A2 KEY FOR SCHOOLS AUDIOSCRIPTS

Listening Test 1

Part 1

Question One

M: man G: girl

M: Which of these photos shows your school, Anna? This one's like a museum, with that great entrance.

G: Try and guess, Uncle John – it's got windows, but only on one side of the door.

M: OK – it's this one, with trees outside. Looks lovely …

G: It does – but we don't have any trees. You were right with the first photo you picked up!

Question Two

M: mum B: boy

M: Come on, you're going to miss the match!

B: I'm ready – and anyway, what's the problem, Mum? It's only quarter to two – we can leave at two.

M: But the match starts then!

B: At half past! If you drive me to the stadium, we'll be there by 2.15. Just drop me at the entrance – I'll find my friends inside.

M: OK.

Question Three

M: mum B: boy

M: Here's the shoe shop. Which of these trainers do you like?

B: The black ones with silver stars, Mum – but the biggest ones are only a 37.

M: OK, let's find something bigger – a 40, maybe. Look, how about these? They're not the same style …

B: No, but they're cool – and 39's usually OK, actually. Let's try them – yep, perfect!

M: Great!

Question Four

B: boy G: girl

B: Did you and your dad have a nice lunch yesterday?

G: Yeah, we did. We wanted to go to a restaurant in town, with waiters and everything – but it wasn't open! So, we walked to the park and had some sandwiches and drinks that we bought from a place in the market on the way there.

B: Sounds great!

G: It was!

Question Five

B: boy G: girl

G: Hi, Billy! Have you been shopping?

B: I've just been into town to return a pair of jeans. They didn't fit, so they gave me my money back – and I got this!

G: That's great! But haven't you got a T-shirt like that already?

B: I've got a sweater that's nearly the same colour – maybe you're thinking of that.

G: You're right.

Part 2

Now, as you know, our school cycle ride is on Saturday. You may remember that last year we cycled 30 kilometres. But that was too far for some people, so we'll do 25 this time, which will still be a good ride.

We'll start from the playground and cycle across the fields and then back to the park, so your parents can meet you there – the school will be closed by then.

You'll probably want to bring snacks and some water. And it'll be a sunny day, so don't forget your sunglasses! But don't worry about bringing money.

Now, your bike. Before the ride, ask someone to check the tyres on your bike – they must have air in them, or you can't ride. But you won't need lights on your bikes – we'll be back before dark.

Usually in cycle races, the winner gets a prize, like a T-shirt. But this isn't a race, so when you return, I'll give each of you a cake! I'm sure you'll enjoy it!

Part 3

B: I really wanted to see that concert – I'm glad we went, Marta!

G: Me too, Henry! I really enjoyed it. But I've never seen that band before.

B: My friend Paul saw them and liked them – but we don't always agree about music! I don't know them well, but they play fantastic rock music, which I love.

G: Right …

B: What did you think of the guitar player?

G: He was loud! But I liked that. And he played better than the other band members, but I don't think his singing was great.

B: Maybe. You got a great poster of them all!

G: Yeah – but I really wanted to talk to them after the concert, so it was a shame we couldn't. But I took some good pictures of them.

B: Yeah!

G: Anyway, how much were our tickets? I must pay you for mine.

B: Oh, Dad booked them online – adult tickets were €25.50, but because we're under 18, they were €19.75 – with a discount.

G: Great!

B: And I asked Dad to drive us home, but he's working tonight. There's a bus that goes past our street though! That's better than walking.

G: Yes – it's too far for that!

Part 4

Question Sixteen

B: boy G: girl

B: Biology was hard today, as usual but I quite enjoyed it.

G: Then there was maths and that definitely wasn't difficult …

B: No … I mean, I know we have to study those things at school. It's just that I prefer doing art. I'd like to study just that every day, really.

G: Mmm, I know what you mean …

Question Seventeen

Hi, Fiona, I've finally sent a story to the competition! My teacher helped me choose it from all the others I've done. She thinks it's the best I've ever written, so I hope she's right. Anyway, lots of other teenagers sent in stories, too – I didn't expect that! But I'm pleased with what I wrote, so let's see!

