Student B

1 You are a student doing a language course in England. You are staying with an English family. You are meeting one of the parents for the first time. Work in pairs to role play a dialogue.
Use the prompt cards to ask and answer questions.

You are the student, Student A is the parent:
- Reply to Student A's introduction and introduce yourself.
- Reply to Student A's information about their family and explain about your family.
- Reply to Student A's question about food and ask what time they usually eat meals.
- Reply to Student A's question about free time and ask about what things you can do in the local area.
- Say how happy you are to stay with them in their house.
