LESSON 8

WARM-UP | 5 minutes

(S–T, T–S) Books closed. Activate Ss' interest in the topic. Ask: Is there a sporting event that interests you or you have taken part in? Elicit answers from different Ss, ask them to give details about the sporting events and have a brief class discussion.

PRACTICE | 30 minutes

1 (S–T, T–S) Ask Ss to turn to p. 80 and look at Exercise 1. Give them 3 minutes to read David's blog and answer the questions. Then elicit answers from different Ss. Ask a few general comprehension questions like: When did he run the London Marathon? What did he dress up as? Why couldn't he run fast at first? What kind of clothes did people wear? How often did he have a drink of water? When did he feel better? How long did it take him to reach the finish line?

TIP

See Culture notes in TB p. 157 for information about charities, the London Marathon, Wellchild, Dracula and Tower Bridge.

2 (S–S, T–S, S–T) Refer Ss to Exercise 2. Give them 2 minutes to complete the WRITING FOCUS with the phrases in purple in David's blog and then 1 extra minute to check their answers in pairs before doing a class check. Go through the WRITING FOCUS with the class and check Ss understand how to sequence their ideas. Wherever possible, suggest alternative words and give examples with each word.

3 (S–S, T–S, S–T) Refer Ss to Exercise 3. Give Ss 3 minutes to do the matching activity and then 1 extra minute to check their answers in pairs before doing a class check.

4 (S–S, T–S, S–T) Ss do Exercise 4 individually. Give them 3 minutes and then 1 extra minute to check their answers in pairs before doing a class check.

LESSON 9

PRODUCTION | 38 minutes

1 (T–S, S–T) Refer Ss to Exercise 5. Give Ss 1–2 minutes to read quickly through the rubric and the bullet points to include.

2 (S–S) Give Ss 15 minutes to write a description of a sports event that they or a friend took part in. Remind Ss to use the WRITING FOCUS box to help them. Also, tell them that they can use David's blog as a model for their writing. As they do this, walk around monitoring, supporting and taking notes of any problems.

3 (S–S) When they have finished writing, tell Ss to self-check their descriptions. Optionally, to help Ss with this, prepare a checklist beforehand and give a copy of it to each S in the class. You can write questions similar to the following on the list: Have you written about all the points in the task? Have you used phrases from the WRITING FOCUS? Have you checked your grammar and spelling? Have you organised your description well? Explain to Ss that they need to tick each item on the checklist to show that they have checked their piece of writing for that item. Monitor and support as they do this.

4 (S–S) Then put Ss in pairs and tell them to swap their descriptions. Ss should now check if their partner's description includes all the information and if everything is clear and then they give it back.

TIP

Ss can edit each other's work again using the checklist you gave to them.

5 (S–S) Give Ss another 5 minutes to rewrite before handing them in for your evaluation and feedback. Finally, do a class feedback session.

6 (T–S, S–T) Give Ss a model text for Exercise 5 and ask them to compare it with their own. Alternatively, this could be omitted or could be done in a following lesson if you are short of time.
