek food. It only has things like sandwiches, burgers and chips. In the [3] _ _ _, we went to a restaurant in the main square for local food.

I did not enjoy my visit and the holiday was expensive. I'll use a different travel company for my next holiday.

Yours faithfully,

Gabriella Hollis

International 'rules' for giving gifts

When we travel for work, studies or fun, we often buy gifts for the people we meet to thank them or say goodbye. Good idea! BUT you should know about the 'rules' for gifts in different countries.

Brazil
People in Brazil like to get things like flowers, fruit and jewellery for gifts.

Rule #1! Don't give a Brazilian anything they can cut their hand with. They think that a gift like that means you want to 'cut' being their friend!

China
People in China like it when people give them some money for a gift.

Rule #2! Don't worry when a Chinese person doesn't open their gift in front of you – Chinese people wait until the 'giver' leaves and then they open their gifts.

India
People in India like sweets, flowers and money for gifts. They also like it when people give their children toys.

Rule #3! Don't give an Indian person a gift with your left hand. Give it with your right hand or they often don't want it!

Japan
People in Japan like flowers, sweets and pens for gifts. They also like gifts that show where the 'giver' is from, so T-shirts with your country's name printed on it are great gifts.

Rule #4! Don't worry when a Japanese person doesn't take your gift the first time you offer it – you need to do it three times or they don't want to take it!

Unit 4

4.1

A: Is there a restaurant near here?
B: No, there isn't.
A: OK. Is there a café? I'm very hungry!
B: No, sorry, there isn't one on this road.
A: Oh. Is there a supermarket?
B: Yes, there's one next to the cinema! They have sandwiches.

4.2

1 A: Do you know a town called Southsea?
B: No, is it far?
2 On Park Road, there's a clothes shop called Nice and New. I often go shopping there.
3 There's a nice restaurant called Angelo's near my house. It has great pizza!
4 A: There's a cinema called the Odeon there.
B: Yes, do you want to see a film?
5 A: Do you know a café called The CoffeeShop?
B: Yes, it's very expensive.

4.3

A: Excuse me. Do you know a café called the Big Cappuccino on this road?
B: Er ... No, I don't. I don't know the town.
A: Oh, OK.
B: There are some cafés near here, but I don't know their names.
A: Oh.
B: Walk down this road. I think there's a café at the end.
A: Oh, yes – it is at the end of a road!
B: Maybe that's it. Down on the left; next to the park.
A: Yes, maybe. Thank you.

C: Hello. Excuse me.
D: Hello.
C: Is there a cash machine near here?
D: A cash machine ... No, there isn't a cash machine, but there's a bank on Maple Road. Down there. The first on the left.
C: Sorry, can you say that again?
D: Sorry. Down there. The first road. Go left.
C: The second road?
D: No, the first road. It's a big road called Maple Road. The bank is on the right.
C: Oh, great! Thank you!

E: Hello, excuse me. Excuse me.
F: Hi. Sorry. Yes.
E: Is there a swimming pool near here?
F: A swimming pool ... er... yes. There's one down there.
E: How far is it?
F: Er ... I don't know – 250 metres? It's near a hospital called St Ann's.
E: OK – near the hospital.
F: Yes – St Ann's is on the corner, on the right, and the swimming pool is on the left.
E: OK. Thanks.

3 A: This is difficult. Can we have a break?
B: OK.
4 A: Do we have homework?
B: Yes. Can you do Exercises 4 and 5?
5 A: We're cold.
B: OK. Can you close the window?
6 A: Can we have food in the class?
B: No, you can't.

UNIT 5

5.1

J= Jason, W = Woman

W: Do you like my new flat, Jason?
J: Yes, it's great! Are there any interesting places near here?
W: Yes, there are lots of good places. You like museums. There are two interesting museums in this area.
J: Cool! And I want to go shopping. Are there any shops near here?
W: No, there are no shops, but there's a great market in the Old Town.
J: Is there a café in the Old Town?
W: Yes, there's a café called Coffee Express. It's really nice. Do you want to go there?
J: Yes, I need a coffee!

5.2

A: Hello there. Are there any places to sit and have lunch near here?
B: Not on this road. There's a restaurant on North Road, but the best place is the Old Town. There are some good cafés there.
A: Great, thanks!

C: I want to go shopping this afternoon. Where's the best place to go?
D: Well, there's a supermarket in the city centre. It's about forty minutes from here. But there's a market here, in the village. It's very good. Lots of people go there.

E: Excuse me. I need to get some money. Are there any banks on this road?
F: No, there are no banks, but there's a cash machine. It's near the hospital.

G: Is there a good museum near here? I want to go somewhere interesting this afternoon.
H: Yes. There are lots of interesting places. Try the City Museum. It's on a street called Gosposka. Number 15.

