REVIEW TEST 1 ● GROUP A

Speaking

Student A

1 You are a parent in an English family. A student is coming to stay with you and your family. They are doing a language course in a school near your home. You are meeting the student for the first time.
Work in pairs to role play a dialogue.

Use the prompt cards to ask and answer questions.

You are the parent, Student B is the student:
- Say hello and introduce yourself.
- Explain how many people there are in your family.
- Ask what food they like.
- Reply to Student B's question about meal times and ask what they like doing in their free time.
- Reply to Student B's question about things to do in the local area and say how happy you are to have them in your house.
