Sample answer

Stranger Things is a science-fiction horror TV series, directed by the Duffer brothers and released on Netflix. It has three seasons, twenty-five episodes in total and is set in the early 1980s in the US.

The action takes place in Hawkins, a small town in Indiana. In the first episode we learn about scientists in the local laboratory who run some strange experiments. As a result, they release a monster which kidnaps a boy called Will Byers. His family and friends try to find Will with the help of a police officer and a girl who runs away from the laboratory. Later it turns out that the girl has some superpowers.

In my opinion, all the actors give superb performances. The plot is unpredictable and the screenplay holds your attention from beginning to end. The special effects are stunning, everything looks real. And the soundtrack is absolutely amazing! I love the songs from the 1980s.

I'm a big fan of science fiction films and series and for me the word that best describes Stranger Things is brilliant. It's the best science-fiction TV series I've ever seen and in my view it's suitable for adults and teenagers alike. Actually, I watched it with my mum and we both enjoyed it.
