LESSON 2

WARM-UP | 3–5 minutes

(T–S, S–T) Lead in and create interest in the lesson. Show Ss maps of Australia, Egypt and Thailand and elicit the countries. Ask: What do you know about these countries? Have you visited any of them? What famous places can you visit there? Which activities can you do there? If you've brought photos, use them as prompts. Have a brief class discussion.

TIP

See Culture notes in TB p. 157 for information about an elephant sanctuary and the Sinai Desert.

PRESENTATION | 12–14 minutes

1 (S–S, T–S, S–T) Ss do Exercise 1 individually. Tell Ss that for each sentence they should look for information in the conversation which shows whether the sentences are true or false. Play the recording so that Ss can both listen and read to do the exercise. Then give them 1 extra minute to check their answers in pairs. When they have finished, elicit the answers and the references from the conversation and check.

2 (S–S, S–T, T–S) Refer Ss to Exercise 2. Give them 1 minute to complete GRAMMAR FOCUS 1 and then 2 extra minutes to read the examples in pairs and discuss the rules. Then go through the GRAMMAR FOCUS with the class. Explain that we use the Present Perfect to talk about things happening in the past during a time that is not stated. Explain that we also use the Present Perfect with ever in questions to mean at any time in our life and never to mean at no time in our life. Give Ss more examples of how ever and never could be used, e.g. I have never had an operation. Ask Ss to come up with more examples of Present Perfect sentences. Optionally, go to GRAMMAR FOCUS REFERENCE AND PRACTICE 7.2 on pp. 133–134 and ask Ss to complete Exercises 1–3 on p. 134 individually. Do a quick class check. This could also be given as homework.

PRACTICE | 10 minutes

1 (T–S, S–T) Ss do Exercise 3 individually. Give them 2 minutes and then 1 extra minute to check their answers on p. 142. Confirm answers and drill the past participles. Then advise Ss to try to memorise 3–4 past participles a day, e.g. before they go to sleep or on the bus.

2 (T–S, S–T) Go through the REMEMBER THIS box with the class. Point out that gone refers to someone who has gone to a place, but has not yet returned, e.g. someone who has gone to Hawaii is still in Hawaii having a good time. On the other hand, been refers to a place which someone has visited at some time in their life, e.g. someone who has been to Hawaii has returned or is no longer there.

3 (S–T, T–S) Ss do Exercise 4 individually. Give them 2 minutes to complete Part 2 of the dialogue. Then play the recording so that Ss listen and check their answers. Check again how Present Perfect affirmative and negative sentences and questions are formed and elicit when ever and never are used.

PRESENTATION | 5 minutes

(S–S, S–T, T–S) Refer Ss to Exercise 5. Give them 1 minute to complete GRAMMAR FOCUS 2 and then 1 extra minute to read the examples in pairs and discuss the rules for when to use which verb tense. Say: I've ridden a camel. Then ask: Do we know exactly when? (no) Is it important? (no). Then, for the past simple, say: I rode a camel last year. Then ask: Do we know exactly when? (yes, last year). Elicit other time expressions that could be used with the Past Simple, e.g. in 2005, 2 years ago, yesterday morning, etc. Either give some more examples of Past Simple and Present Perfect sentences and elicit meaning or ask Ss to come up with some.

TIP

Ss make mistakes with both the meaning and form of the Present Perfect. This is because they may have the same form in their L1, but it is used in a different way (e.g. ~~I've seen it last week.~~) and they may also confuse the form with the past simple (e.g. ~~Did you have seen that film?~~). Check the form and the rules of the two tenses thoroughly and give Ss as much contextualised practice as possible.

PRODUCTION | 5–7 minutes

(S–S, S–T, T–S) Refer Ss to Exercise 6. Revise how we form Present Perfect questions. Give them 2 minutes to write questions. Monitor, support and identify problems as they do this. Then tell Ss that they will take turns to ask and answer the questions they have written. Encourage Ss to give full answers and as much detail as possible. Model the activity:

A: Have you ever broken a leg?
B: No, I haven't. But I've broken my arm.
A: When did you break your arm?
B: I broke it last year. While I was skateboarding, I fell down.
Put Ss in pairs. As they interact with each other, walk around taking notes of what you hear. When they have finished, invite individual Ss to share what their partners said and then give some feedback based on your notes.

HOMEWORK

1 Give Ss WB p. 86 as homework.

2 Ask Ss to prepare for a 10–20-minute Grammar Quiz: Assessment Package, Unit 7.2, Grammar.

CONTINGENCY PLAN

Refer to TB p. 86 for extra activities.

TIP