I: I want to have a walk. Where's the best place to go?
J: Try the area round the Old Square. I walk there every day. There are lots of nice places to see and the main square is great.

D: To a city in France – Cannes.
C: Cool!

E: Where are you going?
F: To the Old Town – it's an interesting place.
E: Yes, I love it.

G: Where are you going?
H: To the main square. I want to sit and have a coffee.
G: Can I come?

I: Where are you going?
J: To Berlin.
I: Single or return?

Unit 6

6.1

1 A: Hi, Maria. Sorry, I'm late.
B: That's OK. How was your journey?
2 A: I don't have any money for lunch.
B: Don't worry. I have some.
3 A: Sorry, I'm late. I went to the wrong flat.
B: That's OK. You're here now!
4 A: I can't come to the cinema. I had a problem at home.

C: Hi, Mia. How are you?
M: Good, thanks.
C: Sorry, I'm late. I had a problem in the city. There was a lot of traffic in the centre.
M: That's OK – I know. It was on TV. How was work?
C: It wasn't very good. The shop was very busy, but there was no-one to help me.
M: Oh, I'm sorry. Are you hungry?
C: Yes, I didn't have lunch this afternoon. What are we doing this evening?
M: We're going to that restaurant on South Street.
C: Oh. I didn't like that restaurant. It wasn't very big and there were a lot of people there.
M: Don't worry. Do you want to stay at home?
C: Is that OK? I did a lot of work today and I'm tired.
M: Of course! I can get a pizza.
C: OK, good. Sorry, Mia. I went to bed late last night. I want to go to bed early tonight.

Unit 7

7.1

T= Tomas, W= woman

W: Hi, Tomas. How are you? Did you have a good weekend? What did you do?
T: Not much. I stayed in my flat and read.
W: Do you read a lot?
T: Yes.
W: Me, too. What do you like reading?
T: Books, usually. And you?
W: I prefer magazines, but I read The Year of the Flood and I really liked that.
T: Really? I read it, but I didn't like it. I prefer The Handmaid's Tale. That's my favourite book.

A= Akeno, W= woman

W: Hey, Akeno. Did you go out yesterday?
A: Yes, I went to the gym with my friend, Hans.
W: Do you do a lot of exercise?
A: Yes. I usually go running every evening and I often play football on Sunday afternoons. Do you like doing exercise?
W: Not really, I prefer listening to music. But I like dancing.
A: Do you have a favourite singer?
W: Yes, Tae-yeon. She's a great singer!
A: Oh, right, I don't know her. Do you have a favourite band?
W: Rainbow!
A: Rainbow from the UK or Rainbow from South Korea?
W: South Korea, of course!
A: I prefer Rainbow from the UK. They're an old band, but they're great!

www.frenglish.ru

J= Joseph, W= woman

W: Hello, Joseph. What did you do yesterday?
J: I stayed at home and watched TV.
W: Oh. Did you watch anything good?
J: Yes, a programme called Father Brown – I love it.
W: Yes, me, too. What else do you watch on TV?
J: Different series from the UK. Sometimes I watch programmes about travel.
W: OK. Do you have a favourite series?
J: Not really. I love everything English.
W: Right.

B = Becky, F= Fran

F: But my son said ... Oh, sorry, Becky. I need to answer this.
B: That's OK, Fran.
F: Thanks. Hello? Oh, hi, David. How're you? ...
Oh, OK. Don't worry. ...
OK. Thank you for calling. Have a good trip. Bye.
Right ... sorry.
B: That's OK. Was that your brother?
F: No, a client. He's flying to Rome today, so he can't come to our meeting tomorrow.
B: Oh. Why is he going to Rome then?
F: There's a problem in their Italian office. It's OK, he wants to meet on Friday now.
B: Oh, really? Can you do that?
F: Well, I can, but ... .
B: Is there a problem?
F: I'm going to meet another client in the morning.
B: What time does your client want to meet on Friday?
F: Three o'clock in the afternoon – I can do that. But I'm going to have a busy day!

A: How's your brother? Is he OK?
B: John? He's great. He's working at a school in the US now.
A: Oh, really? Is he a teacher?
B: Yes, he's a Spanish teacher.
A: Oh. That's a good job.
B: Yes. He's making a lot of money and he loves the US.
A: Oh, good.
B: I'm going to visit him next week.
A: Oh great, say hello.

P: Don't worry. They're coming. Look, here's Joseph.
J: Hello! Where's Adam? And where's Sofia?
P: Hi, Joseph. It's OK, they're coming. Adam's on the train now and Sofia is walking here from the station.
E: Oh. Here's Sofia. ... Why didn't you take a taxi?
S: It's a really nice evening – I wanted to walk. And it isn't far from the station.
P: Oh, look! There's Adam.
A: Sorry, I'm a bit late.

