LESSON 7

WARM-UP | 6–8 minutes

1 (S–S, S–T, T–S) Put Ss in pairs. Ask them to write a few notices that might be found at their school. They should not use modal verbs, but they should express necessity and obligation, e.g. Do your homework! Be quiet! Turn off your mobiles! Speak English in the class! etc. Give them 2 minutes to do this. When the Ss are ready, elicit ideas from the pairs and write them on the board. Explain that these sentences will be used again later in the lesson.

2 (S–S, S–T, T–S) Ask Ss to turn to p. 54 and look at Exercise 1. Put them in pairs and give them 1 minute to discuss whether or not people in their country can do these things when they are sixteen. Then elicit ideas and check.

PRESENTATION | 10–12 minutes

1 (S–S, S–T, T–S) Refer Ss to Exercise 2. Give them 2 minutes to read the text to find out at what age people in the UK can do the things in Exercise 1 and then 30 extra seconds to check their answers in pairs before doing a class check.

2 (S–S, S–T, T–S) Refer Ss to Exercise 3. Give them 2 minutes to read the GRAMMAR FOCUS in pairs and discuss the rules. Then give Ss 1 extra minute to underline examples of have to / has to and don't have to / doesn't have to in the text in Exercise 2, then check.

3 (T–S, S–T) Go through the GRAMMAR FOCUS with the class. Explain the rules for when to use have to and how affirmative and negative sentences and questions are formed. Elicit from Ss example sentences about themselves using different forms of have to. Optionally, you can talk about school rules. Ask Ss to think of one rule about something they have to do at school, e.g. We have to do homework. and one rule which some schools have, but their school doesn't, e.g. We don't have to keep quiet in the playground.

PRACTICE | 5–7 minutes

(S–S, T–S, S–T) Ss do Exercise 4 individually. Discuss the example with the class. Then give Ss 3 minutes to complete the text and then 1 extra minute to check their answers in pairs before doing a class check. Check the concept further by asking additional questions, e.g. Is it necessary for an eighteen-year-old to ask his/her parents for permission to buy a house? (no).

TIP

See Culture notes on TB p. 154 for information about an L-plate.

EXTRA ACTIVITY

In pairs Ss look at the notices from the warm-up activity and use different forms of have to to make sentences about the school rules. Invite pairs to read out their sentences to the class. As an alternative, this could be done in the follow-up lesson or given as homework.

PRODUCTION | 10–12 minutes

1 (T–S, S–T) Refer Ss to Exercise 5. Give them 1 minute to look at the list of things and think about which of them their parents say they have to do and don't have to do. Then ask individual Ss to tell about themselves to the class. Model the activity: I have to make my bed and do the washing-up, but I don't have to be home by 11 p.m. at the weekend.

2 (T–S, S–S) Exercise 6. Give Ss 2 minutes to take turns to ask and answer questions about the activities in Exercise 5. Encourage Ss to give additional information. Model the activity:
A: Do you have to make your bed?
B: No, I don't. My mum makes the bed for me.
As Ss interact with each other, walk around taking notes of what you hear.

3 (S–T, T–S) Exercise 7. Invite Ss to tell about their partners' answers. Model the activity: Olga doesn't have to make her bed because her mum makes it for her, but she has to be home at 11 p.m. at the weekend. As Ss interact with each other, walk around taking notes of what you hear. When they have finished, give some feedback based on your notes.

LESSON 8

WARM-UP | 3–5 minutes

1 (T–S) Tell Ss that they are going to watch an animated cartoon which will give them more context for the grammar.

2 (T–S, S–T) Ask Ss a few warm-up questions like: Who is she? Where is she? What is the name of the programme? Where are Hana and Hugo from? What are they going to talk about? Play Video 18 – Grammar Animation from the Teacher's resources and stop after the introduction (00:28). At this stage Ss should have understood that it is a TV show where they are going to talk to people from different countries to learn about life of the teenagers.

PRESENTATION | 7–8 minutes

1 (T–S, S–T) Ask Ss to watch and listen carefully and to answer the following questions: What is Hana wearing? Why isn't she wearing shoes? What do teachers have to wear at school in Japan? How does she go to school? Can Hugo wear jeans to school? What does he think about English? Which sports does he do? Can Barbara wear her own clothes to school? How does she go to school? Which language is she learning? Play the video with the subtitles off.

2 (T–S, S–T) Play the whole video once again, with subtitles. Ask Ss to pay special attention to different forms of have to.

PRACTICE | 10–12 minutes

1 (T–S, S–T) Explain to Ss that the animation provides more context for the topic of the lesson. Ask them if they can remember any sentences with have to / not have to from the video. Write them in two columns on the board. Do not worry if Ss do not remember all the sentences – use the script to read out the sentences with the target language and put the missing ones on the board. Then recheck the concept and how to form the affirmative and negative sentences and questions.

2 (T–S, S–T) For Ss who still do not understand when and how to use have to, use the teacher's explanation part of Video 18 – Grammar Animation from the Teacher's resources (03:48–07:02). Optionally, if you feel they are doing well and can list a few examples and provide explanation, then you can omit the teacher's part.

TIP

You can play the animation for a third time in weaker groups or if Ss really want to watch it. Then pause after sentences where there is a form of have to. Ask Ss to decide which form is used in the sentence and why. You can ask them to repeat a sentence, turning the subtitles off, especially where they had problems with a given example.

As an alternative, go to GRAMMAR FOCUS REFERENCE AND PRACTICE 4.5 on p. 130 and tell Ss to complete Exercise 1 on pp. 130–131 individually. Do a quick class check. Optionally, this could be given as homework.

PRODUCTION | 15 minutes

Tell Ss that they are going to prepare similar dialogues in pairs. Explain that the dialogues won't have to be exactly the same, but they will have to use some of the language on the board. Divide Ss in groups of four and let them prepare for the dialogue. Ss should present their dialogues in front of the class, to make it more engaging.

HOMEWORK

1 Give Ss WB p. 54 as homework.

2 Ask Ss to prepare for a 10–20-minute Grammar Quiz: Assessment Package, Unit 4.5, Grammar.

CONTINGENCY PLAN

Refer to TB p. 54 for extra activities.

TIP

See the lesson plan for Unit 4 Video Worksheets, FOCUS VLOG worksheet, for extra practice of the grammar topic.
