LESSON 7

WARM-UP | 5–7 minutes

(S–S) Divide the class in two groups. Tell Ss that you are going to write some short answers on the board and that they should think about matching questions, e.g. Answer: Yes, I am. Question: Are you wearing jeans? Invite a representative from each group to come to the front of the class. Tell them to sit with their back to the board, facing the other Ss. Explain that they cannot turn around and the other Ss cannot tell them what is written on the board. Write on the board: No, I don't. The groups take turns to ask their representative questions to try to elicit the answer written on the board. The first group to elicit the correct answer wins a point. Repeat the process with different Ss for each short answer. Suggested short answers: No, I don't. / Yes, she is. / No, it isn't. / No, I'm not. / Yes, he does.

PRESENTATION | 11–13 minutes

1 (S–S, S–T, T–S) Refer Ss to Exercise 1. Give them only 1 minute to read the text and answer the questions and then 1 extra minute to check in pairs before doing a class check. Then ask a few more comprehension questions like: Does she like her job? How many people are there at the hotel? Is she busy? Why?

2 (S–S, S–T, T–S) Refer Ss to Exercise 2. Check Ss understand the meanings of fact, habit, routine and temporary. Give them 1 minute to complete the GRAMMAR FOCUS and then 2 extra minutes to read the examples in pairs and discuss the rules. Then go through the GRAMMAR FOCUS with the class. Explain the rules for when we use each tense (the Present Simple for facts and routines; the Present Continuous for activities happening now or around now). At the end of each of the two sections, elicit from Ss example sentences about themselves using time expressions.

TIP

Ss might not remember the relevant time expressions. You can elicit the meanings or, with the first set of expressions, draw a timeline with never and always and ask Ss to put the other expressions on the timeline. With the second set of expressions, elicit from Ss that at the moment, now and right now is different from today, this month and this summer.

PRACTICE | 10–12 minutes

1 (S–S, S–T, T–S) Ss do Exercise 3 individually. Discuss the example with the class and elicit why the Present Simple is the correct option (the sentence states a fact). Give Ss 2 minutes to complete the sentences individually and then 1 extra minute to check their answers in pairs before doing a class check. Elicit the answers with ccompanying reasons for choosing between the Present Simple or the Present Continuous.

2 (S–S, S–T, T–S) Ss do Exercise 4 individually. Discuss the example with the class and elicit why the Present Continuous is the correct option (the sentence is describing what is happening at the moment and look is not a state verb). Give Ss 3 minutes to complete the sentences individually and then 1 extra minute to check their answers in pairs before doing a class check. Elicit the answers with accompanying reasons for choosing between the Present Simple or the Present Continuous and check the spelling of the verbs in items 6 (writing) and 11 (shining). Then ask a few general comprehension questions like: Who is the email from? Who is it to? What is Emily's holiday job? What are the children doing now? What is siesta? What does she do every morning? Does she like her job?

TIP

See Culture notes in TB p. 154 for information about siesta.

3 (S–S, S–T, T–S) Ss do Exercise 5 individually. Before they write sentences that are true for them, elicit which tense is needed for each sentence and ask Ss to explain their choice. Give them 2–3 minutes to write the statements in their notebooks, then check.

PRODUCTION | 7–9 minutes

1 (S–S, S–T, T–S) Refer Ss to Exercise 6. Give them 2–3 minutes to write questions for the sentences in Exercise 5 and to check their questions in pairs.

2 (S–S) Put Ss in pairs and tell them to take turns to ask and answer the questions they have written. Tell the pairs that only the S asking the questions can have their books open, and that the S answering the questions should keep their books closed. Explain that this will help them to listen more carefully. Encourage Ss to give additional information. Model the activity:

A: Do you do a lot of sports?
B: Yes, I do. Every morning I go jogging and I play football at weekends.
As Ss interact with each other, walk around taking notes of what you hear. Invite Ss to tell about their partners' answers and then give some feedback based on your notes.

LESSON 8

WARM-UP | 3–5 minutes

1 (T–S) Explain to Ss that they are going to watch an animated cartoon which will give them more context for the grammar.

2 (T–S, S–T) Ask Ss a few warm-up questions like: Who is she? What is her job? What is she wearing? Is she old/ young? Does she have green eyes / blue eyes / dark hair / long hair? Play Video 14 – Grammar Animation from the Teacher's resources and stop as soon as Ss see Maria (00:10).

PRESENTATION | 7–8 minutes

1 (T–S, S–T) Ask Ss to watch and listen carefully and answer the following questions: Where does Maria work? Who is she with? What are they eating? Where is Jason now? What is he doing? What do Jeff and Bill teach? Are they both married? What are they doing on the beach? Play the video with the subtitles off.

2 (T–S, S–T) Play the whole video once again, with subtitles. Ask Ss to pay special attention to the verb tenses (the Present Simple and the Present Continuous).

PRACTICE | 10–12 minutes

1 (T–S, S–T) Explain to Ss that the animation provides more context for the topic of the lesson. Ask them if they can remember any sentences in the Present Simple and the Present Continuous from the video. Write them in two columns on the board. Do not worry if Ss do not remember all the sentences – use the script to read out the sentences with the target language and put the missing ones on the board. Then discuss the two tenses and what the difference in their meaning is.

2 (T–S, S–T) For Ss who still do not understand the difference between the Present Simple and the Present Continuous, use the teacher's explanation part of Video 14 – Grammar Animation from the Teacher's resources. (01:20–03:05) Optionally, if you feel they are doing well and can list a few examples and provide explanation, then you can omit the teacher's part.

TIP

You can play the animation for a third time in weaker groups or if Ss really want to watch it. Then pause after sentences where there are the Present Simple and the Present Continuous tenses. Ask Ss to decide which tense is used in the sentence and why. You can ask them to repeat a sentence, turning the subtitles off, especially where they had problems with a given example.

As an alternative, go to GRAMMAR FOCUS REFERENCE AND PRACTICE 3.5 on p. 129 and tell Ss to complete Exercises 1 and 2 on pp. 129–130 individually. Do a quick class check. Optionally, this could be given as homework.

PRODUCTION | 15 minutes

(S–S) Explain to Ss that, in pairs, they are going to prepare similar presentations as in the clip. Explain that the presentations won't have to be exactly the same, but they will have to use some of the language on the board.
Put Ss in pairs and give them 5 minutes to prepare their presentation. As they do this, walk around monitoring, supporting and taking notes of any problems. Ss should give their presentations in front of the class, to make it more engaging.

HOMEWORK

1 Give Ss WB p. 42 as homework.

2 Ask Ss to prepare for a 10–20-minute Grammar Quiz: Assessment Package, Unit 3.5, Grammar.

CONTINGENCY PLAN

Refer to TB p. 42 for extra activities.

TIP

See the lesson plan for Unit 3 Video Worksheets, FOCUS VLOG worksheet, for extra practice of the grammar topic.
