Group A

Listening

Exercise 1

1 C: The speaker suggests they 'meet up at half past one', and asks him if he wants to 'come round here' (speaker's home) and adds 'or shall I come to yours?' (friend's home).
2 B: The announcer says 'there was a surprise win this afternoon'.
3 C: The boy's teacher asks him if he 'has any experience of working in a hospital?', and he replies, 'Yes, I've done some voluntary work.'
4 A : The girl says she thought the exam was 'tough', and that she 'couldn't even understand the last question'. The boy agrees by saying 'I know. I thought it was hard too.'
5 A: The speaker is showing people, probably tourists, the place 'where the young William Shakespeare had his lessons' with 'about forty other boys'. The speaker goes on to say that the boys 'would study Latin, Greek and Mathematics'.

Exercise 2

1 F: Ella is surprised to find Tom still studying and suggests he has a rest from it. She says, 'Why don't you take a break, at least?' Then she says, 'you should relax, or you'll make yourself ill.'
2 F: Tom is not confident about doing well in the exam. He says, 'I don't have time (to take a break). I've got to revise my Physics.'
3 T: Ella tells Tom 'I think you're doing too much.'
4 T: Ella suggests they 'go and play basketball tomorrow, like we did last week. I enjoyed that.' and Tom agrees by saying 'So did I.'
5 F: Tom wants to watch a quiz show during his break and says, 'It's my favourite programme' but Ella doesn't agree. She says, 'I hate it' and 'I can't stand anything like that.'

Use of English

Exercise 3

1 A with
2 B offer
3 D as
4 C get
5 D up

Exercise 4

1 who/that
2 at
3 of
4 if
5 out
6 used
7 than

Exercise 5

1 went
2 since
3 enough to buy
4 have to / need to
5 would do
6 made me (feel)
7 puts herself
8 hadn't finished

Reading

Exercise 6

1 C: It says that da Vinci's drawings were 'the first known robot designs'.
2 A: The writer says, 'Now, of course, robots are everywhere'.
3 B: The text says, 'Science-fiction writers... are now predicting that intelligent robots... will exist quite soon'.
4 A: The robot with a heart 'recognizes sound, movement and touch'.
5 C: Mark thinks robots 'will be capable of doing anything that we can'.

Exercise 7

1 C: The sentence that follows the gap explains why it's a good idea to first see the thing we want to buy.
2 F: Sentence F says that he became the owner of a very expensive car. The part after the gap explains how he did it.
3 D: This paragraph explains the steps Steven had to take to end up with a Porsche.
4 A: The text says that Steven 'isn't the first person to do something like this'. Sentence A gives example of another lucky guy.
5 E: Here the author talks about how becoming a celebrity influenced Steven and Kyle. Sentence E says Steven wants to sell his Porsche. The following sentence explains why he wants to do it.

© Pearson 2020 PHOTOCOPIABLE Focus 2 SECOND EDITION (A2+/B1)

Group B

Listening

Exercise 1

1 B: The speaker says 'I thought we could meet up at half past one'.
2 A: The announcer says Andy Norris 'scored all three goals'.
3 B: The boy's mother, who is a doctor herself, says 'it's a hard life'.
4 C: They both think today's exam was hard. The girl says 'the Maths was tough today. I couldn't even understand the last question.' and the boy replies 'I know! I thought it was hard too.'
5 B: The speaker says that Shakespeare 'performed plays in the original Greek and Latin' with the other boys in his school.

Exercise 2

1 T: Ella is surprised to find Tom still studying and suggests he has a rest from it. She asks, 'Are you still working?' and then she says, 'Why don't you take a break, at least?'
2 F: This is not true because Tom says, 'I've got to revise my Physics. The exam's next week.' He also tells Ella, 'You don't have to do any work. You know it all already.' So he thinks that Ella is better prepared that he is.
3 T: Tom says to Ella 'You got top marks in the last test we had'.
4 F: Ella suggests that they play basketball, but Tom says, 'I'm not in the mood, not till after the exams'.
5 F: Tom says 'I think I'll go and watch Win a Million. You know, the quiz show.' but Ella says she 'can't stand anything like that' and leaves, saying 'Bye Tom. See you.'

Use of English

Exercise 3

1 B about
2 D staying
3 B such a
4 A as
5 C rewarding

Exercise 4

1 where
2 never
3 many
4 as
5 are
6 need/have
7 were

Exercise 5

1 helping
2 hasn't tidied
3 was given
4 few
5 had worked
6 enough money
7 cut
8 unless

Reading

Exercise 6

1 B: He 'drew mechanical figures that looked like men'.
2 A: The text says that robots carry out 'all sorts of tasks, from cutting the grass to performing surgery'. That means they can do 'a wide range of tasks'.
3 A: Mark says that 'intelligent robots like these will exist quite soon'. He is referring back to an earlier sentence where he wrote that 'robots... have feelings themselves'.
4 C: He says that the new robot 'recognises sound, movement and touch'.
5 C: He says robots 'will be capable of doing anything that we can'.

Exercise 7

1 C: Sentence C is a follow-up to the rhetorical question asked before the gap.
2 B: Sentence B gives more detail on how Steven got something without paying for it. The sentence after the gap asks about the information from sentence B.
3 F : It from sentence F refers to 'an old mobile phone'.
4 A: Sentence A explains how Kyle ended up with an entire house.
5 E: Sentence E talks about how Kyle became a celebrity.

© Pearson 2020 PHOTOCOPIABLE Focus 2 SECOND EDITION (A2+/B1)