LESSON 9

WARM-UP | 5–6 minutes

1 (T–S, S–T) With books closed, create interest and activate Ss' knowledge. Ask: What typical things would you write about in an email to a friend? What would you write about a new school in an email to a friend? Elicit ideas from different Ss and have a brief class discussion.

2 (T–S, S–T) Ask Ss to turn to p. 68 and look at Exercise 1. Elicit which of the topics there Ss would not write about in an email to a friend about a new school. Then go through the topics with Ss. See if there are any topics there that you have not already talked about.

PRACTICE 1 | 20–22 minutes

1 (S–T, T–S) Refer Ss to Exercise 2. Give them 2 minutes to read the email and find which topic Jen does not write about, then check.

2 (S–S, T–S, S–T) Ss do Exercise 3 individually. Give them 2 minutes to do the matching activity and then 1 extra minute to check their answers in pairs before doing a class check. Ask a few general comprehension questions such as: Does she like her new school? Why does she get lost all the time? How does she find the right place? Which sport does she do? Which musical instrument does she play?

3 (S–S, S–T, T–S) Refer Ss to Exercise 4. Give them 2 minutes to complete the WRITING FOCUS with the expressions in purple in the email and to check their answers in pairs before doing a class check. Go through the WRITING FOCUS with the class and make sure Ss understand parts of a personal email, what to write in each part and the expressions which can be used in a personal email. Wherever possible, suggest extra expressions or alternative ones to replace the ones given there. Drill the expressions as a whole class and with random individuals if necessary.

PRACTICE 2 | 7–9 minutes

(S–S, S–T, T–S) Ss do Exercise 5 individually. Give them 3 minutes to study examples A–D and complete the text. Then give them 1 extra minute to check their answers in pairs before doing a class check. Make sure Ss understand the differences in meaning between and, but, so and because using examples.

LESSON 10

PRODUCTION | 38 minutes

1 (S–S) Refer Ss to Exercise 6. Give Ss 3 minutes to read quickly through the rubric and make notes for each topic in Exercise 1. Then give them 15 minutes to write an email to a friend with their school news. Remind Ss to use the WRITING FOCUS box to help them. Also, tell them that they can use Jen's email as a model for their writing and ask them to try to use linkers from Exercise 5. As they do this, walk around monitoring, supporting and taking notes of any problems.

2 (S–S) When they have finished writing, tell Ss to self-check their emails. Optionally, to help Ss with this, prepare a checklist beforehand and give a copy of it to each S in the class. You can write questions similar to the following on the list: Have you written about all the topics in Exercise 1? Have you used phrases from the WRITING FOCUS? Have you started and finished your email correctly? Have you checked your grammar and spelling? Explain to Ss that they need to tick each item on the checklist to show that they have checked their piece of writing for that item. Monitor and support as they do this.

3 (S–S) Then put Ss in pairs and tell them to swap their emails. Ss should now check if their partner's email includes all the information and if everything is clear and then they give it back.

TIP

Ss can edit each other's work again using the checklist you gave to them.

4 (S–S) Give Ss another 5 minutes to rewrite their emails before handing them in for your evaluation and feedback. Finally, do a class feedback session.

5 (T–S, S–T) Give Ss a model text for Exercise 6 and ask them to compare it with their own. Alternatively, this could be omitted or could be done in a following lesson if you are short of time.
