WHITE FANG by Jack London (A2–A2+)

PREPARATION

1 Look and the book cover and answer the questions:

see

1 What animal can you see here? Where is it?

think

2 Could this animal live as a pet?

wonder

3 What is the animal thinking?

4 How does it feel about people?

From wolf to dog

Scott walked to White Fang and started to talk in a quiet voice. Suddenly, White Fang bit him. Scott cried out and White Fang moved away.
The next day, Scott talked to him again. White Fang snarled, but Scott talked for a long time. White Fang stopped snarling and listened to the sound of the god.

After a long time, the god went into the house. When he came out, he had some meat in his hand. White Fang's ears stood up and he looked at the meat, but he did not go near it. He was afraid of the god.

Then the god threw the meat on the snow near White Fang. He smelled it, but he did not look at it. He watched the god. Nothing happened. The god did not hit him. White Fang took the meat and ate it.

The god showed him some more meat in his hand, and again White Fang did not go to him. Again the god threw it on the snow. But one day the god did not throw the meat to him. He only showed it to him in his hand. White Fang was hungry. Slowly, he went near the hand and then he took the meat. His eyes never left the god's face, and the hair on his neck stood up. He ate the meat, but nothing happened.
He waited. The god talked to him again. Then he put his hand on White Fang's head. White Fang felt very afraid, but happy. The god stroked White Fang's head again and again. White Fang began to like it.
In this way, White Fang's old life ended, and his new life began. Slowly, he learned new lessons and forgot old ones. He did not run away, because he liked this god. Then he began to really love him.

GLOSSARY

suddenly adv. in a very fast way
cry out v. to shout
snarl v. to make a loud, angry noise stroke v. to touch an animal in a kind way run away v. to leave a place

COMPREHENSION

2 LL3.01 Listen and read the text, then answer the questions.

1 What does Scott give White Fang to train him?

.....

2 Where does Scott throw it?

.....

3 What does White Fang think Scott is?

.....

4 In the end, where does White Fang eat from?

.....

5 What did White Fang start to like?

.....

6 How did White Fang feel about Scott:

a) at first? .....

b) in the end? .....

ACTIVE INVESTIGATION

3 Answer the questions.

1 Do wolves live in the wild in your country?
2 How many wolves are there?
3 Where do wolves live?
4 Are people allowed to kill wolves?
5 What happens to a wolf if it eats a farmer's animals?

SPEAKING

4A Work in pairs and answer the questions.

1 How do you feel about wolves?
2 Have you ever seen a wolf?

B Scott domesticates White Fang so he can live like a pet. All dogs are a kind of domesticated wild wolf. Find out more about domestic dogs.

1 When did people first domesticate wolves?
2 Which kinds of dogs are popular in your country?
3 What jobs can dogs do?

CLIL CONNECTION

History

5 The story of White Fang is set in North America at the time of the 1890s Klondike gold rush. Find out more about this time in North American history.

1 What is a gold rush?
2 Where is the Klondike?
3 When did earlier gold rushes in North America happen?
4 Where did they happen?
5 What happened to Native Americans living in the gold rush areas?