LESSON 8

WARM-UP | 8–10 minutes

1 (T–S, S–T) Before Ss open their books, ask: What is your favourite film/book? Elicit titles of films/books and write them on the board. Then hold a class vote for the different films/books listed on the board and see if there is a particularly popular film/book and find out what kind of films/books Ss especially like.

2 (T–S, S–T) Tell Ss to open their books, look at the photo and describe who the people are, where they are and what they are doing. Elicit ideas from different Ss.

TIP

Exploit the photos in the SB whenever possible. They provide an excellent springboard for creating interest and exploiting Ss' knowledge of the world. Use them to teach/check vocabulary, practise descriptive language, give opinions, etc.

PRACTICE | 20–22 minutes

1 (S–S, S–T, T–S) Give Ss 2 minutes to do Exercise 1 individually and check in pairs before doing a class check. Then ask Ss what they think about the different kinds of music mentioned, e.g. What do you think of reggae? Do you like rap music? What kind of music do you like?

TIP

See Culture notes in TB p. 152 for information about Eminem.

2 (S–T, T–S) Go through SPEAKING FOCUS and check Ss understand all the expressions. Point out that the verbs hate and can't stand express a stronger negative opinion than the verb don't like.

3 (S–S) Refer Ss to the dialogues in Exercise 2. Put Ss in pairs and give them 3 minutes to complete the dialogues. Then play the recording so that Ss listen and check their answers. When the pairs have finished, do a quick class check and invite volunteers to act out similar conversations sharing their true opinions. Optionally, Role-play Videos (Video 5A–5B and Video 6A– 6B) could be used. Ss hear one side of the dialogue and have to respond to the utterances as quickly as possible. This could be done using choral or individual drilling.

TIP

See Culture notes in TB pp. 152–153 for information about Terry Pratchett, The Colour of Magic, Stephenie Meyer, The Twilight Saga, Orlando Bloom, Martin Freeman and The Hobbit.

4 (S–S, S–T, T–S) Ss do Exercise 3 individually. Give them 2 minutes and then 1 extra minute to check their answers in pairs before doing a class check.

TIP

See Culture notes in TB p. 153 for information about Norah Jones, Katy Perry and Natalie Portman.

5 (T–S, S–T) Ss do Exercise 4 individually. Give them 2 minutes, then ask individual Ss to share their likes and dislikes with the class.

PRODUCTION | 6–8 minutes

(S–S, T–S) Refer Ss to Exercise 5. Put them in pairs and tell them to choose one of the topics in the box and that in a few minutes they will ask and answer questions about what they like and don't like about that topic. Tell Ss that they should use expressions from the SPEAKING FOCUS in their dialogues. Give Ss 1–2 minutes to prepare and tell them that they must keep talking for a full 2 minutes. As Ss interact with each other, walk around taking notes of what you hear. Then give some feedback based on your notes. As an alternative, write this response on the board: Yes, I do. Elicit different questions that could lead to this response, e.g. Do you like football? Then divide the class into two groups. Invite a representative from each group to come to the front and sit down facing the rest of the class. Explain that they cannot turn around to look at the board. Then write this response on the board: I love them! The groups should take turns to ask their own representative questions to try to elicit the response on the board. When one of the representatives gives the response, they win a point for their team. Repeat the process with a different response written on the board, e.g. I can't stand it. I don't enjoy it. No, I don't. I hate him.