Question Eighteen

B: boy G: girl

B: Excuse me. I've just tried on this sweater and I really like the bright red colour, but I'm not sure it's my size.

G: OK, let's see what I've got. Yes, this one might be better.

B: Mm, that's not as small. How much is it?

G: It's slightly more than the others, I'm afraid.

B: Really? Well … I'll take it anyway. Thanks!

Question Nineteen

B: boy G: girl

B: Did you go swimming on holiday, Sarah?

G: I wanted to. Loads of people were on the beach and some were swimming – but when I went into the sea, it felt like it was below zero! I ran straight out and put on my sweater!

B: Wasn't the weather nice?

G: It was lovely, and warm – just not in the sea!

B: Right …

Question Twenty

B: boy G: girl

G: Great! We're in time to catch the train. Wait … something's missing from my bag. Let's see … I put my ticket in before we left home …

B: It's there – look!

G: … but my mobile was in there too, with the ticket. I can't see that anywhere – maybe it fell out while we were cycling.

B: Borrow mine to ring your number – here …

Part 5

B: boy G: girl

G: What are those, Paolo? Picture postcards?

B: Yes, I collect them, so people send them from their holidays.

G: Wow! Is this one from your brother?

B: Yeah! He loves windsurfing, but the sea's too far away, so this lake's the perfect place for him to do it.

G: And this one?

B: From my sister – her hotel was in the middle of all those trees!

G: There are hundreds of them! And is this from your friend Martin? It looks cold!

B: Yes, he loves climbing – he went right to the top. Look, there's snow!

G: Yes! And your grandparents? They like visiting old castles, don't they?

B: Yeah, but they love boats, too. Last year they travelled to Canada by sea – on this! It was really comfortable, they said.

G: I'm sure. And I know your cousin loves the beach …

B: Well, this year he stayed at this place, miles from the beach – look at all the tents! He said it was near a forest somewhere.

G: And did your uncle go to his house in the mountains?

B: No, he stayed in a hotel by the sea – it looks like a great place to swim!

G: Lovely …

Listening Test 2

Part 1

Question One

B: boy G: girl

B: How was your day at the beach yesterday?

G: Great, but the weather didn't look good when we left the house to drive there. It was really wet but that stopped when we got nearer to the sea.

B: Right.

G: I mean, it was cloudy all day, so we didn't see the sun. But it was still warm enough to swim.

Question Two

B: boy G: girl

B: Your big brother loves cars, doesn't he? Does he still work at the garage?

G: Yes, but instead of repairing cars, he's selling them! He's always wanted to do that. Anyway, he hated having to clean the cars at the garage when there was no-one else to do it.

B: That's a big change!

G: Well, he still fixes Mum's car sometimes!

B: Great!

Question Three

M: mum G: girl

M: Hi, Amy! You're home early! Did Grandad go and get you from the cinema?

G: Oh, I called him and said he didn't need to come. Jane's dad works near the cinema, so we wanted to ask him to collect us but then Jane's older brother came past in his car and picked us up – he's just driven me home.

M: Great!

Question Four

M: mum B: boy

M: What are you wearing for Tom's party?

B: Oh, probably my favourite T-shirt, and my jeans, Mum. They're a bit old, but they'll be OK.

M: Can't you wear your new trousers? They'll look much better than your jeans.

B: Well … OK – and I've just remembered it's a barbecue, so I'll need to put on a sweater. I'll be cold in a T-shirt!

Question Five

D: dad G: girl

D: Evening, Cara. Have you just been swimming?

G: Oh, I went to the pool this morning, Dad. And then I met my friend Sophie at the cafe for some lunch.

D: Really? But your hair's still really wet!

G: Well, it started to rain when we left the cafe, so we walked to Sophie's – her mum brought me home from there.

D: Right …

Part 2

I've just been to a great photography exhibition! It's in the city's new arts centre, which is called The Project. To get there, just go past the library and it's on the other side of the road from the theatre – and not far from our school!

The last photography exhibition I saw there was about animals. And I also went to a great exhibition showing photos of weather there last year. But the one that's on now is about sport, and it's really interesting.

