Reading

10 Read the text. Complete gaps 1–3 with sentences A–E. There are two extra sentences.

Child genius

The world is fascinated by brilliant people. When their talent is known at a young age, we are even more amazed. An excellent example is Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart, who first played a difficult piece of music when he was four.

But let's go back to the beginning. His only sister was Maria Anna. Their father began teaching them music when they were very young. Maria Anna was seven when she began to play the keyboard – a type of piano. [1] ____ Soon, the father was teaching Wolfgang too and the boy learnt very quickly.

In fact, he began writing music at the age of five. [2] ____ The children were considered to be musical geniuses.

Wolfgang travelled throughout Europe with his sister and father. Travelling in those days was long and hard, especially for a young child. Sometimes the family didn't have enough money. Frequently, one of them became ill and they cancelled performances. [3] ____ Sadly, although he became successful as an adult, he died poor. His wife had to sell some of his music.

A Their father, Leopold Mozart, was a classical musician and teacher.

B It was a very difficult time for the young musician.

C Her three-year-old brother Wolfgang listened and watched.

D They played in the most beautiful cities, including Salzburg, Paris and Zurich.

E Unbelievably, a year later, he and his sister were performing for the kings and queens of Europe.
