Sample answer

I was walking through the village when suddenly I heard a scream.

I turned round and I saw a man cycling past a young woman. She was walking along with her child. As the man passed the woman, he suddenly took her bag and cycled away very fast! I ran after the cyclist. But he tried to go too fast round the corner – and he fell off!

After that, I took the woman's bag, gave it back to her, and called the police and an ambulance for the cyclist! In the end, he was fine, but the woman and I were really shocked. The police said I'd done a great job!