J = John, P = Pam

J: Hello, Pam! How was your holiday?
P: Great! I went to the Philippines.
J: I went there a few months ago. It was nice, but I ate some fish and I felt really sick.
P: Oh, no!

C = Chan, L = Lee

L: Hi, Chan. I didn't see you at the gym last Friday.
C: Hello, Lee. No, I had a bad cold. I didn't go out last week.
L: Are you feeling better?
C: Oh, yes. Much better, thanks.

I = Ivan, R = Rob, S = Steven

R: Steven, this is Ivan.
S: Hi, Ivan.
I: Hi, Steven. I think I know you! You work in the local bank.
S: No, I worked in the bank before, but I hurt my back three years ago. Now, I work at home.
I: Oh, I'm sorry!
S: That's OK. My back's OK now, and I love my new job!

D = Dylan, L = Lin

D: Hi, Lin. Are you feeling OK?
L: Hi, Dylan. Yes, I'm fine, but my husband, Joe, was in hospital.
D: Oh no! What happened?
L: He was in the kitchen and he broke something – a dish – and he cut his hand.
D: When was that?
L: This morning.

M: Hi, Carol. Come in. ... Oh, no! You're wet. Do you want a towel?
C: No, don't worry, Miguel, thanks. Oh, I hate the rain! Is it going to stay like this?
M: No, I don't think so. I think the weather's going to change. Why? Do you have plans?
C: Yes, I'm going into Madrid to go shopping tomorrow, and I hate driving in the rain.
M: Me too. I hate the winter when it's like this. I talked to my Australian friend, Loretta, today. It's summer in Australia now. It's 35 degrees in Melbourne and she's going to have a barbecue with some friends!
C: Nice! I got an email from my brother, James, this morning. It's wet and windy everywhere in England today – it's like here in Spain.
M: Is it cold there now?
C: Yes, I think so. James wrote that he's going to make dinner for some friends this evening and they're going to eat in front of the fire.
M: It's very cold in Canada now, too. My friend, Lucas, is working in Montreal. I talked to him last night. There's lots of snow there, and he's going skiing in the mountains on Sunday.
C: Really? I love skiing.
M: I prefer summer sports – swimming at the beach is my favourite.
C: Well, we can't swim at the beach now!
M: No, but we can go to a pool. My gym has a pool, and I'm going swimming tomorrow afternoon.

A = Ava, T = Thomas

A: Do you have plans for the weekend, Thomas?
T: No, nothing special. And you?
A: No, I don't have any plans. Do you want to go somewhere and listen to some music?
T: Yeah, great.
A: How about a club? Glorious Sons are playing at Club 22 tonight.
T: I don't really like clubs. I'd prefer a concert in the park.

A = Alan, M = Meghan

A: Are you doing anything on Saturday, Meghan?
M: No, I don't think so. Do you want to do something together?
A: OK. How about a classical concert?
M: I don't really like classical concerts. I'd prefer a comedy show. There's one at the café on Maple Street on Saturday night.
A: OK. I'm going shopping at five. I'll meet you after that.

2 A: I've finished my exams, so I'm going to have a party. Do you want to come?
B: I'd love to. What day?
A: Saturday.
B: Oh, no. Sorry, I can't. I'm going away for work.
A: OK.

3 A: I need a weekend away, so I'm going camping. Do you want to come?
B: Sure. What dates?
A: The fifth and sixth.
B: Great!

4 A: There's a conference in Madrid next week. Can you come?
B: Maybe. What day?
A: Next Friday.
B: OK, I think so, but I need to check my diary.

11.2

T = Tonya, A = Ali

T: Hi, Ali. Did you know today's the first of September?
A: What? Already? Where did the summer go?
T: Yes, I know. Oh, well. I like September – it's not hot.
A: Me, too. It's my birthday in the second week of September. I'm going to have a party at Luigi's, the Italian restaurant on South Street. Do you want to come?
T: Sure. I'd love to. That's a great restaurant. What date?
A: The ninth.
T: I think that's OK, but I need to check my diary. Can I tell you later?
A: Sure.
T: OK, good. I'm celebrating this month, too. I married Larry ten years ago. It's our anniversary!
A: Oh, nice. When is it?
T: It's in the middle of September – on the twentieth.
A: Are you and Larry going anywhere to celebrate ?
T: No, we're going to stay at home and have a big barbecue. Lots of our friends are coming. Can you come?
A: Maybe. What day?
T: Saturday – in the afternoon – at three.
A: Sure! I can come. What's your address?
T: Fourteen New Road.
A: Great, thanks.
T: And after that, it's that conference in Tokyo at the end of September.
A: That's right! What dates?
T: We're going on the 26th and back on the 29th.
A: Is your boss coming?
