4.2 GRAMMAR LESSONS 2–3

OVERVIEW

Duration: 40+40 minutes

Objectives:
- Can participate in short conversations in routine contexts on topics of interest (C) (GSE 41 – A2+).

Resources:
- SB pp. 48, 141
- TB: Culture notes p. 173; Photocopiable Resource 20 pp. 205, 234
- WB p. 48
- Online resources: Extra digital activities, Grammar Checkpoint; Teacher's resources, Video 16 – Grammar Animation

LESSON 2

WARM-UP | 5–7 minutes

(S–S, T–S, S–T) Refer Ss to Exercise 1. Give them 1 minute to tick the places where they have slept and then 2 extra minutes to tell their partner about it. Then elicit ideas from different Ss. Ask where else they have slept and what the most unusual place was.

PRESENTATION | 10–12 minutes

1 (T–S, S–T) Refer Ss to Exercise 2. Give them 2 minutes to read US TODAY. Then elicit what couchsurfing is and check. Ask Ss whether they would like to do it or not. Elicit ideas from different Ss with reasons why and have a brief class discussion.

TIP

See Culture notes in TB p. 173 for information about couchsurfing.

2 (S–S, S–T, T–S) Refer Ss to Exercise 3. Give them 1 minute to complete the GRAMMAR FOCUS and then 2 extra minutes to read the examples in pairs and discuss the rules. Then go through the GRAMMAR FOCUS with the class. Give Ss more examples of how for and since are used and when they cannot be used, e.g. I have been in this class since/for … , I have been in this school since/for … . Then write on the board: I was in primary school for … Elicit from Ss why this is the Past Simple and not the Present Perfect (because the Ss are not in primary school any longer). Elicit why Ss cannot use since with the Past Simple (because it suggests an unfinished activity which continues until the present moment). Ask Ss to come up with more examples of Present Perfect sentences.

PRACTICE | 12 minutes

1 (S–T, T–S) Ss do Exercise 4 individually. Give them 3 minutes and then play the recording so that they can check their answers. Recheck how Present Perfect affirmative and negative sentences and questions are formed and elicit when for and since are used. Then ask some basic comprehension questions to check understanding, e.g. When did the couchsurfer become a member? How much did he pay for different types of accommodation which he has stayed in? When did the host become a couchsurfing host? Who is Miki? When did she meet her? What do they have in common? Why doesn't Miki feel homesick?

2 (S–S, S–T, T–S) Refer Ss to Exercise 5. Give them 3 minutes to complete the sentences and then 1 extra minute to check their answers in pairs before doing a class check. Monitor and make notes of any problems Ss are having. Ask Ss to give reasons for their choice of for or since.

3 (S–S, T–S, S–T) Refer Ss to Exercise 6. Give them 3 minutes to write true sentences from the prompts. Monitor and help if necessary. When they have finished, do the class check as an oral drill to involve everyone.

PRODUCTION | 7–9 minutes

1 (S–S, S–T, T–S) Refer Ss to Exercise 7. Put them in pairs and give them 3 minutes to write as many questions as they can about the sentences in Exercise 6. Monitor and check.

2 (S–S) Tell Ss that they will take turns to ask and answer the questions they have written. Tell the pairs that only the Ss asking the questions can have their books open, and that the Ss answering the questions should keep their books closed. Explain that this will help them to listen more carefully. Encourage Ss to give full answers. Model the activity:
A: Who is your neighbour?
B: My neighbour is Barry.

A: How long have you known him?
B: I've known him for four years.

A: Where did you meet?
B: We met at school.
Then give Ss 4 minutes to act out the conversations. As Ss interact with each other, walk around taking notes of what you hear. When they have finished, invite some pairs to present their dialogues in front of the class. Then give some feedback based on your notes.

LESSON 3

WARM-UP | 3–5 minutes

1 (T–S) Explain to Ss that they are going to watch an animated cartoon which will give them more context for the grammar.

2 (T–S, S–T) Ask Ss a few warm-up questions such as: Who are the people? What do they do? Where are they? What are they doing? Can you describe the room? Play Video 16 – Grammar Animation from the Teacher's resources and stop after the introduction (00:22). At this stage Ss should have understood that they are going to watch Sarah's interview with the actor, Henry Jenkins.

PRESENTATION | 7–8 minutes

1 (T–S, S–T) Ask Ss to watch the clip carefully and answer the following questions: How long has Sarah worked for a local television station? How long has Henry Jenkins lived in his house? What is in his huge wardrobe? When did he start acting? When did he get the ball? How old is his mobile phone? How long has he had his shoes? Whose photo is on the wall? How long has he known her? Where does Sarah go after the interview? Who is there? What does she tell her friend about? What is Sarah's wardrobe full of? How long has Sarah had them? Play the video with the subtitles off.

2 (T–S, S–T) Play the whole video once again, with subtitles. Ask Ss to pay special attention to the verb tense (the Present Perfect).

PRACTICE | 10–12 minutes

1 (T–S, S–T) Explain to Ss that the animation provides more context for the topic of the lesson. Ask them if they can remember any sentences in the Present Perfect from the video. Write them on the board. Do not worry if Ss do not remember all the sentences – use the script to read out the sentences with the target language and put the missing ones on the board. Then recheck the rules for the Present Perfect and when to use for and since.

2 (T–S, S–T) For Ss who still do not understand the Present Perfect, use the teacher's explanation part of Video 16 – Grammar Animation (02:17–04:17). If you feel they are doing well and can list a few examples and provide explanation, then you can omit the teacher's part.

TIP

Play the animation for a third time in weaker groups or if Ss really want to watch it. Then pause after sentences where there is the Present Perfect. Ask Ss to decide why the Present Perfect is used and how the affirmative and negative sentences and questions are formed. You can ask them to repeat a sentence, turning the subtitles off, especially where they had problems with a given example.

Alternatively, go to GRAMMAR REFERENCE AND PRACTICE 4.2 on p. 141 and ask Ss to complete Exercises 1–6 individually. Do a quick class check. This could also be given as homework.

PRODUCTION | 15 minutes

(S–S) Explain to Ss that they are going to prepare similar dialogues in groups. Explain that the dialogues won't have to be exactly the same, but they will have to use some of the language on the board. Divide Ss in groups of three and let them prepare the dialogue. Ss should present their dialogues in front of the class, to make it more engaging.

HOMEWORK

1 Give Ss WB p. 48 as homework.

2 Ask Ss to prepare for a 10–20-minute Grammar Quiz: Assessment Package, Unit 4.2, Grammar.

3 Ask Ss to prepare to discuss the photo on p. 49.

CONTINGENCY PLAN

Refer to TB p. 48 for extra activities.

TIP

See the lesson plan for Unit 4 Video Worksheets, FOCUS VLOG worksheet, for extra practice of the grammar topic.