Anyway, to go in, you need to buy a ticket, but it's not expensive if you're at school, like us! For adults it's £6.50, but my mum only paid £3.20 for me and £1.75 for snacks!

From Monday to Friday the exhibition opens at 9.30 and closes at 5.45, but at the weekends you can stay later – until 7.30.

For more information, and to see some photos, have a look at the website, at www.pixvues.com - that's P – I – X – V – U – E – S! Enjoy your visit!

Part 3

B: boy G: girl

B: We're going to grandma and grandad's farm this weekend!

G: I know! How are we getting there?

B: Grandad wanted to drive us, but Auntie Marie's taking us instead. She's borrowing Mum's car.

G: Good! Well, it's a long way, but the journey only takes two hours on the motorway. And it won't be boring, because there's lots to look at – like the mountains. They're beautiful!

B: You're right.

G: What are you taking with you?

B: I'll leave my video games at home – I never play them at grandma's. But I'll download some music onto my phone. There'll be books there if we want something to do.

G: And there'll be lots to do on the farm. Grandma made cakes with us last time, didn't she? But this time, I really want to ride one of grandad's horses.

B: Me too! Maybe he'll say yes if we offer to work on the farm!

G: Good idea! Let's take a present for them, too. We took some flowers last time. Hmm … I don't think they eat chocolate … What about a lovely photo of us? We can give them that!

B: Great idea!

Part 4

Question Sixteen

Mum, I'm in town with Sophie – I sent you a text saying I wouldn't be home after school. Anyway, sorry to ask, but could you come and collect us? The last bus home has just gone – I forgot to look at the timetable. But I've been to buy the jeans I wanted, so we're ready to leave. Call me!

Question Seventeen

B: boy G: girl

B: Did you see that nature show? I was looking forward to it, and I learnt something from it, but it wasn't what I expected.

G: I was hoping to see amazing sea animals and things, but actually there was nothing unusual in it.

B: I know what you mean. It was only half an hour long, too.

G: That was enough for me!

Question Eighteen

M: mum B: boy

B: Can we leave for the stadium, Mum?

M: Well, OK, but the match doesn't start till 3.00 pm. We've got plenty of time …

B: But sometimes it takes ages to get there … And where's my ticket? Oh no, I've left it somewhere …

M: It's here, in your bag – look! Oh … it says the match is actually on the 15th. That's tomorrow, not today.

B: Ohh!

Question Nineteen

B: boy G: girl

B: How was the museum?

G: OK, I guess. Someone said there was a great exhibition about old jewellery, but that didn't really interest me. Anyway, we've got some history homework, haven't we, so I thought I'd go and get some ideas for it – which I did.

B: Did you draw some pictures?

G: Yeah – I wanted to take photos, but that wasn't allowed.

Question Twenty

Hi, Jack, I'm just looking for a present for my sister in that place you recommended! They've got loads of stuff – clothes, music, books – and it's quite cheap. It's nice and warm, too – it's really cold outside! I'm going upstairs to see the sports stuff on the third floor, but let's meet in the cafe at 6.30. Bye!

Part 5

B: boy G: grandma

G: How were your class talks, Josh? About favourite films?

B: Great, Grandma! Mine was all about a cartoon elephant that talks!

G: And how about Alex?

B: Oh, his favourite was about the story of a boy and his parents. They travelled together all the way from Europe to Australia – without getting on any planes!

G: Really! And Bella? She plays the piano, doesn't she?

B: Mm, but she also paints, so her film was about someone who does that too. He's famous for his pictures of animals, but I can't remember his name.

G: How about Henry? His family spend lots of time in the countryside,– forests and mountains, don't they?

B: Yeah, so I was surprised by his film, all about chess and international competitions. Quite exciting!

G: Right! And Sandie?

B: Well, she takes part in swimming races, so her film was about that. She said the music's great!

G: … and I guess Jed chose planes because his dad's a pilot.

B: Oh, his favourite was a film about an area where there are hundreds of trees! He showed us some photos – it was beautiful!

G: Great!
