After-school activities / aren't compulsory / in my secondary school / but many students attend them. / Teachers encourage us / to find a passion / and follow our own interests. / We take it easy / and have a good time.

Listening

Exercise 2

1 T: When Amy asks him if he's going to apply for university, Pete says, 'I don't know. I'm still thinking about it'.
2 F: Pete says History is his 'best subject by miles'.
3 F: They both want to do it, but Amy says 'I don't want to take any time off between school and university' because 'if I take a year off before I start, I'll be really old before I even finish the course'.
4 T: Pete's response is 'Wow! A vet! That's cool'.
5 T: Amy knows she needs Maths, but she says that's her weakest subject, which means she is 'concerned', worried.

Exercise 3

1 H: Hayley says she likes it (learning at home) because when they are good at a subject, they can learn more quickly. She misses her friends, though.
2 K: Kyle says 'There are a few places like this in Australia, and I hope there will be more in the future'.
3 S: Saba says 'It was quite funny at first to feel the room moving as you learnt Maths, Science and all the other subjects but I've got used to it now'.
4 H: Hayley says 'I go to summer school every year to make friends and spend time with other teenagers, but it's not the same as seeing your friends every day'.
5 K: Kyle says 'I was unhappy at first, but I realise now it was a good decision'.
