Student A

1 You are talking with a friend about organising an interesting day out for you and some friends.
The conversation can begin like this: Student A (You): Where should we go for our day out?

Continue the conversation to discuss the following things:

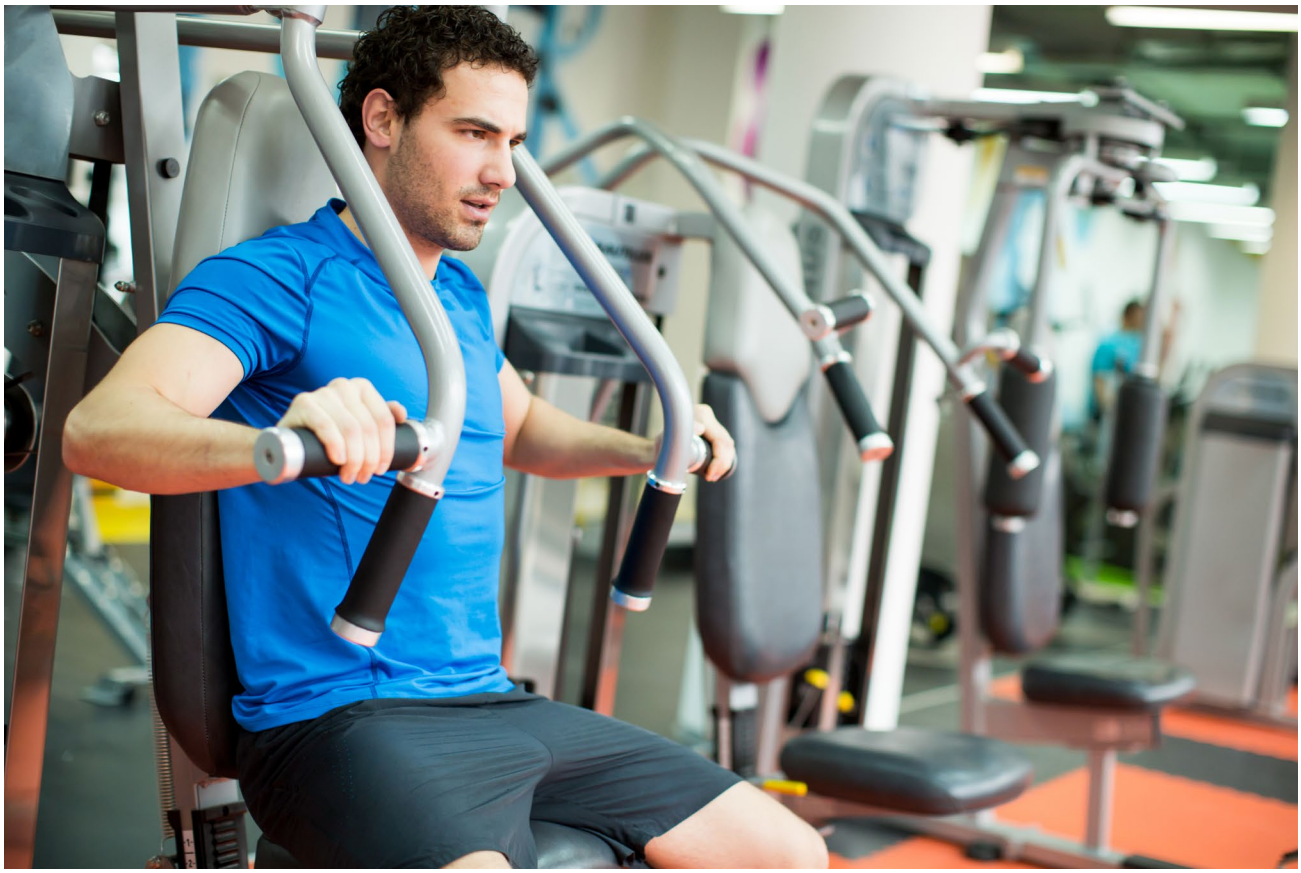

- the different places you could go to, then choose ONE of them
- what you and your friends can do there
- how you should travel there
- how much money you should take.

2 A friend has asked your advice about the best way to get fit and have fun at the same time.
Look at the three photos below and:

- decide which activity would be best for your friend and explain why
- explain why you rejected the other two activities.

Then answer the questions your teacher asks you.
