OVERVIEW

Duration: 40+40 minutes

Objectives:
- Can understand information related to people's daily routines (GSE 32 – A2).
- Can understand short, simple messages on postcards, emails and social networks (GSE 31 – A2).
- Can say what they like and dislike (GSE 34 – A2).

Resources:
- SB pp. 14, 126
- TB: Photocopiable Resource 3 pp. 177, 193
- WB p. 14
- Online resources: Extra digital activities, Grammar Checkpoint; Teacher's resources, Video 2 – Grammar Animation

LESSON 2

WARM-UP | 7–9 minutes

1 (T–S, S–S, S–T) Books closed. Ask: What are your favourite activities? Ss' answers should indicate how well they know the Present Simple and common activity verbs. Give Ss 2 minutes to discuss the question in pairs. Elicit answers from the whole class.

2 (S–S) Books still closed. Give Ss 1 minute to write a sentence which they think may be true or false for their classmates. They can use verbs and phrases from Lesson 1.1, e.g. You go for a walk on Sunday mornings. When Ss are ready, encourage them to mingle with their classmates. They should find a partner and then take turns to read out their sentence and to say whether their partner's sentence is true or false for them. They should make a note of their partner's response and then find another partner. Give Ss 3 minutes to talk to as many of their classmates as possible. When they have finished, invite Ss to share their sentences with the class and report how many Ss said the sentence was true for them and how many said it was false for them.

PRESENTATION | 14–16 minutes

1 (S–T, T–S) Refer Ss to Exercise 1. Give them 2 minutes to read Jamie's blog. Then ask them just to raise hands to show who is similar to Ella or Jamie.

2 (S–S, S–T, T–S) Refer Ss to Exercise 2 (GRAMMAR FOCUS 1) and ask them to do the task individually. Tell Ss to check their answers in pairs before the class check.

3 (T–S, S–T) Explain to Ss the lesson is about the Present Simple. Tell Ss that we use it to talk about facts, routines, likes and dislikes. Explain how we form Present Simple affirmative and negative sentences referring to the examples in the GRAMMAR FOCUS 1 box. Tell Ss that in Present Simple affirmative sentences the verb can have two forms: after the subject I, you, we and they, the verb form is the same as for the infinitive without to; after the subject he, she and it, we add -s, -es or -ies to the end of the verb. Explain that in Present Simple negative sentences we need to add the auxiliary verb don't before the base form of the verb. Point out that we add the third person -es to the auxiliary verb (doesn't) and not to the main verb. Optionally, this could be done by using the teacher's explanation part of Video 2 – Grammar Animation from the Teacher's resources (02:41–05:57).

4 (T–S, S–T) Go through the REMEMBER THIS box with Ss. Discuss the spelling rules for the Present Simple third person singular form. Ask Ss to think of more verbs which are followed by -s, -es and -ies and write them up on the board.

PRACTICE | 8–10 minutes

1 (S–S, S–T, T–S) Ss do Exercise 3 individually. Give them 2 minutes to complete the activity and then 1 extra minute to check their answers in pairs before doing a class check. Then ask Ss to tick the statements that are true for them. When they are ready, elicit answers from different Ss.

TIP

The Present Simple third person -s is late acquired and can still cause problems even for advanced learners. Correction and practice are needed to prevent fossilisation of this common error. The same applies to don't and doesn't.

2 (S–T, T–S) Exercise 4. Play and pause the recording to give Ss time to write.

3 (S–T, T–S) Exercise 5. Ss listen and check their answers. Practise the verbs using choral drilling and individual repetition.

TIP

Demonstrate the difference between voiced and unvoiced sounds, e.g. /s/ and /z/, /t/ and /d/. Ask Ss to say the /s/ sound and put their hands on their throats; they will not feel a vibration. Then do the same for the voiced /z/ sound; this time they should feel a vibration. Drill the pronunciation of the verbs. Explain to Ss that third person verbs ending in a voiced consonant add /z/, while those ending in an unvoiced consonant add /s/, e.g. leaves, gets.

