LESSON 9

WARM-UP | 5 minutes

(T–S, S–T) Books closed. Ask Ss the best story they have ever read. Elicit names of stories from different Ss. Then ask them who wrote the story, what happened, why they liked it, etc.

PRACTICE | 30–32 minutes

1 (S–S, S–T) Ask Ss to turn to p. 26 and look at Exercise 1. Put Ss in pairs and give them 2–3 minutes to tell each other about a surprising or interesting thing that happened to them on holiday. When they have finished, invite individual Ss to share what their partners said.

2 (S–S, T–S, S–T) Ss do Exercise 2 individually. Give them 2 minutes to read Paul's story quickly and choose the best title. Ask Ss to check their answer in pairs before doing a class check. Elicit why the other two options are not correct.

TIP

See Culture notes in TB p. 172 for information about Cornwall.

3 (S–S, T–S, S–T) Ss do Exercise 3 individually. Give them 2 minutes and then 1 extra minute to check their answers in pairs before doing a class check. Then ask some basic comprehension questions to check understanding of the story, e.g. Where did the family decide to go? What happened on the way to the village? What was Paul's dad's surprise? Did Paul understand that something strange was going on? Do they still have that cottage?

4 (S–S, S–T, T–S) Refer Ss to Exercise 4. Tell them to complete the examples in the WRITING FOCUS with the words in purple in the story. Give Ss 2 minutes and then 1 extra minute to check their answers in pairs before doing a class check. Tell Ss that there are certain rules to write a good story. Read through the WRITING FOCUS with Ss. Make sure Ss understand each rule and the meaning of all the phrases. Wherever possible, suggest alternative phrases to replace the ones given there. Either give some examples with each phrase or ask Ss to come up with some.

5 (S–S, T–S, S–T) Ss do Exercise 5 individually. Give them 2–3 minutes and then 1 extra minute to check their answers in pairs before doing a class check.

6 (T–S, S–T) Exercise 6. Ask Ss to choose one of the extracts in Exercise 5 and think about what happened next. When they are ready, invite individual Ss to share their ideas with the class.

7 (S–S, T–S, S–T) Refer Ss to Exercise 7. Tell them to complete the LANGUAGE FOCUS with the underlined linkers in the story. Give Ss 2 minutes to do this and then 1 extra minute to check their answers in pairs before doing a class check. Go through the LANGUAGE FOCUS with the class. Wherever possible, suggest alternative linkers to replace the ones given there. Either give some examples with each linker or ask Ss to come up with some. Write the examples on the board if necessary.

8 (S–S, T–S, S–T) Ss do Exercise 8 individually. Give them 2–3 minutes and then 1 extra minute to check their answers in pairs before doing a class check. Ask some basic comprehension questions to check understanding of the story.

EXTRA ACTIVITY

Before getting Ss to do Exercise 8, tell Ss to close their books and give them a copy of the story with the phrases in italics blanked out. They will still be able to understand the overall meaning of the story. Then ask Ss to think of possible linkers to complete the gaps. This will help them to identify the purpose of each sentence. Finally, put the missing linkers on the board (in the wrong order) for them to compare with their own ideas and complete the gaps.

LESSON 10

PRODUCTION | 38 minutes

1 (T–S, S–T) Refer Ss to Exercise 9. Give Ss 1 minute to read quickly through the rubric and the writing task and to underline the key words. Elicit key words from Ss and check understanding. Give Ss 15 minutes to write a story ending with I was so relieved. It was finally over! Remind them to use the WRITING FOCUS and the LANGUAGE FOCUS to help them. Also, tell them that they can use Paul's story as a model for their writing. As they do this, walk around monitoring, supporting and taking notes of any problems.

2 (S–S) When they have finished writing, tell Ss to self-check their stories.

3 (S–S) Then put Ss in pairs and tell them to swap their stories. Ss should now check if their partner's story includes linkers and if everything is clear and then they give it back.

4 (S–S) Give Ss another 5 minutes to rewrite their stories before handing them in for your evaluation and feedback. Finally, do a class feedback session.

5 (T–S, S–T) Give Ss a model text for Exercise 9 and ask them to compare it with their own. Alternatively, this could be omitted or could be done in a following lesson if you are short of time.

HOMEWORK

1 Give Ss WB pp. 26–27 as homework.

2 Ask Ss to prepare notes about an adventure film that they have seen. What happened? What happened in the end? Students make short notes to talk about the film.

CONTINGENCY PLAN
