WARM-UP | 5 minutes

(S–S T–S, S–T) Draw a table on the board similar to the one in Exercise 1, but only with the headings in bold, leave the rest blank. Put Ss in pairs and give them 2 minutes to complete the table according to the school system in their country. When they have finished, elicit answers from Ss and complete the table on the board.

BEFORE YOU WATCH | 5 minutes

1 (S–S, T–S, S–T) Tell Ss that they are going to watch a video about an experiment in a British school. Ask Ss to look at the table in Exercise 1 and decide how old the students from Year Nine are. Elicit the answer and check. Then compare the table in Exercise 1 with the one on the board and have a brief class discussion.

2 (S–S, T–S, S–T) Refer Ss to Exercise 2. Put them in pairs and give them 3 minutes to decide if the sentences are about typical British or Chinese students. Monitor as they do this. When they have finished, elicit answers from different pairs and have a class discussion, but do not confirm their ideas at this stage.

3 (S–S, T–S, S–T) Exercise 3. Put Ss in groups of four. Give them 3 minutes to compare the sentences in Exercise 2 with their own school. When they have finished, invite groups to share what they have discussed with the class and a have a brief class discussion.

WHILE YOU WATCH | 8–10 minutes

1 (T–S, S–T) Exercise 4. Play the video so that Ss watch and check their ideas in Exercise 2. Before the class check, play the video once again, this time asking Ss to make notes of any other new information about China and Chinese schools. Then collect answers from the whole class.

2 (S–T, T–S) Ss do Exercise 5 individually. Play the first part of the video again so that Ss watch and complete the fact sheet. Then do a class check.

AFTER YOU WATCH | 17–18 minutes

1 (S–S, T–S, S–T) Exercise 6. Put Ss in groups of three or four. Give them 3 minutes to discuss if the experiment is a success, if there are any problems and what the Chinese teachers can do differently. Monitor and help with any vocabulary and with Ss' ideas if necessary. When they have finished, invite groups to share what they have discussed with the class and a have a brief class discussion.

2 (S–T, T–S) Refer Ss to Exercise 7. Give them 2 minutes to read the summary of four weeks of the experiment in the video. When they are ready, give them 5 minutes to write up to ten sentences to express their opinion about the results of the experiment. As they do this, walk around monitoring, supporting and taking notes of any problems. When they have finished, invite individual Ss to read their paragraphs in front of the class. Then give some feedback based on your notes.