PRODUCTION | 5–6 minutes

(S–S) Divide the class into four groups and tell them to stand together in a line. Explain that the first S in each group should whisper a true sentence about himself/herself to the second S in the line, e.g. I get up / don't get up at seven o'clock. The second S should convert the sentence to the third person singular form, e.g. Anil gets up at seven o'clock. and then whisper it to the third S in the line. They go on until the sentence reaches the last S in the group. Then they check if the sentence is correct or not. The process is repeated until all Ss in the groups have had a chance to whisper their sentence.

LESSON 3

WARM-UP | 6–8 minutes

1 (S–T, T–S) Explain to Ss that they are going to watch an animated clip which will give them more context for the grammar. Play Video 2 – Grammar Animation from the Teacher's resources and pause after the introduction (00:16). Ask Ss a few warm-up questions like: Who is she? Is it a film / radio programme / TV show? What is it about? Make sure Ss understand that it is an interview about the members of the Jones family.

TIP

Teachers very often decide to cover the grammar point on more than one lesson, as the grammar often causes problems. Then the animated film can be a good starting point at the beginning of the second lesson. It can also be used for revision if needed.

2 (S–T, T–S) Ask Ss to watch the cartoon and answer the following questions: How many people are there in the family? What pet do they have? Do they work hard at home? What free time activities do they do? You can write the questions on the board. Play the video with the subtitles off. Stop at the end of the animated cartoon (02:40).

PRESENTATION | 13–15 minutes

1 (S–T, T–S) Play the video once again, with subtitles. Ask Ss to pay special attention to the activities mentioned (affirmative and negative verb forms). Then elicit examples and write them in two columns on the board.

TIP

It is a good idea to elicit some target language from the cartoon and put it on the board; it will serve as prompts for the production exercise at the end.

2 (S–T, T–S) Ss do Exercise 6 individually. Play the recording twice if necessary, to allow Ss time to complete and check their answers. Then discuss the adverbs of frequency and what they mean. As an alternative, this could be done by using the teacher's explanation part of Video 2 – Grammar Animation from the Teacher's resources (05:58–06:37).

3 (S–T, T–S) Refer Ss to Exercise 7. Tell them to use the examples in the GRAMMAR FOCUS 2 to help them complete the rules, then check.

PRACTICE | 6–8 minutes

1 (S–T, T–S). Refer Ss to Exercise 8. Model the activity by reading the example aloud. Give Ss 3 minutes to do the task individually. Then elicit answers from individual Ss.

2 (S–T, T–S) Go to GRAMMAR FOCUS REFERENCE AND PRACTICE 1.2 on p. 126 and tell Ss to complete Exercises 1 and 2 individually. Do a quick class check. Optionally, this could be given as homework.

PRODUCTION | 5–7 minutes

(S–S, S–T, T–S) Tell Ss that in a few minutes they will tell each other about themselves, their family and friends. Tell Ss that they should use adverbs of frequency and write true sentences similar to the ones in Exercise 8. Give Ss 1–2 minutes to prepare. Monitor and help with any vocabulary and with Ss' ideas where necessary. Then put them in pairs and tell them that they must keep talking for a full 2 minutes. As Ss interact with each other, walk around taking notes of what you hear. Ask individual Ss to share what their partners said and then give some feedback based on your notes.

TIP

Monitoring is an essential part of the teaching and learning process. It helps you assess how well Ss are coping with tasks. You can then adjust your expectations/ approach in subsequent activities and when giving feedback. It also gives Ss the chance to ask for help and clarification.

As an alternative, before the lesson, make a note of three sentences about yourself. One sentence should be false and the others true, e.g. I always go swimming on Saturday. I often go to discos. I never eat breakfast. Read your sentences to the class. Write them up on the board if necessary. Ss guess the false sentence. If you have a confident class, encourage them to ask you questions to find the answer. Put Ss in pairs and give them 3 minutes to play the same game.

HOMEWORK

1 Give Ss WB p. 14 as homework.

2 Ask Ss to prepare for a 10–20-minute Grammar Quiz: Assessment Package, Unit 1.2, Grammar.

3 Ask Ss to bring in a picture of a person from a magazine to use in the next class.

CONTINGENCY PLAN

Refer to TB p. 14 for extra activities.
